GROWERS APPLY FOR SEED LOANS

Little Change In Application Forms From Those Used During Past Year

MAINTAIN TWO OFFICES

Farmers began this week making applications for seed loans at the sperament offices maintained in uis county at Warrenton and Litteton for the benefit of those growers who need financial assistance to produce their crops and are unable to secure credit from o her sources. The loans are to be made this yar on practically the same terms that funds were granted to disnessed frmers from this source last par, Harry Fishel, field supervisor, stated yesterday. The maximum loan is $400 and credit is available only to those who are unable to borrow muney from other sources, he said.

Mr. Fishel stated that he had not noticed any particular difference between the number of farmers who are making application this year and last year. He said that last year around 800 loans were made and considering the low price of ection the borrowers had met their obligations remarkably well.

The two seed loan offices of this county are located at the court house in Warrenton and in the onlding occupied by J. P. Pippen Mrs. Grace Harris at Littleton. works here in the office with Mr Fshel, and at Littleton Miss Mary Powell Pippen is in charge of the stite. The Littleton office, which serves both Halifax and Warrer county farmers, is under the supertision of J. E. Wilson of Rocky Mount as well as Mr. Fishel, the former being responsible for the handling of the loans for Halifax growers and the latter looking out for the loans being made to Warren county producers.

In order to avoid confusion, Mr Fishel has worked out the following schedule for receiving those (Continued on Page 8)

Work Progresses On Formation Of Scout Troop Here

Tentative plans for the organization of a Warrenton troop of Boy Scouts were made in a meeting held in the John Graham School here on Wednesday night when 27 young boys from Warrenton and vicinity met with C. M. Calhoon, field scout executive, and members of the local scout committee.

The local troop is sponsored by the Lions club and will be under the supervision of a Lions committee composed of E. E. Gillam, chairman, William K. Lanier and A. W. Bracey. Abundance Of Tobacco and cotton farmers of Warren county will go to the polls in each township of the county on March 12 and say by the means of ballots whether or not they want the new farm crop control bill that recently passed Congress and was signed a few days ago by President Roosevelt.

The announcement of the referendum on the bill was made last Friday after a meeting in Raleigh of some 5,000 farmers from North and South Carolina and Virginia who heard Senator Pope of Idaho and J. B. Hutson, assistant administrator of the AAA, discuss the new bill.

Bob Bright, county agent, said that a mass meeting would be held in the court house here on March 2 to discuss the 1938 farm bill and that the following days educational meetings will be held in various communities of the county. He said that he thought the farmers of Warren, which is a large tobacco growing county, were in favor of the bill and that they would vote for its adoption in the referendum on March 12.

It is understood that a referendum only on cotton and tobacco will be held in the county.

The referenda regulations provide for a voting place in each community where cotton, flue-cured or dark tobacco are grown. The polls will open not later than 9 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Each producer who grew cotton, flue-cured or dark tobacco in 1937 will be entitled to cast one vote in the referendum for the commodity.

The marketing quotas established under the new act for tobacco will be independent from the acreage allotments established under the agricultural conservation program and the penalties applicable for sales in excess of the poundage marketing quotas for farms will bear no relation to acreage allotments for farms. However, the average allotments will be such that, under ordinary conditions, the production on the allotments will be in line with marketing quotas.

The act provides that quotas are to be effective, if not disapproved In Auto Wreck by more than one-third of producers voting in the referendum, if the supply of any kind of tobacco exceeds the reserve supply level. The present supply of flue-cured tobacco exceeds the reserve supply level by approximately 50,000,000 pounds; the supply of fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco exceeds the reserve supply level by approximately 20,000,000 pounds.

PROGRAM IS AN ATTACK

ON EROSION OF SOIL The new farm bill, recently enacted into law, will unloose a doublebarrelled attack on soil losses and crop surpluses, according to E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer at State College.

The Agricultural Conservation program, which has already been mapped out and placed before farmers, will be continued along with payments to growers who cary out soil building practices.

Included in the new Act are provisions designed to control surpluses of tobacco, cctton, wheat, rice, and corn. Through the control of bumper crops, it is expected that farm income will be improved. Floyd said.

In addition, the new Act intends to protect the consumer as well as the farmer. By storing away surplus wheat and then releasing it when necessary, a fairly constant level will be maintained. Also crop insurance will be provided wheat growers.

Under the Agricultural Conservation program, North Carolina's fluecured tobacco allotment for 1938 will be 570,000 to 580,000 acres, while the cotton allotment is 902,-525 acres.

One of the provisions of the new farm legislation calls for the establishment of marketing quotas on the five basic crops if supplies reach top heavy levels. After the Secretary of Agriculture announces that quotas will be clamped on a particular crop, growers of that commodity will be given a chance to express their approval or disapproval in a referendum.
