

CITIZENS VOTE NO CAMP HERE

Reject Proposal to Establish Negro Forestry Camp
At Warrenton

MIGHT CAUSE TROUBLE

Warrenton turned thumbs down on the idea of placing a negro reforestation camp near the limits of the town when a mass meeting was held in the court room Wednesday morning to determine sentiment in regard to the matter.

The majority of the 35 or 40 men present at the meeting felt that the peaceful and friendly relations that exist between the two races of this county might be jeopardized by throwing around 200 unrestricted negroes into the town of Warrenton over the week ends.

While it was felt that the checks of $30 each given the 200 men in the camp each month would no doubt stimulate trade to some extent, the majority at the meeting held that the placement of such a camp near the city limits might breed bitterness that money would not erase.

It was pointed out that although the men are under military discipline at the camp, when they are turned loose over the week end they are not policed by government officers.

Lieut. Claridge and District Forester L. A. Carter were here for the meeting. They stated that they were in no way trying to force the camp on the people of Warren county, and if there was any pronounced opposition to the camp that it would not be located here. They left Warrenton for Entfield.

Fifteen Hoboes Sent To Roads By Norlina Mayor

Fifteen hoboes were pulled from a freight train at Norlina Tuesday morning by Seaboard Air Line special agents assisted by Chief of Police W. G. Carter of Norlina. They were all charged with trespassing on railroad property and were tried by Mayor A. L. Fleming, who gave them all a 30-day sentence on the Warren county roads.

A number of cars at Norlina have been robbed recently of merchandise and perishable material and it has been an expensive proposition for the railroad and Seaboard special agents are determined to put an end to these robberies as far as possible, which they claim are becoming more numerous.

New Mid-Western Trade Route to the Sea

A new trade route has been opened to 22 mid-western states. It is the Great Lakes—Gulf of Mexico waterway now open to barge commerce, — the fulfillment of an inland dream of many years. Above is pictured the first barge shipments crossing the official ship, USS Wilmette (background) at Michigan Link Bridge, Chicago, and inaugurating the first ocean to Lake Michigan shipments. It is said that twenty-two states in the Mississippi valley are to enjoy a revision of shipping rates from this new trade route.

Six Negroes Are Brought Into Court Here On Monday

Six negroes were brought into Recorder's court this week on five bills of indictment charging assault, larceny, possessing whiskey and being drunk. There were no white defendants before Judge Taylor this week.

Found guilty on an assault charge, Clarence Moore was sentenced to jail, assigned to work the public roads of the state, for a period of four months.

A verdict of guilty was pronounced in the case of John Hayes. Hayes was charged with carrying a concealed weapon, and Judge Taylor sentenced him to jail, assigned to the roads, for a period of four months.

Three months on the roads was the penalty placed upon Eddie Hicks when convicted on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Harry Tunstall and Arthur Williams were found guilty of assault. Judgment was suspended upon payment of court costs.

A jury agreed that Massenburg Kearney was guilty of possessing whiskey but evidence was not sufficient to convince that body that he was drunk. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of a $5 fine and court costs.

Negro Woman Of Littleton Jailed On Murder Charge

Ethel Davis, 22-year-old negro woman, was lodged in the Warren county jail Wednesday afternoon charged with the murder of the wife of Dustin Vinson, negro who lives in the Littleton vicinity.

The Vinson woman died in the Roanoke Rapids hospital Wednesday a few hours after she had been shot twice with a pistol by Ethel Davis.

According to reports reaching here the shooting occurred when the Vinson negro went to the home of the Davis woman and refused to leave after an argument had taken place between the two. It was said that when the Vinson woman refused to leave the Davis woman went into the house, secured a pistol and fired two bullets into the Vinson woman.

The negro was arrested by Officer Riggan and carried to Littleton where she was given a hearing before Magistrate T. C. Alston. She was bound over to Superior court without bond, and yesterday afternoon Sheriff Pinnell brought her to Warrenton and placed her in the county jail.

SNUFF GOING OUT; FAG COMING BACK

ROME.—Snuff is going out of fashion in Italy and cigarette smoking is taking its place. Thirteen years ago only 25 per cent of the national population smoked cigarettes, and nine per cent still preferred to take snuff. Last year 50 per cent of the tobacco trade was in cigarettes, and only 5 per cent in snuff.

The sale of cigars has fallen from 32 per cent to 18 per cent. The sale of all forms of tobacco is a state monopoly, as is that of salt and quinine.

