

LESSONS TAUGHT COOKING SCHOOL

Camera Close-Ups Will Teach Lessons in Measuring, Mixing And Blending

DISHES IN FULL COLORS

Going to school in a theater!
It sounds a bit strange, doesn't it? But that is what women of the community will be doing when The Warren Record's Motion Picture Cooking School comes to town on October 31-November 1.

There will be real lessons, too, lessons in measuring, mixing, and blending the ingredients for many recipes, in the preparation of such things as a lattice-top fruit pie; in making delicious frozen desserts and salads; in laundering fine fabrics; and in planning healthful meals for growing children.

The camera has assembled all the expert information of trained home economists—not as a routine lecture, not as a formal "highbrow" demonstration, but as a real response of home-making, full of suspense and charm, and informal chat from one good cook to another.

There will be remarkable closeups of each process in a series of models, conveniently-equipped kitchens—real, workable kitchens (not the synthetic, false-front variety), there trained home-makers will plan and complete the preparation of several meals so the entire audience can see the process step by step.

The finished dishes, which will be shown in full color, will look as though they could be picked right out of the picture and eaten on the spot.

The class won't be all work, for there is the constant play of sparkling humor, the appeal of tender romance, the suspense of a coherent, intelligently directed story, such dramatizes everyday happenings—the human sort of things that really do happen.

Binding the attractive story together is the romance of homemaking, a subject that holds the interest of every woman young and old. Even The Warren Record knows that all women—brides, business types, and experienced housekeepers—respond to the fascination of looking in on another woman year 1938-39 was next in order, the following being chosen: Mr. Parker, president; Mr. Jackson, vice president; Mr. Carter, secretary and treasurer.

The speaker for the evening, Mr.
Thornton, a member of the State School Commission, was absent due to unavoidable circumstances, so a round table discussion was held, the subject centering on the road situation in the western part of Warren county, especially in Smith Creek and Nutbush townships, as the condition of the roads demands immediate attention.

The meeting was adjourned to meet at Macon on November 8.

Nine Cases Tried By Judge Rodwell In County Court

Nine cases were disposed of by Judge T. O. Rodwell and Solicitor Joseph P. Pippen in Recorder's court on Monday. Although there was an unusually large crowd in the temple of justice throughout most of the day, there was no particular case of outstanding interest docketed for trial.

J. M. Stainback submitted to a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of whiskey and he was given the usual punishment of a $50.00 fine, ordered to pay the court costs and commanded to turn in his driving license for twelve months.

Charges of driving while under the influence of whiskey and assault were booked against Philip Stanback, but a nol proas was taken on the charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. He was found guilty on the assault charge and was ordered to pay a $10.00 fine and the court costs.

Leo Frank McDowell pled guilty to a charge of assault and was fined $10.00 and ordered to pay the court costs.

The case against Eugene Robinson, in which he is charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, was sent to Superior court. His bond was set at $500.

Dock Bullock, another negro, was also sentenced to the roads for four months. He was charged with possessing stolen goods knowing same to have been stolen.

Walter Garner, negro, who was out of prison on parole, was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and he was ordered back to the roads to serve 90 days. The clerk of court was ordered to notify state authorities of this judgment.

Robert Arrington, negro, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was found not guilty on this count but he was convicted of forcible entry and was fined $10.00 and taxed with court costs.

Charlie Lassister and Graham Downie, negroes, were found not guilty on a charge of larceny.

Several Minor Auto Crashes In Past Several Days

Several minor automobile crashes involving Warrenton and Warren county persons have taken place during the past several days, but no serious personal injuries have resulted from them.

On Sunday afternoon Dr. Rufus Jones was in a wreck three miles from Durham when an automobile driven by a negro came into the main highway from a side road and the two vehicles crashed. The negro, it was stated, assumed full responsibility for the accident and paid a small sum for repairing the fender and bumper of Dr. Jones' car.
Neither automobile was badly damaged.

Traveling towards Warrenton on Tuesday afternoon, the automobile driven by Erwin Stevenson crashed into the back of Andrew Smiley's car, which was being operated by Robert Lynch. Both men were bruised, scratched and shaken, but neither suffered any serious injuries.

A truck belong to the Warren Cotton & Fertilizer Co. and being driven by Cliff Yancey, negro, was in collision with an automobile which was being operated by Alston Woodard, negro, a short distance from Warrenton on the road leading towards Macon and Liberia Monday night. A broken bumper and a damaged fender and radiator resulted from the accident. Yancey is to be tried in Recorder's court on Monday on a charge of driving
key.

DR. HUNTER GIVES TALK

Dr. Frank P. Hunter of Warrenton addressed a meeting of the Afton-Elberon P. T. A. on Monday evening on the subject "The Health-thy Child Every Day in the Year."

