FOLUMN XXXIII

WARRENTON, COUNTY OF WARREN, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1932

Subscription Price, $1.50 a Year

NUMBER 1

PAGE 2

Eight New Candidates | NURSING COURSES Mystery Shrouds In Popularity Contest IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Mrs. J. E. Adams Retains First Place In Second Tabulation of Ballots

VOTE IS NEARLY 250-000

week as the total num_afternoon was as follows: of ballots cast approached the Mrs. J. E. Adams_____54.525 arter of a million mark at the M ond tabulation of votes on M

Mednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Acams still holds her M nsition in first place but during M he week Miss Martha Reynolds M Price cut her lead down nearly M 4000 as she went from sixth to N goond place, polling 45,550 votes, M p lead in the second count of N allots. Miss Lucy Leach came into N he running this week with a bang, I making her debut in the race with M total of 35,850 votes and landing in third place.

It's much too early to pick the inner in the Merchants Populariw contest and just who will receive the three sets of china offered by The Warren Record as prizes remains in the pure realm of specustion. It's anybody's race yet.

Interest is expected to increase with each tabulation of votes. That this interest is increasing by leaps nd bounds was revealed with the gond tabulation of votes on Wed. day afternoon. The first count votes last week showed that htly less than 40,000 had been the tabulation this week realed more than 200,000, sending

Last week there were twelve canmates; this week 20. New candi- R. T. Snipes this week. appearing for the first time Ms Mary Drake, Mrs. Frank season. tt, Miss Mary Ann Peoples, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Scoggin. byd Wood. Those previously enfartha Reynolds Price, Miss Selma afternoon. Mrs L. C. Kinsey, Mrs. E. Gillam, Mrs. S. G. Wilson, Mrs. day in Henderson. Illington, Mrs. Claude Bowers, and Boston for several days this week.

Miss Sadie King. gring votes for payment of cash week at Currituck. Drug Co., Gillam Auto Co., Miles Axtelle with relatives. Hardware Co., Boyce Drug Co., a. Warrenton Department Store, The Warren Record, Rodwell Richmond by Mr. John Henderson. whers. Miss M. R. Burroughs, business houses listed above, during the holidays.

mall Fire Here On Thursday Morning here on Monday afternoon.

The conflagration of oil barrels at excitement Thursday morn_ and citizens gathered to watch them for a visit. en extinguish the blaze with emicals. The fire was of small mensions and slight damage was usiness houses of Warrenton will visitors here. closed on Monday in observance the New Year holiday.

GUILD MEETS

The St. Mry's Guild met last decided to meet hereafter in eral days here this week. afternoon instead of at night. iness plans for the coming year discussed.

the marriage of their J. P. Massenburg and family. lighter, Ella, to Mr. Walter Rob-White on December 27. 1932.

HONORS MISS WILLIAMS Iriends informally at tea last Baskervill. ams of New York.

Merchants Popularity Contest

Standing of Candidates

The standing of the 20 candidates entered in the Merchants Populari-Bight new candidates entered the ty contest at the second tabulation chants Popularity contest dur- of votes at 5 o'clock on Wednesday

Miss	Martha Reynolds Price_46,725
Miss	Lucy Leach35,850
Miss	Selma Overby22,600
Mrs.	L. C. Kinsey17,775
Mrs.	E. E. Gillam13,125
	Mary Drake8,175
Mrs.	N. M. Palmer7,500
Mrs.	Frank Serls Jr5,650
Mrs.	S. G. Wilson5,350
Miss	Jennie C. Alston4,425
Mrs.	Frederick Williams4,275
Mrs.	Sam Rivers4,250
	A. J. Ellington3,625
	Claude Bowers2,975
	Helen Frazier1,650
Mrs.	John Garrett1,400
	Sadie King1,200
	Mary Ann Peoples1,100
	Loyd Wood1,025

Among Visitors At Warrenton For

a visitor here last week. Mr. Walter Parker of New York was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edstotal count for the two weeks mund White during the holidays.

