DARRAGH-DAVIS
The following account of the marriage of Miss Mary S. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of this county, is reproduced from a Kentucky paper which was received here too late for last week's issue of The Warren Record.

The marriage of Miss Mary S. Davis and Mr. W. E. Darragh Jr., was solemnized in a beautiful and impressive service at 6 o'clock Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Darragh Sr., 253 Delmar avenue. Rev. Adolphus Gilliam, pastor of Park Methodist church, officiated.

The house was decorated with palms, vines and white garden flowers and was light with cathedral candles.

Before the ceremony Mr. Gross sang "O, Promise Me" and "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Mary Ruth Price. At the conclusion of the service Mr. Gross sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Hardman. She was lovely in a white tailored tripe-sheer model with white picture hat and white accessories.

Mrs. Robert Hardman was her sister's matron-of-honor, and wore an afternoon dress of flowered chiffon. Mr. Russell Darragh was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Darragh is a native of North Carolina and a graduate of Greensboro College, where she specialized in dramatic art. She has made her home in Lexington for the past three years where her beauty and charm have won her many friends.

She is now connected with the Lexington Little Theatre which has been recently organized.

Mr. Darragh is a graduate of Kentucky Wesleyan College and is a well-known young business man of Lexington. After July 8 Mr. and Mrs. Darragh will be at home at 253 Delmar avenue.
