VAGABOND SONG
All the musing men have done Alters not the circling sun.

Did the days I spent with dole Shape one shattered idol whole?
If I weep until I die,
Who will care or heed my cry?

So through sleepy autumn weather Joy and I jog on together, Sleeping in warmth beneath the sun, Cooled by stars when day is done!

—Josephine Johnson

Miss Grace Wagner Becomes Bride Of
Mr. Bignall Jones

Historical Emmanuel Episcopal church, Warrenton, was the scene of a wedding of simplicity and beauty on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock when Miss Grace Almeda Wagner, daughter of the Rev.
B. N. de Foe and Mrs. Wagner, became the bride of Mr. Bignall Speed Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Howard F. Jones of Warrenton and Washington, D. C.

The church was decorated in ivy, fern, white chrysanthemums and candles. The wedding music was rendered by Miss Bessie Taylor of Warrenton. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding march were used as professional and recessional. Just before the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. W. K. Falkener of Warrenton sang, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and Mrs.
Louis Thorp of Rocky Mount sang
"O Perfect Love."

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Belford Virgilus Wagner, who gave her in marriage.
The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was exquisitely attired in an old-fashioned dress of ivory satin with a lace yoke embroidered in pearls, with covered buttons down the back. Her train was shirred to the waist. The sleeves were tight to the elbow, then full flare over the hands. Her veil was caught at the side and at intervals with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was an Italian pin of white coral with pidgeon blood ruby, over 100 years old. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of Johan roses and lilies of the volley. Master Bobby Scott, nephew of the bride, acted as ring-bearer and wore a miniature dress suit. He carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Miss Mary Lillian Wagner, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Her frock was of moire blue taffetta, fashioned similar to that of the bride. Her cap was of plaited net with flare over face. Her flowers were an old-fashioned nosegay of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother, Mr. Howard F.
Jones Jr., as best man. Ushers were Mr. Duke Jones, brother of the groom, Mr. Alpheus Jones, Mr.
Robert Scott and Mr. John Mitchell.

Mrs. Wagner, mother of the bride, wore a dress of black velvet with a shoulder corsage of white roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs.
H. F. Jones, mother of the bridegroom, wore a woods violet velvet dress with a corsage of pink roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the wedding, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and out-of-town guests. Mrs. C. H. Peete received at the front door. The line was introduced by Mrs. William Duke Jones. It was composed of the Rev.
B. N. de Foe and Mrs. Wagner, Mr.
Belford Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Bignall Jones, Mr. Howard Jones Jr., Miss Mary Wagner, Mr. John Mitchell and Mr. Alpheus Jones. Mrs.

Jones Mitchell received in the front hall. Mrs. Alpheus Jones invited the guests to the dining room where a white and green color motif was carried out in detail. The table was exquisite in a lac cloth, white lighted tapers in silver holders and a centerpiece of white carnations and ferns. The room was lighted only with candles. The lovely bride's cake stood on the end of the table and was cut later in the evening.
Misses Nancy Peete, Sarah Blunt Massenburg, Lorraine Jones and Emma Kelly Moseley assisted in serving. Miss Louise Hawks received in the library. The gift room was presided over by Miss Mamie Williams and Mrs. L. B. Beddoe.
Music was played softly during the evening by Mrs. John C. Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tucker and Mrs.
C. F. Moseley bid the guests adieu at the side door.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Spottswood Burwell and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brodie of Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Brodie and Miss Paige Brodie of Dunn; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Battle and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thorp and Mesdames Kate Arrington and Hattie Gregory of Rocky Mount.

HOLD RECEPTION

Following the Jones-Wagner Wedding rehearsal on Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Duke Jones entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a reception at their home on South Main St.
Guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Jones who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Miss Grace Wagner and Mr. Bignall Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Jones and Rev. B. N. de Foe and Mrs. Wagner. Mrs. T. Lewis Brodie of Dunn presided in the dining room where a green and white color motif was used. The table was decorated in a lace cloth, white flowers and candles. Punch was poured by Mrs. Spottswood Burwell of Henderson, and Misses Lorena Jones, Nancy Peete, Kelly Moseley and Paige Brodie of Dunn assisted in serving.

HONOR BETROTHS

A delightful pre-nuptial affair was given on Friday evening when Mrs. W. R. Baskerville entertained at bridge in honor of Miss Grace Wagner and Mr. Bignall Jones. The rooms were festive in lovely fall flowers. Miss Wagner was presented a gift and the high score prize for the ladies was won by Mrs. Rufus Jones. Mr. Walker Burwell won the high score prize for the gentlemen. An ice course was served at the conclusion of the game to the following guests: Misses Grace Wagner, Mary Wagner, Olivia Burwell, Elba McGowan, Mamie Williams, Mary Randolph, Rose Kimball, Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Jones, Messrs. Bignall Jones, Howard Jones Jr., James Mayfield, Alfred Williams, Pett Boyd, John Mitchell, M. P. Burwell, and Walker Burwell.

HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Kerr was hostess to members of her card club last week.
A sweet course with coffee and cheese sandwiches was served at the beginning of the game. Mrs. V.
F. Ward won the high score prize and also the floating prize. Extra guests were Miss Sallie Watson and Mesdames J. B. Boyce, W. R.
Boyce, E. E. Gillam, W. R. Baskervill and C. A. Tucker. The home was festive in fall flowers.