13 Additional Men Leave Warrenton For Forestry Camp

Thirteen additional men left here last Friday for one of the reforestation camps which have been created by President Roosevelt for work in the national forests, national parks and other public lands.

The men who were picked last week compose the second group that has gone from this county to become a part of the Civilian Conservation Corps. Several weeks ago the county's quota of 51 men was accepted by the government for work on national projects. The first contingent from Warren are now in eastern Carolina. The second group, it is understood, will be placed in either Wilkes or Burke county.

Big Drop In The Number Of Families Receiving Relief

Four hundred seventy-one families in Warren county received aid from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in June, compared with 1543 in the peak month of March, according to information released yesterday from the Governor's office of relief in Raleigh.

During the same period the state as a whole showed a decrease from 164,000 aided in March to 92,272 in June.

Ronald B. Wilson, acting director of relief, attributed the decrease in aid needed to three causes: Improved business conditions, a logical seasonal decline, and the fact that many families are now dependent upon their sons who are enrolled in the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Despite the improved conditions generally, there are six counties whose relief load during June was higher than at any time since Federal Relief funds became available. They are Cherokee, Columbus, Dare, Franklin, Hertford and Swain. Two of these counties, Cherokee and Swain are mountainous and located in the extreme western section of the State; two others, Dare and Columbus, are coastal, and Franklin and Hertford are Easterly inland counties. Thus every section except the Piedmont is represented among the six counties whose rate of destitution has not decreased.

CLAIMS TITLE AS WORLD'S YOUNGEST

EUGENE, Oregon, July 15.—The world's youngest milkman—that's the title claimed for John Koozer, of Watterville. John learned to walk at the age of eight months. At 11 months he went in search of his mother, who was milking one of the family cows.

When she first noticed him he was seated on the other side of the cow, milking. His enthusiasm for milking grew daily until the family had to finally change milking hours to rid themselves of his "assistance."

CHILDREN MUST WALK TO SCHOOL

State Rules That Pupils Living
Within Two Miles Of School Must Walk

ROUTES TO BE CHANGED

No children residing less than two miles from a school will be transported to school during the approaching session, according to a communication from the state school commission read to the board of education in special session here last Thursday.

This step was taken by the state as a part of its plan to cut transportation costs approximately 25 per cent. The commission ruled that truck routes would have to be re-arranged and stated as its policy that "the State will not be expected to provide transportation to the school of choice but to the school most accessible."

Robert Shaw and Mrs. C. M. Halthcock were appointed members of the Macon district committee, succeeding F. M. Drake and C. M. Halthcock. Mr. Drake resigned and Mr. Halthcock was disqualified to serve on account of constitutional prohibition. Mr. Halthcock is a member of the county board of elections and under the law can not hold such office concurrently with that of school committeeman.

The board went on record as favoring the establishment of a department of vocational course of Business and Secretarial training in high schools employing five or more teachers, and that necessary equipment for this be included in the Capital Outlay Budget. The board recommended that this course be available to pupils whose marks in English come within the upper half as to grades and are in grades 10 and 11; and that as changes in the teaching force are made, substitutions be made to the end of installing such department, which it is estimated will not require more than half of a teacher's time at present.

40 Elementary Negro Schools To Open August 7

The 40 elementary colored schools of Warren county will begin their work of the 1933-34 session on Monday, August 7, instead of on September 7, as announced last week.

Reason for the early opening, it was learned at the office of the superintendent of schools, is to allow a recess for cotton picking. Date of this recess will be determined at a later date.

J. B. Miller was re-elected principal of the John Graham high school at a meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees held in the office of the superintendent of schools on Monday night, at which time high school and elementary teachers were also chosen. Mr. Miller and Superintendent Allen were present at the meeting.

High school teachers chosen are Miss Mariam Boyd, Miss Helen Thompson, Miss Catherine Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Morton, Miss Annie Laurie Herring.

Hawkins school at a meeting of the full board of trustees on July 10 when three new members of the board were inducted into office. These new members are Arthur P. Rodwell of Warren Plains, W. T. Davis of Arcola, and Romeo Powell of Inez.

It was pointed out in the office of the superintendent of schools yesterday that all appointments made at the Monday night meeting are subject to the school law of North Carolina and any regulations of the State School Commission made pursuant thereto. Mr. Allen said that it was possible that an additional teacher would be employed in the local high school but that this matter could not be determined until the school commission certified the number of teachers that would be allowed in the high school.

