ACCURATE, TERSE TIMELY

The Warren Record

MOST OF THE NEWS ALL THE TIME

VOLUME XXXII

WARRENTON, COUNTY OF WARREN, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1932

Subscription Price, $1.50 a Year

Tobacco Market Opens

NUMBER 39

RIMINAL SESSION Cotton Speaker AY END TODAY Court Recesses Thursday Af-ternoon For Funeral Of Judge Midyette PAY TRIBUTES TO JURIST The criminal session of the Septerm of Warren county Sup-ar court, presided over by Judge Frizzelle of Snow Hill, will mbably end today.

There was only one case on the minal docket yesterday when urt adjourned at 12:30 o'clock til 9:30 this morning in order mat members of the bar and other Hends of Judge Garland E. Midstle, who died suddenly Tuesday democn at Elizabeth City, might are an opportunity to attend his meral at Jackson yesterday after-court by Sclicitor R. Hunt Parer Judge Frizzelle and John H. en Jr., after Former Sheriff R. E. avis arose from the jury box and ated that a distinguished Superior purt Judge and great friend of the tizens of Warren county was to be mied in the afternoon and that he Warren County s asking in behalf of the people this county that the court take cice of his death. Beautiful butes to Judge Midyette as a un as a solicitor and as a judge Mowed.

the jury was deliberating over wase of State against John archette, local negro charged with manslaughter, when court recessed and Judge Frizzelle ordered members of the jury not to discuss the case with others or among themselves and to return Friday morning at 9:30 c'clock.

Burchette is on trial as the result of fatally striking John Reid, local negro blacksmith, with a piece of ron several weeks ago. According to evidence no hard kling existed between the two groes. Ed Baldwin, an eye witness, stified that the two men were ap-

M. G. MANN,

Indutes of respect were paid secretary-treasurer of the North idge Midyette yesterday morning Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association, who will be the main speaker at the Warren countywide cotton meeting to be held in the court house at Warrenton Saturday afternoon, September 24, at two o'clock. The public is invited.

Cotton Farmers To Meet Here Saturday

Warren County cotton farmers will gather in the court house here zelle failed to comply with their courts were among members of the Saturday, September 24, for a coun- request. ty-wide cotton meeting at which M. G. Mann, secretary-treasurer of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Ccoperative Association, will be the principal speaker. The meeting will get underway at two o'clock in the afternoon and is open to the public in general.

terncon for the trial of Brown Rod-Mr. Mann will discuss the present well, young white man of Oakville, gone by judges felt that they should outlook for the price of cotton, excharge the jury at length and ofwho was charged with operating an cotton seed loan and seasonal and automobile in a reckless manner, as- tentimes their charges lasted for plain the disposition of last year's optional pool, handled through the sault, and hit-and-run driving on two or three hours, but that was to those which the teachers and the is being paid off as it becomes due. cooperative, and will touch upon the morning of December 25, 1929, in a day when illiteracy was high. rently engaged in play when the dvantages the cotton associa- when a serious automobile accident "Today there are comparatively braries contain at best only a very ed the convict camp and find same the advantages the cotton associa-occurred on the Warrenton-Hender- few illiterates. People now read and small number of books suited to the sanitary and well kept. write and are well informed and my in handling his cotton this year. road near needs of any one grade, any one charge shall be brief." Most of his line. Briefly he will review the opera-The delay of the case in reaching remarks were addressed to memtions of the cotton association since the courts of Warren was due to bers of the Grand Jury in cutlining dangerous to have nothing except how cooperative cotton is sold, and the fact that Brown was first tried their duties. give other information of interest in Federal court. He was found guilty of transporting whiskey at Board of Health to the farmer. the time of the collision and sen-Following Mr. Mann's talk the Orders Sore Eye tenced to Chillicothe, Ohio, where meeting will be opened for questions he served time for 27 months. He Cases Isolated school. and for a general discussion of the returned to Warren county this cotton situation. month and was brought before Meeting in called session on Mon-"Although this meeting is being Judge Taylor to settle his score with day, the Warren county Board of sponscred by the cotton association the State of North Carolina. Health tock preventive steps to it is not strictly a cooperative meet-When the two vehicles crashed on prevent an epidemic of sore eyes ing in any sense of the word but Chirstmas morning three years ago is head and whatever the object rather is a county-wide meeting and Mrs. J. A. Holt Jr., of Burlington from spreading through the schools has he merely tossed at Reid. He non-members as well as cooperative was injured slightly and her sisterof the county, Prevalence of this Was given a good reputation by members are urged to attend,," re- in-law received a fractured skull disease in other sections of the state marked R. T. Melvin, cooperative and later found it necessary to have made this action seem imperative, I know of teachers who have searching for a verdict of manslaughter. field representative in Warren, her eye removed. J. A. Holt Jr., was a member of the board said. The Board instructed Superin-Wake and Franklin counties. driving the automobile in which his Mr. Melvin said personal letters wife and sister were traveling in tendent of Schools J. Edward Alatter, James Thomas Ramie, fif- of invitation were not mailed out, the direction of Richmond, and it len to inform the teachers of the " or sixteen year-old negro boy it being thought that an announce- was alleged that Brown was oper- county that the following resolution the Ridgeway section, was tried ment in Warren's newspapers would ating the other automobile which had been passed: raping a thirteen or fourteen reach practically every farmer in was headed towards Henderson. "Effective at once, all teachers are required to examine children in In court here Brown denied that he was operating the automobile schools for inflamed eyelids; and which caused the accident by travel- any child found with eyes so af-