Mrs. Jim Horner of Oxford was week are Miss Lucy Leach, a visitor here during the Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Beddoe were details about this. gred were Mrs. J. E. Adams, Miss visitors in Henderson on Monday

M. Palmer, Mrs. Frederick Wil- Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lawson and he had not yet been furnished the erative members. ms, Mrs. Sam Rivers, Mrs. A. J. children were visitors in South name of this instructor.

The Popularity contest received a in Henderson Monday afternoon. most this week when the Carolina Messrs. R. B. Boyd and son, lower & Light Company joined Richard, and Shippe McCarroll of with other business houses here in New York hunted several days this!

m purchase or accounts. Other Mr. and Mrs. Numa Weaver and well known to most North Caromerchants participating are Hun_children spent Christmas day at linians but there is another pas-Strice. Home Furniture & Supply She was accompanied as far as for the winter.

Erris & Gardner, Service Shoe Miss Gertrude Draper of Laurin- husking but time is taken for so_ was followed by the singing of the operation was never performed. His fication or any other such activity. Toting for your favorite candi- Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ellington.

the is a simple matter. All you Mr. and Mrs. Joe Powell and the to do is spend your cash with children were visitors at Mocksville hard labor.

It giving votes, ask him to par- Mrs. Arthur Petar on Monday. Expate in the contest. It's just Mr. and Mrs. Archie Alston and host had attended one of Graeber's school unless this is attended to. John W. Adcock, 77,

Miss Jaqueline Palmer Moore of flew. new Standard Filling Station Littleton were guests of Mrs. John at to the Episcopal church caused Powell on Monday. Miss Dorothy each blazed tree was a cull which their cwn use. A Christmas gift 1:05 o'clock. Heart trcuble was further welding of community and

Mr. Walter Allen of Axtelle vis-

Mr. henry Hunter Fitts, Miss The Citizens Bank and other Stallings, all of Macon, were recent cull trees. The sound, desirable this territory is nominated for this county about 20 years ago.

> Elizabeth Allen of Oxford were work, they caught the vision of a served and the session adjourned guests of Mrs. E. S. Allen Christmas Day.

with Mrs. M. C. McGuire. It Hospital, Rocky Mount, spent sev- reasonable."

Mrs. R. Z. Egerton spent the holidays in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Frazier an- back to Durham by Mr. and Mrs. and J. H. Duke. A chicken salad and Mrs. T. J. Holt, Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Fannie Powell of Henderson

Mrs. C. A. Tucker entertained a was a week end guest of Miss Lucy shopped here last week.

To Be Taught In Warrenton And Norlina White And

Warrenton Negro Schools

Red Cross nursing will be given to go to his farm near Dinwiddie, Va.

The course is made possible Lynchburg. students completing the course.

Board esteems it to be a full one. half unit course," Supt. J. Edward Allen said this week in a letter to and are continuing the search. the principals of the schools af-The Holidays fected asking the cooperation of all Not Much 'Gin-Cut' concerned. "I believe the number of Mrs. Harry Williams of Inez was registration is very strictly limited. I suggest that you and the teacher of Home Economics choose the matriculates from the applicants by a rational process of selection. I sug-Mr. Ben Egerton of Henderson-|gest further that the course in ville was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Home Economics be so revised that there will be no duplication of material in the nursing section.

teacher will have to work out the than last."

