GA Meets At Home Mrs. H. E. Bobbitt

The Intermediate Girl's Auxiliary of the Norlina Baptist Church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bobbitt on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting opened with the president, Lou Stultz, reading scripture from John, after which the group sang the G. A. hymn and repeated the watchword. Prayer was led by Kaye Floyd.

Faye Adams presented the program with the following: taking part, Pauline Parham, Kay Floyd, Alice Burnett, Peggy Pope, Patsy Baagett, and Gertrude Floyd.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were enjoyed by the nine present.

Giving Subject At WMS Meeting

"What Hast Thou Given?" was the topic of the program given at the General WMS meet at the Norlina Baptist Church on Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The program was presented by Mesdames D. R. Moore, program chairman, R. H. Fuller and L. W. Bowers, members of the Lola Sue Circle.

A table at the front of the room bearing a lighted church represented God's Storehouse—a Bible, through which God speaks to men; Money, to represent tithes and love gifts which carry on the mission of spreading the gospel to all men. Maps and posters were also shown to point out the mission work being done in Cuba.

Mrs. J. W. Arnold presided over the routine business session and gave the devotional message, using God's Storehouse as her subject for meditation.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Adcock, reported $112.00 given to foreign missions in December.

Plans are being made for a Mission Study Class and the Season of Prayer for Home Missions in March.

Girl Scouts Want To Aid In Project

LITTLETON — D. A. Rose announced that group of Girl Scouts want to contribute toward planting shrubbery around the Community Building, when the Lion's Club had their regular meeting last week. The Lion's accepted this proposal and S. N. Brown, president, appointed Rose, Marvin Newson and Ed Harvey to work with the scouts on this project.

Rose also pointed out that the community building had been used 30 times in connection with community service from September through December, almost an average of twice a week, mainly used for teenage recreation. He also pointed out that in providing facilities for community activities the building has been self-supporting. Rose stated that during the four months, September through December, rental collections amounted to $140, five teen age dances, $144.87, less expenses of $27.08, netting $117.79, totaling between the two, the amount of $257.79.

In this four month period, the expense of the electricity and heat ran an average of $23.40 per month, this left a net balance of $164.19 which has been applied to the interest of remaining cost of building.

Rose, in completing his report, stated that in July a payment of $500 was made on the building, another payment of $500 was made in December and payment of $1,000 was made on January 4, now leaving only $3,000 to complete a

In Memoriam

In memory of Mrs. Ruth Champion Seaman of Ridgeway, who was born May 4, 1884, and departed this life, January 17, 1959.

One year has passed since I hear Mother left us. In this world of sin and woe, But she is dwelling with Jesus, Where earthly care are over.

She was most courageous right up to the end, Her suffering she bore without strain, I'll be alright, she'd always say Then she'd smile to hide the pain.

Oh, loving Mother, how we miss you. Never more we'll see thy face Until this fleeting life is over, Then we'll meet you, redeemed by grace.

Today recalls sad memories, Of our Dear Mother, who is laid to rest, And those who still remember Are the ones who loved her best.

In our hearts your memory lingers Sweetly, tenderly, fond and true, There is not a day dear Mother That we do not think of you.

She is basking in the sunlight With the heavenly host so bright, Oh, won't that be a glorious sight To see her standing at his right?

Dearest Mother thou has left us, And our loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee When the cares of life have fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee Where no farewell tears are shed.

I cannot afford to wish her back here, The Lord do'eth all things so well, I'll just pray and live to the same God she had, Till He calls me there also to dwell.

Weep not for the Dear one that's gone, To the city so lovely and fair, In the arms of the Angels she was borne To sing with the Heavly Choir.

No crepe on the door knob No funeral train in the sky, No graves on the hillside of glory, For there we shall never die, No parting shall ever be known, there.

A devoted daughter, MRS. CHRIS F. HOLTZMAN
