BRIDGE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crawley entertained their bridge club on Friday evening. Autumn flowers and leaves were attractively arranged throughout the home. A double deck of cards was awarded Mrs. Chas Lambeth for ladies high score and for the men's Mr. P. A. Johnston received handkerchiefs. The tallies and refreshments were suggestive of the Hallowe'en season.

The following members enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Crawley's hospitality: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lambeth, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Abernathy, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Crawley. Guests were Misses Ertie Boyd Warren and Virginia Gee of Jackson and Mr. Percy Harris.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

An event which was unanimously described by those present as "the best party of the year" occurred Monday night, October 31, when the members of the Enterprise B. Y. P. U. were entertained at a Hallowe'en party at the home of Miss Elsie Newsom, president of the organization.

The house was appropriately decorated with various witches, pumpkins and red lights. The guests were in costume and witches, ghosts and spooks of every kind ruled supreme. The entertainment included various Hallowe'en games, fortunes and stunts. Apples, punch and cakes were served in the dining room. The guests numbered about forty members and their friends and included Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Hendricks.

LITTLETON WINS

Amidst a downpour of rain and on a very muddy field, Littleton High met and defeated Weldon

High here Friday afternoon 6 to 0. As the whistle blew ending the first half, Littleton had the ball on Weldon's 2 yard line, first down and goal to go.

Parties Are Given For Bride-Elect

The palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wollett was a scene of extreme loveliness Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Wollett and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Smith, entertained at bridge, honoring Miss Katharine Moore Leach, bride-elect. Nine tables were arranged for contract and, at the conclusion of the progressions, Miss Leach was presented exquisite lingerie. Mrs. H. A. House made top score and was awarded bath powder. Mrs. C. E. Foster held second high score and received a pottery bowl. Mrs. A. W. Parker, for the consolation, received ash trays. A delectable salad course and coffee were served. The unique favors were two candied wedding rings tied with white tulle, in the folds of which tinkled a miniature wedding bell. The green and white motif was carried out in the refreshments and favors. Later the guests were invited into the dining room, where the table, with its lace cloth and white tapers burning in silver candelabra, was centered with a five tiered "cake," "iced" with white paper which proved a veritable treasure trove, yielding lovely lingerie for the bride to be. Exquisite arrangements of flowers prevailed throughout the home.

Mrs. Wollett's and Miss Smith's guests, including those who came in for refreshments, were: Mesdames D. A. Rose, A. J. May, S. T. Patterson, C. A. Jones, L. E. Williams, R. H. Ward, P. A. Johnston, C. E. Foster, C. R. Jenkins, H. A. House, Jack Nelson, Alice Partin, Cleve Stallings, John P. Leach, W. W. Johnston, L. H. Johnston, Jos. P. Phippen, J. N. Johnston, J. S. Vaughan of Woodland, M. Nelson, A. W. Parker, E. L. Crawley, M. P. Cassada, W. R. Harvey, J. N. Mosley, J. B. Boyce, M. W. Ransom, J. R. Taylor, A. M. Johnston, W. F. Williams, J. M. Stokes, A. M. Newsom, G. A. Hendricks, Misses Katharine Leach, Kara Reid Cole, Mary Faucette Ricks, Frances Newsom, Nancy Welborn, Mary Bynum Dark, Estelle Isles, Edna Hunt, Annie Alexander, Lucy Leach and Rebecca Leach.

Tuesday afternoon Mesdames Horace Palmer, J. H. Newsom and H. P. Robinson entertained at bridge honoring Miss Katharine Moore Leach, bride-elect. Six tables were arranged for contract and at the conclusion of the progressions, Miss Louise White held top score and was awarded a box of note paper. The honoree was presented exquisite embroidered pillow cases. Flowers were charmingly arranged in the living rooms and dining room. A salad course with coffee was served.

Other affairs for Miss Leach include a tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. J. Watkins in Henderson, honoring Miss Leach and Mrs. B. H. Hicks, a recent bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. P. Phippen and Miss Lucy Leach are entertaining the bridal party and out of town guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phippen immediately after the rehearsal Friday evening.
