The lower floor of the Folk home was thrown en suite and decorated in a color scheme of green and white. In the smlax garlanded ceremony room, a large mirror, framed in white lilies and foliage, formed a background before which the wedding party was grouped.

The ushers, Mr. Howard Folk, of Charleston, and Mr. R. D. Suber, of Holly Hill, brother and brother-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles of the tall, many branched candelabra and ushered in the wedding musicians and the immediate members of the two families.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. R. B. Gross and Misses Edmee and Esties Smith rendered a musical program. The Misses Smith sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "God Gave You Mine." To the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Helen Hart, the members of the bridal party descended the stairway and passed to their places through an aisle defined by tall, white, tulle trimmed baskets of shasta daisies.

Entering first were the ushers, followed by the officiating minister, the Rev. James F. Hollmeyer, brother-in-law of the bride. Next came the bridegroom and his best (Continued on page 10)
