There is something awfully swagger and mighty comfortable that makes for the popularity of the knitted sweater suit and three-piece ensemble. . . . While the crew neck sweater is favored by many, the sur-plice type, as shown above, continues to be one of the leaders. Note the knitted blouse and belted sweater with broad shoulder and sleeves comfortably full.

Tweed effects in knitted suits are very much in demand, with interest centered on the jacket type as shown above. The mixture tweed knit with ribbed waistline is among the leaders. The model above is the zephyr knit. Old gold and orange as basic color with almost any harmonizing yet contrasting trim is being worn. Monotones beige, white and browns are also popular.