Mrs. J. A. Dameron was a visitor Wood Cutting Bees

neighborhood corn huskings are length at the gin. time now making its appearance in The meeting of the American Bishop Cheshire died at Char- with the proper county officers and Mr. John Tarwater has returned the northern tier of piedmont Legion Auxiliary was held Thurs- lotte Sanatorium at 6:30 o'clock on with committees for each commu-Warrenton Service Station, Cash from spending a week in New York. counties where men of the commu-day night, December 15th, with Tuesday evening. He was in his 83rd nity in the county. These commit-Miss Alice Vaiden Williams re- nity gather at the various farms Mrs. C. R. Rodwell, she being joint year. He was taken to the hospital tees will be responsible for any Men. Son & Co., Boyce Motor turned to New York on Monday. and cut the supply of fuel wood hostesses with Mrs. C .A. Tucker on December 16 to undergo treat. program of work to be attempted as sufficient reward for the day of swered to the roll call.

ming up and there will be lots son, Bill, were visitors near Hender-timber thinning demonstrations. The Christmas box for the fun before the close on February son for several days during the last winter. When the farmer sent boys at Oteen was packed, the out the invitations to attend his usual gifts of sweaters, bathrobes, Mesdames R. A. Baxter and Helen "chopping" he had already marked etc., being given, and for those Funeral services for John W. Addemonstration clubs welded into class A certificates; 13 class B; and Moore Overby, and Miss Katherine the weed trees in his woodland and who did not wish a gift, $2 each in cock will be conducted this morn-county federations and guided by six with class C certificates. Twen-Baxter of Ridgeway were visitors when the neighbors came and saw cash.

caused a few caustic remarks but from home for the first time. timber trees were left standing. As position. Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Allen and Miss the men looked back over their Delicious new farm practice unfolding before to meet in January. their eyes and one said, "Why it's Miss Mary Wagner of Park View like thinning out corn and just as in honor of Miss Alice Vaiden Mrs. Lawrence Overby of Afton no session of Recorder's court this Mrs. M. C. McGuire and Mr. J. P. Fleming. After the usual business, Mrs. Louis Scoggin of Louisburg for the North Pole after his south.

Disappearance Of Henderson Man

Mystery still shrouds the disap. pearance of R. S. McCoin, former State Senator and prominent business man of Henderson. Mr. McCoin TO LAST FOR SIX WEEKS left his home on last Thursday for Richmond from which place he was in the John Graham High School When he failed to show up at his at Warrenton, the Norlina High farm a nation-wide search was be-School and in the John R. Hawkins gun that has failed to locate the colored school at Warrenton for the missing man. Investigators traced first eight weeks of the second him to Richmond where he apparsemester, it was learned yesterday ently vanished after buying gasoline at the office of the superintendent at a filling station, and inquiring the direction to Farmville and through the recovery of $280 of Red A letter received by Judge W. P. Cross funds deposited in the Bank Stacy and turned over to Kenderson of Warren and through the don 1- police purported to be a confession 5 tion of an additional $160 by a from a boy in Chicago. This letter 5 philanthrophic agency, the name of said that he and two companions which was not revealed. The only riding in a car sideswiped the auto-5 cost to those taking this course is mobile of the Henderson man beexpected to be the purchase of a tween Henderson and Richmond and 0 75 cent textbook, and credit of one- that one of his companions murdered o half unit will be given to those Mr. McCoin in an altercation with him, took the body to a lonely place "This course in nursing theory near Hagerstown, Md., and buried it. and practice will last for eight Acting upon advice contained in the weeks or more and the Red Cross letter, police revealed that they had authorities in Washington assure located in Columbus, Ohio, the auus that the Federal Vocational tomobile of Mr. McCoin. in spite of this fact authorities were inclined to believe that the letter was a hoax,

Cotton This Year, Co-op Classer Says

Cotton Growers Cooperative Asso- Good Shepherd at Raleigh on "I believe this can be a valuable bers this season, according to Ben- by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Edwin A. course. It is expected that under bury Haywood, head classer, who Penick, assisted by the Rev. Theo-Is Jr., Miss Jennie C. Alston, Mr. and Mrs. William Plummer controlled conditions there may be said "even at that gin cut bales are dore Patrick Jr., and the Rev. Mil-Was Helen Frazier, Mrs. John Gar- of Lumberton were recent guests of certain classes for adults; but the slightly more in evidence this year ton A. Barber, S. T. D., president