Presbyterian Church will hold a urday morning at 9 o'clock, announcement was made yesterday.

mund White, T. J. Holt and C. A.
Tucker attended a meeting of the

Quail Season To Open December 1; Dec. 11 Is Error

Pointing out that there was an error in the account of the change in the hunting laws which was published in a state paper last week and reproduced in The Warren Record under a Waynesville date-line, Warren County Game and Forest Warden E. Hunter Pinnell this week gives the correct date for the opening of the bird season and also calls attention to the fact that fires must not be started under certain circumstances without first securing a permit.

Responding to pressure brought to bear by a number of sportsmen who objected strenuously to moving the quail season back to December 15, as was originally planned several months ago, representatives of the Department of Conservation and Development met on October 1 and lifted the ban on shooting and taking certain types of games as follows:

Quail from December 1 to February 15; turkey from December 1 to February 15; Grouse from December 1 to January 15; rabbit from November 24 to February 15; opossum and raccoon with gun and dog from October 1 to February 15.
In the opening dates reproduced last week it was erroneously stated that the quail season opened December 11.

As for building fires, the Forest Warden stated that it is a violation of the law for any one to start a fire more than 500 feet from his or her residence from October 15 to December 1 and from April 1 to June 15 without first securing a permit. Permits, he said, may be secured from himself, or from W. F.
Davis of Grove Hill or from C. F.
Burrows of Churchill.

Mrs. Mary L. Loyd Dies At Washington

Mrs. Mary Lena Loyd, wife of the late J. R. Loyd of Norlina, died Saturday night in a Washington, D. C., hospital where she was carried after suffering a stroke of paralysis while in the National Capital visiting her son who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. A cerebral hemorrhage was given as the cause of death. She was 64 years of age and had been sick for three days.

Funeral services were held at the residence in Norlina on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev.
Mr. Dodd officiating. Interment was in Fairview cemetery, Warrenton.

La.; three sons, J. T. Loyd of Richmond, R. B. Loyd of Norlina, and J. R. Loyd, Jr., of Washington, ter of Warrenton, and one sister,

FLIMFLAM MEN LODGED IN JAIL

Two Negroes To Be Tried On Charge of $10 Robbery
In Change Racket

SUSPECTED MORE CRIMES

Two negroes are being held in jail here to face trial on charges which will be booked against them as a result of efforts they are alleged to have made to work a flimflam game on Willie Williams, negro of Franklin county, and rob him of $10.00.

The negroes gave their names as Ezekiel Smith and Henry Smith, alias Henry Robertson, and local officers are inclined to believe that they are wanted elsewhere for practicing a similar racket, or possibly for some crime of a more serious nature. Their finger prints have been taken and sent to the Bureau of Identification in Washington, D. C., to learn their true identity and if they are wanted men.

The robbery was committed, it was stated, by one of the men approaching Williams back of the Centre warehouse on Monday afternoon and asking him if he had change for a $10.00 bill. As Williams pulled his money from his pocket the other negro, it was said, stepped up, grabbed the greenbacks, and fled. They were both arrested later in the day.

According to Deputy Roy Shearin, who has the men in custody at the Warren county jail, Ezekiel Smith stated that he killed a negro in Dade county, Fla., in 1932, but he was cleared of the charge. Henry Smith, or Henry Robertson, the officer said, told him that he had pulled time in Alabama for manufacturing whiskey and also for hobnobbing and fighting.

The deputy sheriff said at first one of the men told him that his home was in Henderson but that when he made a check on the street and address which the negro gave him he learned that there was no such street as he gave in Henderson. Learning that he had been caught in a lie, the officer said that the negro then changed his story.

The men will be given a hearing within the next few days and it is expected they will be bound over to Recorder's court for trial.

Graham H. E. Club Adopts Constitution

A meeting of the Home Economics Club of the John Graham High School was recently held in the auditorium, at which time a constitution was adopted and other plans were made for perfecting the organization.

The meeting was called to order by the president and as the secretary called the roll each member present answered with the name of a flower. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved.

A constitution which had been worked out by Isabel Limer was read by her and adopted by the club, after which the club colors of red and white were selected. The

A memorial window was dedicated in the Methodist church of Norlina on Sunday morning in memory of the late Mrs. G. K. Marshall, who for many years was a faithful worker in the Church and Sunday School. The sermon was delivered by Rev. J. T. Draper, retired Methodist Minister of Warrenton, and the window was unveiled by William Coggin, a nephew of Mrs.
Marshall. This window was presented to the Church by the Ladies' Bible Class of which Mrs. Marshall was teacher until she moved to Petersburg, Va., where she died several months ago. A large congrega-

Visitors Win Honors In Golf Tournament Here

Visiting ladies swung their way to victory and took the honors of the day in the Fall Invitational Golf Tournament held at the Warrenton course on Wednesday afternoon with around 50 players representing clubs in six towns participating in the match.

