"BELIEVE ME, IF ALL THOSE ENDEARING YOUNG CHARMS"

Believe me, if all those endearing young charms, which I gaze on so fondly today, were to change by tomorrow and fleet in my arms, like fairy-sifts fading away, and thou wouldst still be adored as this moment thou art. Let thy loveliness fade as it will, and around the dear ruin each wish of my heart would entwine itself verdantly still. It is not while beauty and youth are thine own, and thy cheeks unprofaned a tear, that the fervor and faith of a soul may be known. To which time will but make thee more dear! No, the heart that has truly loved never forgets. But as truly loves on to the close, as the sunflower turns her gold when he sets the same look which she turned when he rose!

—Thomas Moore.

Designed in Sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 44 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39 inch material with 1/4 yard contrasting.

Designed for Street Wear
Pattern 8202—The gracious and flowing lines of the frock pictured here suggest the wind-swept motive so important this season. It is a frock designed for the larger woman, slenderizing, dignified but not old, not too mature, in short, a most attractive style for a woman of any age who is not small or very slim. The wind-swept motives is very becoming to the larger woman. The printed silks lead in the street scene for summer, next in importance are the dark sheers. This dress would be the most effective in a printed silk, but it could be made equally well in voile, or a dark sheer.