At the end of the cotton season diocese. The National Red Cross Chap- "gin-cut" and two-sided bales will A number of bishops from neigh- under the guidance of home and schools." ter will send a member of its staff be reworked in order that they may boring dioceses were present. All of farm agents, vocational teachers, here to give instruction, Superin- be marketed in a manner to obtain the clergy of the diocese of North the Grange, and other agencies cases the addresses of principals tendent Allen said, but added that the most money possible for coop. Carolina were present and vested now existing in most counties. ALL NO. IS said, result from ginning cotton Laymen attending from Emmanuel for a model community organizawhile it is green or too wet and church, Warrenton, were M. C. tion and when these are completed of the postponement to all parties from running the gin too fast. Two- McGuire, S. E. Burroughs, Joe Ellis, a bulletin on "Community Organi-Growing In Favor sided bales result from allowing Gordon Poindexter. cotton of one staple length to fol- | Following the services in Raleigh | published. The plan of organization | The good times enjoyed at low that of a different staple the body was taken to Tarboro is modeled somewhat after those

AUXILIARY MEETS

This new pastime calls for more L. C. Kinsey, president, presided. but shortly after he entered he took home gardening, canning, poultry semester. Rev. and Mrs. Leon Draper and stamina than possibly the corn A prayer by Miss Amma Graham a change for the worse and the raising, soil fertility, home beautifor your votes, mark your fa- Mesdames Joe Ellis and W. B. farmer used the occasion to teach was unanimously voted to denate Carolina for 39 years and his addesired. mite's name and drop the ballots Fleming, and Miss Sallie Watson the principles of a new farm practia a check of $15 to the library as our ministration was made notable by one of the boxes provided at were visitors in Henderson Monday. tice. As county farm agent H. L. annual gift. The Auxiliary decid- the expansion and development of Boyce or Hunter Drug Mr. and Mrs. Ed Petar of Ridge- Seagrove told the story to Exten- ed to take the responsibility of institutions supported by the dio-Mres. If your favorite merchant is way were dinner guests of Mr. and sion Forester R. W. Graeber of the getting glasses for a little child at cese. State College Extension staff, this the school who cannot attend the marked trees, they immediately It was also decided to purchase church near Macon. Interment The farm agents also have boards the colored system hold class A Mr. and Mrs. Macon Moore and wanted to know why. Questions one dollars worth of Red Cross will be in the Norlina cemetery. of agriculture which work with the certificates; 27 class B; 12 class C; Seals from Mrs. William Rolgers Mr. Adcock died suddenly at his agents in an advisory capacity. 43 elementary A certificates, and 4 The host soon showed them how and send them to the boys tor home on Wednesday afternoon at There is need, however, for a have elementary B certificates. Powell returned to Littleton with had been crippled in some way or was also sent to one of the mein- the cause of death. He was 77 county effort and this will be at- Announce Marriage was diseased or overcrowded. This Lers who spent the holidays away years of age and had been in de-tempted in the new set-up which ited relatives here on Monday the men went to work with a will Mrs. N. M. Palmer read a letter Surviving are his widow and sev- ber of selected counties as a beand as the day wore to a close the esking the local chapter's support eral scns and daughters. owner soon had a supply of wood of a candidate for National Presi- Mr. Adcock followed the calling Maybelle Fitts, Mr. E. P. Fitts, Mrs. for his stove, fireplace and tobacco dent next term, but it was decided of a farmer his entire life, coming Peter Stallings, and Miss Bettie barn. All of the wood came from to wait and see if some one in to Warren county from Vance

