

LANDSLIDE VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT

President Carries All States But Two In Great Democratic Victory

LONDON GETS 8 VOTES

Raleigh, Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt won the greatest electoral victory in the history of the United States in Tuesday's election that no candidate ever has enjoyed since the nation grew up.

The victory left just eight electoral votes in the column of Alfred Landon. The Republican candidate further reduced the Republican membership in Congress and took one more Governor's chair.

Just Two States

Only two states, Maine and Vermont, with a total of eight electoral votes stood on the Landon side.

Some reactions were visible immediately. The stock market was thrown into a buying whirl, with issues advancing to a new high, and only public utility stocks the object of heavy selling.

The Democrats appeared to be winning enough seats to give them 75 of the 96 in the Senate.

Fumbles Costly In Game With Weldon

BY COACH WARD

Warrenton's John Graham High Schoolers journeyed to Weldon last Saturday and played the local high school. The final score of 7 to 0 in favor of Weldon does not represent the superiority of that team, but that Weldon made the most of their breaks. John Graham had been in the open on no less than five occasions only to have the ball drop to the hands of Weldon. Twice with no one between them and the goal line the Warrenton backs fumbled, spoiling their chances for victory and a possible tie.

Town Board Has Short Meeting On Monday Night

Postponement of an expected report by Chairman C. A. Tucker of the Town Planning Board and delay in the recommendation of the Hotel Committee for a new manager for Hotel Warren left only routine matters before the Board of Town Commissioners in regular session at the Mayor's Office on Monday night and adjournment came at about 9 o'clock after an hour's session.

Mayor Polk explained to the board that Mr. Tucker failed to make his appearance before the commissioners because, as Mr. Tucker explained to him earlier in the day, he had been unable to obtain a meeting of the board due to absence from town of several members, but that his board would meet within the next few days and the report would be made at a called meeting of the board of town commissioners.

John G. Mitchell, chairman of the Hotel Committee, told members of the board that while his committee had contacted several prospective candidates for management of Hotel Warren that there were a few others who had made their bids for the place, but who had not stated their conditions. These would be promptly notified to do so, he said, and a meeting of the committee would be held within the next few days to make a definite recommendation to the board.

An appeal for financial aid to relieve suffering among the poor of Warren is this week sounded by Miss Lucy Leach, Welfare Officer, who states that money is needed by the Warren County Welfare Department to take care of the following cases:

2. Money needed to purchase insulin for a patient. This medicine is expensive but the patient suffers terribly without it.

3. Scraps needed by a white woman to make bed quilts.

4. Old clothes, wraps and shoes are needed by children in order to keep them in school.

5. Money needed for tonsillar operations for indigent children. Old mattresses and bed clothing are also needed.

Miss Leach said that she had a good home for a practical nurse and housekeeper. She asks that interested citizens contact her.

Eaton of Burlington, who spoke in the Parish House a year ago will remember his most forceful address.

"A special feature of the evening will be several news reels of technical pictures, in motion, of scenes taken during the Diocesan Convention here last May. In addition, many other scenes will be shown by Mr. Hobart Steele of Burlington.

"Not only will the members of Warrenton Parish be interested in seeing these really beautiful scenes, but we are certain that all of the people of the town will enjoy looking at the local views. Home Coming Day At Calvary Church

Littleton, Nov. 3.—The Home Coming last Sunday at Calvary Methodist Church was a very profitable and joyful occasion, according to the Rev. W. T. Phipps, who gives the following account of the meeting:

"At the morning hour Rev. William Towe of Rocky Mount, who was pastor of Calvary some 20 years ago when the church was a part of the Aurelian Springs Charge was present and preached to the delight and edification of the congregation. The pastor then administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to a large number of communicants.

"Dinner on the grounds was then in order and, needless to say, was enjoyed by all present.

"The afternoon service was enriched by the choir of the Christian church of Roanoke Rapids which presented three beautiful special numbers. The sermon of the afternoon was preached by Dr. T. M. Johnson of Littleton, a former president of the N. C. Methodist Protestant Conference. It was a very helpful and inspiring message. Calvary was nearly out on its finances Sunday and doubtless will be by the time this is printed."

Negroes Win Prizes For Corn Exhibit

First prizes were awarded John Williams of Oliver Grove section and William Alston of Arcoia, negroes, for their exhibits of corn and tobacco at the Community Center last Friday when colored farmers from all sections of Warren county, under the guidance of the negro county agent and vocational teachers, gathered there to display various farm products, canned vegetables, fruits, jellies and jams.

The fair held here, according to C. S. Wynn, negro county agent, was a collection of the best exhibits from ten other local community fairs held in the county during the past month. "These community fairs seem to have gone further in stimulating the community activities than anything ever attempted before," he said. Wynn also stated that the display of art work and handicraft were highly commended.

The prizes offered in the community fairs were ribbons which, it was said, were cherished considerably by the winners. The prizes for the county exhibits were offered by the Warren County Mutual Exchange, Boyd's Warehouse, Mr. J. P. Scoggin, all of Warrenton, and the Ball Brothers Co. of Muncie, Ind.
