ertier, it is said.

Warren county has no county ugent to aid its farmers fight on he cotton pest or to furnish acprate figures on the amount of mestation. However, W. O. Davis, county agent for Halifax county, which borders the eastern part of Warren, reports the heaviest infesution in the history of Halifax county. This may also be true of Warren. Farmers feel that some relist is imperative and on Monday will ask the board to aid them.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

MANY WEEVILS IN HALIFAX WELDON, July 3.—Boll weevil infestation in Halifax county is the heaviest this year that we have ever had so early. Weevils have been found plentiful in all parts of the county. If the wet weather of June continues through July and August the weevil damages will be terrific unless our farmers fight weevil intelligently. It is easily possible for the cotton crop in the county to be cut 50 per cent or

In order to successfully fight weevils it is necessary to keep closely in touch with the weevil situation on your individual farm from the time squares begin to form until the crop is safe. This information is necessary in order to know what to do and when to do it. If weevils are found plentiful on Problems. small cotton before squares begin to form or when they begin to form the molasses mixture made up of one gallon of cheap molasses, one gallon of water and one pound of takium arsenate applied with a mop to the cotton plants. This gives good results by killing the over untered weavils before they have had an opportunity to lay their eggs in the first squares. If applied (Continued on page 10)

Dr. T. D. Kitchin Elected President Of Wake Forest

RALEIGH, July 3.—By a first ington and Lee University.

The sweeping victory of the new president, against whom a minority fight was waged for the past month, the choice and later heard Dr. Kitchin's short talk.

Promises Cooperation

Dr. William L. Poteat, president emeritus of the college, who was opposed to the election of Dr. Kitchin publicly stated that he would give the new president his whole hearted co-opera ion, whoever might be chosen, and the lesser lights of the ca, and believed he was seeing an opposition made similar statements. Dr. Kitchin himself stated to the trustees that he held no resentment

> The committee of five whose task it was to recommend a new president reported to the trustees, at the beginning of the meeting yesterday, that in view of the agitation that had existed it nad not found it possible to make any specific recommendation. Dr. J. Clyde Turner, the man on whom the anti-Kitchin forces had centered during the last trustees that it would be impossible even if he was elected.

The motion was made and passed that nomination would be received from the floor but that no speeches of eulogies would be allowed. The trustees were merely to name whom they desired and vote.

Kester Nominated

Robert Royal, of Wake Forest, nominated Dr. Kitchin. The only other nominee for the office was Dr. First Baptist Church, Wilmington ty, was the widow of N. G. Perkinand now educational secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Southern Baptist Convention.

When Dr. Kitchin won on the Colonel Frank Hobgood, of Greensboro and Dr. Wingate Johnson, of Winston-Salem, were then delegated to go to Wake Forest, inform Dr. Kitchin of his election and invite him to address the trustees if he so desired.

This year former Capt. Stephen E. Burroughs has contributed the cup for the regiment. This, according to Lieut. Skillman, is additional reason for the determination of the men to win again this year

"The cup goes from Warrenton and we are going to do our best to bring it back home," he said.

The regimental review will held on the 17th of July and a ball will be held that night. It is expected that many citizens of Warren will meter to Morehead for these events.

In handing over a roster of the men who are expected to attend ballot vote of 24 to eight, later made camp, Lieut. Skillman pointed out but it is slight in Warren, according unanimous, Dr. Thurman D.
