

THE TORCH

A department conducted for The Warren County Memorial Library By MABEL DAVIS The Librarian

We Are Grateful
We have delayed our report for the annual campaign for funds for the library this fall because we are constantly adding to the fund. The amount received up to this time is $417.34. The campaign may be regarded as the most successful since the depression, I think.

We acknowledge with thanks the following contributions received this week: Dividend check (Bank of Warren) from the Kiwanis Club through H. R. Skillman, treasurer, 47c; $1.00 from Mrs. W. W. St. Sing, Wise; $5.00 from Miss Tempe Dameron, Centerville, Md.

The trustees, and all others interested in the success of the library, appreciate the cooperation of the men and women who took part in the campaign—all who contributed in any way. The number of contributors exceeds that of any previous campaign, which means, I think, that more and more people are coming to realize the place of a public library in the cultural and recreational life of the people.

Our book shows the following result of the canvass in the schools and rural communities:

Macon	$15.70
Norlina school	7.80
Wise	9.75
Ridgeway	5.00
Afton	11.00
Five Forks	8.60
Eberon	2.50
Warren Plains	5.00
Littleton	1.00
Churchill	2.25
Arcola	1.15
Inez	2.00
Axtel	7.50
John Graham school	11.75

Total $91.00

For the convenience of the committees collecting for the library the town was divided into twelve sections. The sponsors for those twelve sections reported as follows:

- Sec. 1. Miss Olivia Burwell... $65.00
- Sec. 2. Mrs. J. E. Adams and Miss Dorothy Walters... 24.00
- Sec. 3. Mrs. Pope Powell... 2.35
- Sec. 4. Mrs. Hugh Holt... 8.40
- Sec. 5. Mrs. C. P. Allen... 7.50
- Sec. 6. Mrs. J. P. Scoggin... 36.50
- Sec. 7. Mrs. S. O. Nunn... 21.00
- Sec. 8. Miss Ann Rodgers... 4.75
- Sec. 9. Mrs. A. C. Blalock and Miss S. Burroughs... 32.00
- Sec. 10. Mrs. W. T. Polk and Mrs. Alpheus Jones... 45.50
- Sec. 11. Mrs. Rooker and Mrs. Sam Davis... 29.75
- Sec. 12. Mrs. C. E. Rodwell and Mrs. W. M. Gardner... 49.50

Volume Given in Memory of Mr. John Newell

We are indebted to W. T. Polk for a copy of "Libraries of the South," given as a tribute to Mr. John Newell, who appreciated the work being done by the public libraries, Mr. Polk said.

We are indebted, also, to William Prescott for a copy of "The Voice of Bugle Ann."

Drewry P. T. A. Meets
The Drewry P. T. A. met on Friday evening in the auditorium of the school. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. M. White. Mrs. H. B. White conducted the devotional exercises. The roll call and minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. C. Watkins. The meeting was then turned over to the program committee. Miss Newsome's first and second grade children gave the following program: A recitation by Bettie Jean Reavis; "Thanksgiving in the Barnyard," by pupils of the first and second grades; "Double Trouble," by Wallace and Walter White. Rev. Mr. Hale of the First Baptist Church of Henderson spoke on "Thoughts for the Thanksgiving season." Miss Etta Fleming's room, the fifth and sixth grade room, received the attendance prize. After a short business meeting the meeting was adjourned.

Flying Cake Changes Planes For Last Lap

WITH only one more lap remaining in its 5,170-mile journey by air from Honolulu, Hawaii, to Atlantic City, N. J., the "World's Most-Traveled Cake" leaves its transcontinental airliner at Newark Airport for transfer to the special plane that sped it on the last stage of its travels.

The picture shows airman W. E. Slack depositing the carton containing the cake in the hands of S. T. Weinrich at Newark.

Baked in Honolulu, the flying masterpiece was rushed almost before its icing was dry to a Hawaii Clipper about to take off across the Pacific for America. Split-second work at Oakland, Calif., transferred it to a regular transcontinental airliner bound for Newark, where the special plane picked it up for delivery in Atlantic City in time for the opening of the recent Baking Industry National Conference and Exposition. It set out on a Wednesday and arrived bright and early the following Saturday morning.

The cake was pronounced fresh and ready to eat on its arrival by the thousands of bakers and members of allied industries attending the convention. Its freshness was due, a spokesman said, to modern bakery methods and the Procter & Gamble shortening used.

"The arrival of this cake from Honolulu is symbolic of the progress of the modern baker," one of the executives present at the convention declared. "Just as the bakers availed themselves of the fastest and most modern means of transportation to bring this cake to Atlantic City, so the industry is constantly applying the latest scientific developments to improve its product and service. Through constant research, bakers are now able to offer the public products that are on a par with the best homemade products and that have even better keeping qualities."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

by Charles E. Dunn

Paul's Parting Counsels.
Lesson for December 6th. 1 Timothy 6:6-16.

Golden Text: 2 Timothy 4:7.

Timothy was associated with Paul for a longer period than any of the apostle's other companions. That he was held in the highest regard by his older colleague is evidenced by the opening greeting in Paul's first letter to Timothy where the great-hearted missionary calls his younger ally "my own son in the faith."

The son of a mixed marriage, with a Jewish mother named Eunice, and a Greek father, Timothy appears in the Bible gallery as a child of rival cultures. In Acts 16 we learn not only about Timothy's parents, but also of the esteem in which he was held by his brethren, of Paul's desire to have him as a traveling companion, and of the rite of circumcision performed by the apostle upon Timothy in deference to Jewish feeling. The young man was ordained, and accompanied Paul, Silas and Luke in their wanderings.

There are many references to Timothy both in the Acts and Paul's letters. He was with Paul in Rome during the apostle's imprisonment there, indeed three of Paul's letters, written from his bondage, Philipians, Colossians, and Philemon, were issued in their joint names. Paul's dependence upon his youthful disciple is illustrated in the touching chapter of our Golden Text where the aged, broken apostle appeals to Timothy to "come shortly" unto him.

Note Timothy's splendid inheritance. He sprang from good stock. Such gold as we find in him is not made of dirt. Consider also his fortunate nurture. "From a child," writes Paul, "thou has known the Holy Scriptures." (2 Tim. 3:15). And recollect, to Timothy's great credit, that he obeyed Paul's invitation to be his fellow-traveler. He went forth from his home, becoming as a son to his elder friend. Finally, it is pleasant to recognize the noble bearing of Paul in his attitude toward Timothy.

Demonstrations for the control of leaf spot and leaf scorch diseases have been placed with strawberry growers of the Rose Hill, Warsaw and Calypso communities as a result of heavy damage by these diseases this year.

DIAL 226-1 For Drug Or Fountain Service

We were sorry to hear from Howard Jones Jr. that he lost a bird dog this week from Black Tongue. The Senior Howard was in the store the other day and said that he had been hunting a few days before and "we got five birds."

We are beginning to display our Christmas wares and a good number of our friends and customers have already begun to look over the large array of suitable gifts. Come in early for your Christmas shopping.

We shall miss Boyd Masenburg from our store. He's down in Fla. for the winter.

Tom Burton is already boosting Duke's football team for next year and is ready to back his talk with the greenbacks.

From what we have gathered from conversations in our store not many of the boys had much luck with their Thanksgiving hunt. Too many folks in the woods, we suppose.