The most coveted honor—the low gross prize—was won by Miss Lillian Newnam of Wilson who shot a 92. Mrs. J. P. Harris of Oxford shot a 76 in the handicap match to win the low net prize, which ranked second in honor.

In addition to the two main prizes, players in each club making the lowest gross score were also awarded tokens in recognition of the skill they displayed in the con-made herself a birdie and won the Blind Bogle prize.

Prior to the game the ladies were entertained at a luncheon in the Methodist Sunday School building, and at the conclusion of the match the players assembled in the club house for a social hour at which time prizes were presented by Julius Banzet, president of the Warrenton Golf Club.

Registration Books For General Election Open To Voters

Potential voters of Warren county who have not qualified themselves to participate in the general election which is to be held on November 8 by placing their names on the registration books may do so on this Saturday and Saturday of next week by visiting the registrars in the various precincts and having their names written on the books.

The registration books have been in the hands of the registrars for the past two Saturdays and will remain open the two remaining Saturdays of this month for those who have become 21 years of age since the last election, established their citizenship in this county or for some other reason failed to place their names on the registration books to do so in order that they might take part in the general election and other elections which are to follow. A person who is already registered does not have to register again in order to vote.

Reports reaching here from the various registrars over the county, who were named several weeks ago by the Board of Elections and given the books are to the effect that so far very few names have been added to the books.

In Warrenton township George Frazier and Jim Moore are the registrars and the former may be found at his desk at Watkins Hardware Co. and the latter in the court room on Saturdays. Registrars in other townships are located in the same places they were found when they kept the books open approximately a year ago to allow citizens to qualify to participate in the special bond issue election called for improving the county jail.

RULES NO ERROR IN TERRELL CASE

Supreme Court Votes 3 to 3
And 25-30 Year Sentence
Remains In Force

MAY ASK A REHEARING

In a 3 to 3 decision, the Supreme court on Wednesday upheld a 25 to 30 year prison sentence imposed on Ted Terrell in Warren county Superior court by Judge Clawson Williams after he had been convicted on a charge of second degree murder in connection with the killing of Andrew Knight.

Terrell, on a previous appeal, had won a new trial, but the Supreme Court left the second lower court conviction undisturbed by its even division, Associate Justice Michael Schenck taking no part in the decision.

Terrell's appeal was based on the introduction in evidence of photographs purporting to picture the scene of the crime. Defense attorneys contended Judge Williams had not ascertained that they were taken by impartial and competent photographers.

Julius Banzet, who with John Kerr, Jr., and Will Yarborough are representing the defendant, stated yesterday that a notice for a rehearing by the state's highest tribunal would be filed.

The murder charge was booked against Terrell after he had fatally shot his brother-in-law, Andrew Knight, at Kinton Whit's service station, near Norlina, on the night of March 7, 1937. Both men lived in Vance county at the time of the shooting.

Since Terrell's conviction, which came from a jury selected from a special venire of 75 men, he has been held in Warren county jail pending the outcome of his appeal for a new trial.

Growers To Name Committeemen At Series Of Meetings

Landlords and tenants throughout Warren county will begin holding meetings next Thursday for the purpose of selecting committeemen justment program for 1939, County Agent Bob Bright announced yesterday afternoon.

Any producer who is eligible to receive payment in 1938 is entitled to attend the meetings which will be held in the various townships of Warren and vote in the election of the committeemen, Mr. Bright stated.

The county agent also stated that "producers should give this matter serious consideration and elect to these offices the very best men in the various townships. These positions must be filled and it is now up to the growers to say what men they want to represent them in 1939."

A notice of the election and a schedule of the meetings will be mailed out later, Mr. Bright said.

With The Sick

No noticeable change has taken place in the condition of Howard F.
Jones Sr. since he became critically ill nearly three weeks ago with bronchitis which weakened his condition and probably led to a case of influenza and other complications.

Both Mrs. W. A. Burwell and Mr.
Frank Newell, Sr., who became critically ill about the same time as Mr. Jones, are showing some improvement.

Mrs. C. W. Cole of Wise, who was injured in an automobile wreck near Norlina the early part of last week, is still very ill in Park View Hospital, Rocky Mount, but reports reaching here yesterday afternoon were to the effect that she is gradually improving. The muscles in her leg were badly torn and her head was injured in the accident.

Jimmy Harris, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harris of Warrenton, who had both legs broken on Monday afternoon of last week when he ran into the street in the pathway of a truck, is getting along as well as could be expected, although his limbs have not yet been set, probably on account of their swollen condition. He is also in Park View Hospital.

Mrs. Dawson Alston, who was ill last week with a cold which had the earmarks of flu, is reported to have practically recovered from her sickness.