refreshments were

MRS. TUCKER HOSTESS Duke Hospital spent Christmas High club and visitors' prizes were were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Williams, urged to be present. Day here. She was accompanied won by Mesdames Edmund White Mr. and Mrs. Edmund White, Dr. course was served, followed by cake. V. F. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mr. and Mrs. Evans Coleman and Extra guests were Mesdames W. R. Dameron, Mr and Mrs J. P. Wat- members of the Presbyterian Auxil- Mrs. E. L. Brantley, and Mr. and guests were present. Refreshments family of Wise were in town Sun_ Baskervill, C. R. Rodwell, Roy son, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lawson, iary last week. The religious exer- Mrs. R. B. House were visitors of were served in the dining-room, Davis, J. H. Duke and T. J. Holt. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rodwell, Mr. cises were led by Mrs. Sam Davis, Mrs. N. M. Palmer during the where a red and green color motif and Mrs. M. C. McGuire, Mrs. G. after which papers were read by Christmas holidays. H. Macon, and Mr. Walter Parker Mesdames E. A. Skillman, Stuart Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allen spent of honor, presented each child with On account of holiday there was of New York. High prizes went to Crinkley, Paul Bell, and W. B. several days recently in Asheville. a Christmas favor before departing

President Maker

Louis McHenry Howe, secretary and political adviser to Presidentelect Roosevelt, now dons the title of talked. President Maker," as it was his work which was all-powerful in bringing the nomination and election to Mr. Roosevelt. . . . Howe, a former newspaper man, will have a room in the White House offices in March.

Funeral Services For Bishop Cheshire Held On Thursday

Funeral services for the Rt. Rev. Raleigh, Dec. 29.—The ratio of Joseph Blunt Cheshire, widely 'gin-cut" and two_sided bales is beloved bishop of the Episcopal less than one to 400 in the thous- Diocese of North Carolina, were ands of bales the North Carolina conducted from the Church of the ciation has handled for its mem. Thursday morning at 11 o'clock of the standing committee of the

for the service. Kinsmen of Bishop The Extension Service of State ing the holidays and asks that "Gin-cut" bales, Mr. Haywood Cheshire served as pallbearers. College is now working on plans church.

and Mrs. Rebecca Coleman. Mrs. ment preliminary to an operation, by the people whether it be in caused his death.

ing at 10:30 o'clock at Gardner's county councils of farm women. ty-seven teachers and principals of clining health for several months. will be tried next year in a num-

Meeting of P. T. A.

Mrs. C. F. Moseley, president of Mrs. C. A. Tucker was hostess to the P. T. A., announces that there five tables of contract on Tuesday will be a meeting at the court house Reidsville and Miss Mildred Mcnight. Christmas decorations were at 11 o'clock Saturday morning for Vicor of New York were guests of Mrs. A. A. Williams entertained used, and Christmas favors were the purpose of electing a County Mrs. G. W. Poindexter on Christ-Miss Sue White Massenburg of the Thursday card club last week, presented each guest. Those present Council. As many as possible are mas Day.

MRS. TAYLOR HOSTESS

Opening Of Schools Is Delayed By Bad Roads

Business Resumes Normal Activity After Holidays WORSE THAN ON 20-21ST

Business resumed normal activity here Tuesday at the close of a been postponed from Tuesday, Christmas season characterized January 3, to Thursday, January more than usual by peace and 5, on account of the bad condition good-will. Business houses were of country roads, according to anclosed on Monday.

dicated that Christmas was being of the Board of Education, and J. celebrated in the good old-fashioned way. The uncertain weather schools. was probably partially responsible for the atmosphere of the old than we have known them for "family Christmas" when father years," Mr. Allen sald in making sat by the fire and smoked his the announcement, "being more pipe, mother bustled cheerfully nearly impassible than on Decemaround preparing for the Christ- ber 20 and 21 in most places. At mas dinner, the smaller children that time the schools were kept played around on the floor, and open that the fall examinations sons and daughters at home for the holidays quietly read and vivified old friendships, and quick sary, to postpone the opening of ened new. The feeling of this season the schools for the spring semesleaves a glow in many hearts as ter from January 3 to Thursday, life takes up its tasks again, the January 5, by which time, a week visiting depart, and gifts valued for from the date of this postponetheir thought rather than their material value fall into their places of tions will be better.