And Colored Race CAUSES OF CRIME

possibly in years gone by there may have been a tendency to decide issues in favor of the white man but the things which they became for the past fifteen years it had accustomed to in childhood and later been his observation that the cclored man is treated fairly in court. Judge Frizzelle said that fre-

Says Justice Meted

afternoon.

Alike To White

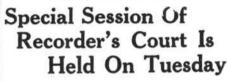

quently issues were decided in favor of the colored man in cases that crease in crime. involved members of both races.

man and a very prominent white citizen and the verdict was rendered in favor of the colored man.

"And the matter of race should be that they were unable financially disregarded in deciding matters in to purchase the things that they court," he said. "They are not represented on the jury, at the bar or on the bench, and it is well that the court see that they are treated fairly." These observations of Judge Friz-of race in the case possibly influenced members of the jury. Judge Fraz-

A special session of Recorder's court was held here on Tuesday af- towards reducing crime."

Desires In Excess of Earning Capacity Responsible For Much Unlawfulness

WHITE CASES GROWING

JUDGE DISCUSSES Library Necessary

Unwillingness on the part of many individuals to deny themselves in life were unable to buy was given by Judge Paul Frizzelle in his charge to the jury on Mcnday morning as one of the reasons for the in-

The Snow Hill jurist said that "Just recently," he said, "in one of a great number of the young men the counties in which I presided of today were reared in families there was a case between a colcred where there was plenty and their desires were satisfied and when these boys grew older and went out into life on their own and found desired that they resorted to crime. Adoption of the cardinal principles practiced by the pioneers of this country was suggested as a medium for keeping the young of this country out of court. Judge Frizzelle zelle were expressed after attorneys said that the rigid economy, hard from Jackson appeared before the work and Christian training practicjurist asking that he set aside a ed by our forefathers would have its verdict which had been rendered by influence in reducing the crime wave a Northampton county jury. The at- which has been on the increase for torneys intimated that the matter the past ten or fifteen years.

"I can remember when practically all the cases coming before our colored race. But for the past fifteen years more and more white boys and young men are being caught for violation of the various laws until today a great percentage of the cases coming befor the courts are composed of white defendants.

Every person should respect the courts and do as much as possible

Judge Frizzelle said that in years

Work, Says Allen At Warrenton Tuesday "I believe the Warren County Memorial Library is a very neces-Affairs of Warren sary thing to the best sort of school work," says J. Edward Allen, Superintendent of Warren schocls, in an article prepared for The Warren Record, discussing the relation of reading to school work. His article in full follows: "After all is said about them, the public schools have but one dutyonly one thing ought to be expected ion was expressed in the Grand in order and everything is in readiof them. That one function is, to Jury's report which was tendered to ness for caring for the golden weed educate boys and girls, to build characters, to train future citizens. morning.

For Best School

Superior Court:

Whatever kind cf school does this The investigating body was disbest, is the best sort of school. It missed with words of appreciation follows that there is but one meafrom the court for the service which sure of a school, and that is, "Does had been rendered. The report in this school do the best jcb of teachfull follows: Warrenton, N. C. Sept. 1932.

ing boys and girls, making future citizens, wage earners and homemakers, building strong charactersor is there another sort of school that con do a better job of these things?'