Hunting And Fishing Licenses Lower This Year

RALEIGH, July 18.—Combination hunting and fishing license will be available to North Carolinians next fall at a fee of $3 each, a saving of almost 30 per cent over the licenses purchased separately, Col. J. W. Harrelson, director of the Department of Conservation and Development said yesterday.

Purchased separately, the fees for the two Statewide licenses would be $4.20 under the new schedule adopted by the General Assembly of 1933, or $2.10 each for hunting and fishing, the conservation director explained. The $3 fee for the combination hunting and fishing license represents a saving of one-third for the hunter and fisherman over the same class of permit last year when the cost was $4.50.

Substantial reductions in all the classes of hunting licenses were decreed by the recent General Assembly. The new fees is as follows: resident county hunting license, 60c; resident State-wide, $2.10; and non-resident, $10.10. By comparison, the same fees last year were: resident county $1.25; resident State-wide, $3.25; and non-resident, $15.25.

Fishing license fees, with the exception of provision for a daily permit of 60 cents for non-residents allowed by the General Assembly, remain the same as for last year. These are: resident county (where adopted by the county), $1.10; resident State-wide $2.10; and non-resident (sea-son), $5.10. In counties where the local fishing license has been put in force, a daily permit of 50 cents is provided for residents of the county. State-wide fishing license are required of all residents of the State indulging in this sport outside their home county.

Farmers Not To Plow Under Cotton Until So Ordered

"There is nothing to tell the farmers in regard to the cotton situation except that they should not plow up or destroy in any other manner their crop until they hear from me," Bob Bright said yesterday afternoon when he was asked for the news.

Mr. Bright stated that he was expecting to receive material and instructions from the government within the next day or so but until then they could not proceed with the plan of reducing the surplus by turning the crop under ground.

A committee meeting was held in the court house yesterday afternoon but members left without receiving any definite instructions.

GIVEN HEARING ASSAULT CHARGE

Romey Moore Under $1,000
Bond For Attack On Register of Deeds Powell

PRIDGEN HEARS CASE

Romey Moore, white man who ran amuck on the night of July 4th and injured three people on the streets of Warrenton, was yesterday morning placed under bond of $1000 by Magistrate Macy Pridgen for the assault he committed upon Register of Deeds Joseph C. Powell. Moore was already being held in jail under $100 bond for attacking Ed Bolton and Peter Williams.

The delay in giving Moore a hearing for attacking Mr. Powell was due to the fact that the seriousness of the blows suffered by the register of deeds prevented him from leaving his home until a few days ago.

Mr. Powell testified at the hearing that he was on his way home a little after 11 o'clock on the night of July 4 when Moore grabbed him in the collar in front of the Warrenton Grocery Co. Mr. Powell said that he asked his assailant what he meant and Moore uttered an oath and replied that he was going to kill him. The register of deeds said that he was struck across the head with a stick and knocked unconscious.

Moore did not testify at the hearing. His attorney, John Kerr Jr., asked only one or two questions of the witnesses, George Robinson and Alex Rankoff.

Cotton Drops $4 A Bale In Market Crash; Above 10c

Cotton dropped 80 points yesterday, decreasing the value of the bale by $4. In spite of the downward trend that the market has taken during the past two days, the fleecy white staple is still above the ten cents mark.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Heavy selling buffeted the stock and grain markets today, bringing abrupt declines from recent peak quotations and painful bruises to those speculative novices who were getting their first good workout on the downside.

Stocks cracked generally from $2 to $25, alcohol issues being the chief sufferers. Wheat crashed about 13 cents a bushel, rye around 12 cents, barley 5 cents and corn about 4. Cotton tumbled $2 a bale. Several commodities finished moderately above their lows.

On the New York stock exchange the pummeling was accompanied by the largest trading since May 5, 1930. Sales totaled 7,463,480 shares, compared with 7,460,520 on July 13, which had been the biggest day of the 1933 bull market. Incidentally, the market was then rising. Final prices today were around the minimums.

Tighter Credit
A tightening of the collateral requirements of big New York city banks, which in turn caused many brokerage houses to demand increased margins on their customers' speculative accounts, coupled with an over-bought condition of the market, seemed largely responsible for the sudden rush to sell stocks.

Most bankers were frank to state that they felt the market had been rising too swiftly and with too little regard, in many instances, for actual values. The huge boom for alcohol issues, based on these companies' "prospects" in a prohibitionless country, was cited as an example of the speculative craze which has been sweeping the nation, and it was in those issues that brokers posted the largest expansion in margin requirements.