The Season of Love having cleared the old year of festering ill-will, other conditions which may cause the New Year will have an auspicious beginning.

Plans To Wield Rural

Extension Service for the general postponement of the and of the life will be attempted in North would almost certainly cause the Carolina during the coming year loss of teachers to some of our zation in North Carolina" will be where interment was made in the now in operation in Virginia and graveyard of Calvary Episcopal Missouri. There will be a central executive committee for the county burg spent the holidays here with cial contact and the bounteous "Star Spangled Banner" and Pre- acute illness was described as blood The county home and farm tended Warren schools during the dinner usually served is regarded amble. Twenty-five members an- poisoning, but a heart attack agents will work with and through fall term, Mr. Allen said, adding the communities attending all the that his was practically the same Reports were given by the var- Bishop Cheshire served as Bishop meetings and securing the neces- enrollment as of last year. The In Caswell county, one alert host ious chairmen of committees. It of the Episcopal Diocese of North sary aid and information where health of the school children has

> Dean I. O. Schaub, director of the lina. Extension Service, says the time There are 74 members of white has passed for the county agent to school faculties and 113 members devote his or her whole time in of colored school faculties in Warattempting to work with individ- ren, the school man pointed out. Victim Heart Attack attempting to work with individe Among the 74 principals and teachhome agents have well_organized ers in the white system, 55 hold

> > Miss Elizabeth Stackhouse has ren: returned to her home at Mullins, S. C., after spending some time here with Dr. and Mrs. G. H.

To Be Court House and sons were visitors in Reidsville during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Boyd of Mrs. Joe Taylor was hostess to and lars. Wharton Moore, Mr. and three to four o'clock. Thirty-five

Opening Date Is Postponed From January 3 to Thursday, January 5th

Opening of Warren schools has nouncement made yesterday after-The dearth of social activity in noon by A. C. Blalock, chairman Edward Allen, superintendent of > "Roads are in worse condition might be given and the first semester completed.

"Under existing conditions, it The warmth of the holiday spirit seems wise, if not absolutely necesment, it is hoped that road condi-

"Since there may be other perfods of bad roads and snow, or the suspension of school work and consequently the postponement of the closing of the present session, it is wise not to lose more time than actual necessity requires. It Forces of Carolina is highly desirable for the school term to end before children have Community organizations in to be taken cut of school because which will be welded all the social of the demands of the farms. Atforces of he rural community in tendance in May is the poorest in cooperation with the Agricultural the entire year, and unnecessary improvement of farming and rural session until a date well into May

Mr. Allen said that in most chairmen or secretaries of school committees assist in giving notice concerned.

FIRST SEMESTER WAS MOST

SUCCESSFUL, SAYS ALLEN The first semester which closed with the beginning of the Christ_ mas holidays was a most successful one, Superintendent Allen said yesterday. In spite of the snow and slush of the last few days of schools, pupils managed to complete their examinations and are prepared to swing into the second

Approximately 2300 white children and 4,700 colored children at_ been unusually good, he said, with In announcing this plan for a no epidemic except a slight surge more intense community effort, of chickenpox at Drewry and Nor-

Of Norlina Teacher

The following announcement will be of interest to friends in War-

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Sawyer announce the marriage of their daughter, Roma Elizabeth, to Mr. J. Paul Cheek on Saturday, the sixteenth of August, nineteen hun_ dred and thirty, Columbia, South

Mrs. Cheek is a member of the Norlina school faculty, teaching her

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS On December 26 the Misses

Miss Dorothy Walters of Wil-Elizabeth and Mary Weston celeliamsburg spent Christmas here. brated their fifth birthday at the Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Palmer, Mr. home of Mrs. C. C. Hunter from was carried out. Santa Claus, guest