"All school work begins with habits to the best of our ability the reand the use of some necessary tools. sponsible duties assigned us, re-Arithmetic is a tool-has no value spectfully beg to report that we except to work with. Writing is a tcol-has no value except to get some results with. In the same way, we learn to read because the ability to read is a necessary tool in civilizdormitories clean, and the inmates ed life. Reading is worthless except as the ability to read is put to use.

with the management and condi-"I believe the Warren County tions. Memorial Library is a very necessary thing to the best sort of public school work. Children are required to possess as their very own, a few spection. The prisoners assure the for medium and common tobaccos. bocks. The partents of most of jury that they are well fed, and them cannot afford to buy very that they have every reasonable many. But good school depends on comfort. "We have inspected the Court much reading. The child who reads sparingly learns slowly. All school House, the offices of Sheriff, Audiwork depends on the ability to read tor, Clerk of the Court, Register of with interest, speed and comprehen-Deeds and office of Superintendent sion. Children in even the primary of Schools, and find all in good grades should read many books. Incondition, and we unhesitatingly say that our county officers as a vestigation showed that last year, children in even the first grade of whole are a credit to any county. W. Kirby of Raleigh, State inspecsome schools in this county read as The Auditor advises us that the tor, pointed out yesterday afternoon many as a dozen books in addition bonded indebtedness of the county at a meeting held in the office of course of study required. School li-"We have examined and inspect-

Grand Jury Says HICKS TO AUCTIONEER The Warrenton tobacco market Public offices and institutions of Warren are in good shape and the will open next Tuesday morning. The two warehouses which will public cfficials as a whole would be a credit to any county. This opin- be operated here this season are

In Good Condition.

Judge Paul Frizzelle Wednesday that is expected to begin rolling into Warrenton Monday night and early Tuesday morning.

Two Warehouses to Operate .

Here This Year; Same

Buyers To Return

The tobacco that comes to Warrenton this year will be handled at Boyd's warehouse and at Centre warehouse. The Farmers Brick warehouse is not expected to be open this year.

'To Hon. J. Paul Frizzelle, Judge The Centre warehouse will be operated by R. K. Carroll and "We, the Grand Jury for the Branch Bobbitt. Mr. Bobbitt was in September Term Superior Court for charge of the Farmer's Brick ware-Warren County, having performed house last season.

Boyd's warehouse will be run by W. N. Boyd and J. E. Rooker.

The same buyers are expected to have visited and inspected the return to the Warrenton market this County Home through a special year, and the weed will again be committee from our body, and find auctioneered by John Hill Hicks of the same in good condition, the Henderson.

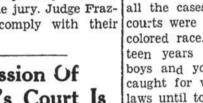

A note of optimistm prevails in express themselves as well pleased connection with the opening of the tobacco season this year. Predictions are that the market will average

"We visited the county jail in a higher than last year in view of the body and gave it a thorough in- decreased acreage and better prices

Borrowing Farmers Have Three Options, Inspector Kirby Says

Farmers who borrowed money from the government and whose cotton is secured by government liens are offered three options, C. J. C. Howard, government Field inspector.

Mr. Kirby said that the farmer may sell his cotton and pay his loan, "We have acted on all matters he may store his cotton in a bondand bills coming before us and re- ed warehouse, or he may place his crop with the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association. He said that either of the three would be entirely satisfactory with the government, but that the farmer should not carry his cotton home for storage after it was ginned for the W. Shearin Jr., H. E. Coleman, C. reason that it was subject to loss J. Tucker, W. E. Mulchi, Stanley from the weather, thievery and fire. When tobacco farmers market F. T. Reid, A. L. Nicholson, Wil- their crop they should carry with them cards of identification and all the receipts that they have received from the government. The purpose of this, it was stated, is to avoid confusion when the tobacco is sold. Identification cards have been mailed out to each borrower, Mr. Howard Mr. Kirby was accompanied to Warrenton by W. D. Flynn, who is Andrew Hunt Jr., 7-year-old boy in charge of the collecting end of two men had been throwing tter on one another in what seemto him to be a friendly manwhen Burchette reached up over head, caught hold of a piece iron and threw it at Reid. The tissile found its way to Reid's head ud he died later from a fractured full in a Rocky Mount hospital. Burchette testified that John Reid is one of the best friends that had, that they frequenly worktogether, and that he was not ad when he struck Reid. He said hat he did not know what he pickup when he reached back over Marius witnesses. The state is ask-While the jury endeavored to ach a verdict in the Burchette Mar-old negro girl. Through counsel the county.

