

THIS WEEK In Washington

Washington, January 1—With- trying to predict what the final outcome will be, this is a good time to take note of the major issues which will be discussed in the second session of the 74th Congress, convening on Friday, January 3, will occupy its time.

1. Immediate payment of the Veterans' Bonus. The only apparent question about this is whether or not the bill as passed will provide for full cash payment or for a special issue of bonds.

2. The Townsend old-age pension proposal. This will stimulate a lot of activity in both Houses. The labor lobby will oppose it. The best guess is that the Townsend plan will not be adopted but that the agitation will result in liberalization of the old-age benefits under the Social Security Act, which has to be amended in many respects.

3. Lots of talk and some pretty hot debates on the Frazier-Lemke Farm Mortgage greenback bill. Little chance, however, of its passage. 4. Government ownership of railroads. Again a lot of talk, backed by a well organized campaign of the railroad unions in favor of it.

5. Government ownership of Commerce Commission in ordering reduction of railroad passenger rates to two cents a mile, where they are now higher than that—which is all over the East. This will be a demonstration of the Government's present power over railroads, and may have a strong influence in bringing holders of railroad bonds into line for Government ownership.

6. Neutrality, Navy, Army. The neutrality question will come up early in the session. The present temper of Congress is to strengthen the neutrality laws. The strong belief prevails that a great war is rapidly approaching, and Congress will not be inclined to trust the State Department alone to keep us out of it. One outcome of the war talk is likely to be liberal appropriations for a bigger navy.

7. Proposals for increasing the army strength will be backed by reports that Mexico is planning an out-and-out Communist Government. This will give strength to the demand for military defenses along the Rio Grande.

8. There will be more debate on proposals to regulate wages and hours of labor. Outlook is for the passage of the Walsh Bill, requiring all concerns selling anything to the Government to conform to labor standards established by NFA.