² plead guilty to the charge. Folming the testimony of several witasses who gave the opinion that a tod whipping would do the boy as ach good as any thing else, Judge tizelle asked Mr. Polk, who was Wesenting the defendant, to point a responsible negro man in the at room who lived in the section deted to stand, Judge Frizzelle in-

You are not connected with this az, are you?

^{No, sir,"} Jerman replied. For the good of this boy and for good of your race what do you and should be done with him." you want to know what I by think?" Jerman asked.

Well, in my mind I think a good apping would do him as much as anything you could do to Samie is to receive a good and from his father, according sentence passed by the court th reads as follows:

e defendant is to be confined I for a period of twelve months. aned to work the roads. Upon ment of costs and the condition the defendant remain of good avier and the further condition band will drive into Warrenton on the father administer to him the 29th of this month and park and thrashing which the father, in front of the court house where "pen court, agrees to do, the de- music will be rendered, talks made, dant is given until the January and souvenirs given away in boost-of 1933 to pay the costs. Capias ing the North Carolina State Fair. ssue at any time within three

(Continued on Page 8) on.

"We are expecting a large crowd," he added.

Warrenton Eleven Plays Oxford Today Burlington man visited him in the John Graham High school football players gc to Oxford this afterwhence Ramie came. When noon to meet the Oxford school thes Jerman was pointed out and eleven at 2:30 in the second game of the season.

The Warrenton boys lcst the initial game of the season on last Friday afternoon when they faced a team made up of Norlina school boys and town boys. Greatly cutand when it was remanded to the weighed, the locals fought determlower tribunal Mr. Parker stated inedly against the visitors, but took that the State's witness had come the small end of a 6-13 score. Playfrom Burlington, that Solicitor ing of both teams was ragged, par-

Daniels was in court, and asked that ticularly in blocking. Judge Taylor try the case that af-Wocdrow Parker was outstanding ternoon as a matter of convenience. star for the locals with Charlie Lee The trial took place in the Mayor's Terrell, midget quarter, running office.

him a close second. Duke was star of the Norlina team.

Fair Boosters To Be Here September 29

Two busses carrying Raleigh business men and the State College camp over whom he stands guard. Miss Sally Paschall, and one sister, Mr. Neal was sitting on the back Mrs. Hester Paschall. of the prison truck riding into Warrenton one day this week when he glimpsed a crow flying overhead. whipped out his pistol and fired. The bird tumbled to the earth, shear, and the extra vacation. One stepped into the request of the solici- Warrenton at 12:45. The delegation the prisoners looked astonished, and the extra vacation. One stepped into

Frank Neal Proves

Good Marksman

Will be welcomed here by Mayor then expressed themselves as unwill- a nest of yellowback waspo and scription of Montmorenci and of and Barker Williams on Monday, and Miss Katherine Scorgin on Monday, the second time this season in Nathaniel Macon's home was given and Miss Katherine Scorgin on The state against Frank H. Gibbs, after which the ing to take a chance by running the result was 17 badiy stung chin-Holloway, negro, is the last brief booster program will be put from Mr. Neal who also handles a dren. Mrs. Ada Sykes, the teacher, the yard of Robert Smith here. shotgun.

ing across the road to the left side fected shall be excluded from school of the highway, and stated that he until cured. Such cases are to be had never seen Mr. Holt until the reported to the ccunty superintendent promptly by the principal. Warren county jail. Gilmer Overby, his attorney, argued before the court from others, as far as possible, those that it was a case of mistaken with sore eyes.

"The county superintendent idenity, but Judge Taylor thought otherwise and sentenced Brown to directed to inquire cf the county superintendents of other counties jail, assigned to work the roads, for which have had experience with this a period of six months.

ty.'

The special session of Recorder's trouble, what the best method of court was held at the request of handling same seems to be, and to times each year. Solicitor R. Hunt Parker. Brown's take necessary steps to prevent an case was billed for Superior court epidemic of scre eyes in this couno'clcck. Burial services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Roach of Norlina.

Mrs. Paschall died at her home at oners of the Warren county prison ed by her husband, one daughter,

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 22 .-The bird tumbled to the earth, short, but the pupils didn't enjoy grade, any one child. These are soon all used, and grow stale. It is stale material with which a child may be stimulated. Hence the county library is a most valuable storehouse of material to supplement what is soon used up in the local

"The state says that no school can be an accredited high school unless it has certain minimum requirements of library materials. These requirements are all too meagre. A good high school teacher knows that she needs a great wealth of library material which cannot be had in any school library in this county. ed the County Library during the summer for materials to be used with their classes the next sessionwho give assignments from this teachers-and the whole school knows them as such.

"And it takes a librarian who knows her materials and her tasks to cident reaching here the boy was farmers and was more or less a make a library useful. This part of the County Library is most valuable. A gcod librarian can make five perienced in making them useful. We are most fortunate in this re-shelves-it is in use. Every bock, on an average, is used three or four

"The library deserves the utmost support of all citizens. It is now, like everything else, barely struggling to keep from going out of business. We cannot afford to let this necessary servant cease to be available to us-we must have it."

Tar River Association To Meet October 5-6

The 102nd session of the Tar Elm City early on Friday morning. River Baptist Association will be held at Ephesus church, near Spring Frank Neal has won the reputa- Her health had not been regarded and 6th, according to announcement made yesterday by J. Edward Allen, Methodist minister. Interment was Moderator. The introductory sermon in the Elm City cemetery. will be preached by the Rev. Charles B. Hcward, minister well known in Warren county. There are 62 churches and approximately 11,000 members in the Tar River Baptist Association.

TREE BLOSSOMS TWICE

spectfully ask to be discharged.

"Respectfully submitted, "W. E. DAVIS, Foreman." Those serving on the jury with Mr.

Davis were. W. P. Bowers, John J. Harris, J Powell, J. Boyd Davis, J. C. Brauer, liam Carter, G. W. Little, C. F. Alston, W. G. Little, S. L. Carroll, Joe Moseley. Dynamite Cap

Explosion Costs Boy Part Of His Finger

material-who get results from it. of Elberon, lost part of a finger the loans granted in North Carolina Such teachers are invariably point- and received several other cuts on and other southern states. His ed out by students as the best of Saturday night when an old dyna- headquarters are at Washington, mite cap that he had found ex- D.C. ploided in his home.

According to reports of the acrumaging around in an old out- round table discussion.

house Saturday afterncon and ran across a dynamite cap and placed "Parents are advised to segregate thousand books more useful than it in the end of a tin horn that fifteen thousand would be in the he had with him. That night he hands of one not trained and ex- was in the kitchen with his horn and stuck one end of it near the fire and the cap, said to be around spect. Our library is not hidden on 20 years old, exploided.

One piece of the tin found its way shoulder and knee.

Dr. W. D. Rodgers who is treating Hunt said that the boy was getting along fine.

B. C. Batts, 48. brother of Ben

D. A. R. MEETING

Mrs. J. E. Allen, Regent, was hostess this month to the Daughters

The meeting was attended by about fifteen business men and

Norlina School Election Carries By 1 Vote; Contested

Offical returns from the Norlina school district election held on Monto the youth's finger while other day to determine whether a special parts of it were forced into his arm, levy should be made to pay for agricultural work in the school show that the election was carried by a majority of one.

Notice of contest has been filed with the Register of Deeds by oppenents of the measure and will be discussed at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners at the regular October meeting.

JOINS RECORD STAFF

Batts, manager of the Warrenton Miss Sara Howard Ward joins the A. & P. Store, died at his home at staff of The Warren Record this week. She replaces her sister, Miss Funeral services were held from Caroline Ward, who left the first of the home on Saturday morning by the week for the University of the Rev. W. R. Cambell, Baptist North Carolina where she is taking pastor, and Rev. W. I. Knight, a course in journalism.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Edith Broom of Fayetteville is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Allen.

Mr. T. E. Palmer of Macon was of the American Revolution. The in town on Thursday.

Messrs. Tom Holt and Alfred Wilprogram, on Warren county history, was in charge of Mrs. C. R. Rcd- liams departed for Chapel Hill on BRAINTREE, Mass., Sept. 22.-An well and Miss Amma Graham, by Sunday, followed by Miss Caroline will be welcomed here by Mayor then expressed themselves as unwill- a nest of "yellowback" wasps and apple tree, which already had borne whom papers were read. A de-Ward and Messrs. Armistead Boyd

Wise at 6 o'clock Friday morning. Hope, Nash county, on October 5th

15

tion of a marksman among the pris- as good for some time. She is surviv-

WASPS STOP SCHOOL

Calmly he reached to his hip, The first day of school for 17 children of the Harris school was cut

