

Warren County Suffers Population Loss Of 3,787

Gilliland Case To Be Tried At Special Term

After Judge Henry A. McKinnon, Jr. of Lumberton, presiding judge, had granted a motion to continue the James D. Gilliland case on Monday, the civil term of Warren County Superior Court adjourned early Tuesday morning.

Only one case was heard by the jury, summoned for Tuesday and which served for about 30 minutes. A divorce was granted to Herman Burnette from Barbara Wall Burnette.

Two Rising Seniors Are Chosen To Attend Girls' State In June

Miss Betsy Rose Turner of the John Graham High School and Miss Linda Dore of the Norlina High School have been selected by the American Legion Auxiliary, Limer Post No. 25, for the coveted honor of attending Girls' State at WCUNC, Greensboro, in June.

LINDA DORE

BETSY ROSE TURNER

Miss Turner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Turner of Henderson, R. 2, has an outstanding record at John Graham. Mrs. Reams said in her freshman year she was a member of the Student Council, class reporter, and a Future Homemaker.

seniors, will take part in the six-day program. They were selected on the basis of character, leadership, ability, and scholarship. Mrs. Reams said it is an attempt to teach and inculcate in our young citizens a love of God and country and to give them the proper understanding of American government and our American way of life.

Warrenton Grows From 1166 To 1238; Norlina Increased From 869 To 972

Table with 3 columns: Year, Population, Change. Rows for Warrenton, Norlina, Littleton, Macon, and Warren County.

Warrenton has become the most populous town in Warren County, replacing Littleton in this category, according to preliminary census figures released this week by Samuel E. Rouse, census district supervisor from his Wilson office.

Warrenton, 14,752 and 23,539; Greene, 16,788 and 18,024; and Northampton, 26,617 and 28,432. All the district's larger cities and towns showed gains.

Macon Reavis To Join Town's Police Force

WOODROW NEAL

Macon Reavis of Afton, for several years operator of a grocery store here, will on Monday begin his duties as a police officer with the Warrenton Police Department.

Woodrow Neal To Graduate From Seminary

WAKE FOREST—Woodrow W. Neal of Big Island, Va., has completed the requirements for graduation from the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He will be awarded the bachelor of divinity degree at the regular seminary commencement exercises on May 13.

The town commissioners at their regular meeting here on Monday night praised the fine service rendered the town by Mrs. Reid. They said that she had been a good and a conscientious officer and that it was regrettable that conditions made the termination of her services necessary.

Red And White Store To Be Operated Here By J. D. Roberts, A. D. Johnson

A Red and White Supermarket is expected to begin operations in the Allen Building on Main Street around the middle of June.

have long been active in town affairs. Johnson is a member of the board of town commissioners and Roberts is assistant chief of the Warrenton Rural Fire Department.

Wise School To Be Closed And Students Transported To Norlina

The Wise elementary school will be closed at the end of the present school term and next year its pupils will be transported to Norlina.

been decreasing and a number of years ago the high school was consolidated at Norlina, some two or more miles away.

schools in the southern part of the county, at sites to be determined. Due to the lateness of the hour, around 10:30, when this subject was broached, the board agreed to have a special meeting on Tuesday night of next week for further exploration of the idea.

Henderson Choir To Appear At Methodist Church

The Chapel Choir of the First Methodist Church of Henderson will present a program of sacred music at Wesley Memorial Church at Warrenton on Sunday afternoon, May 15, at 5 o'clock.

Church under the direction of Mrs. H. M. Hardy of Warrenton. It is composed of girls 9 to 12 years of age.

renton program will feature works of Bach, Gounod, Handel and others.

After this program, the juniors and 7th graders of Wesley Memorial Church and their parents will enter in the visitation in the fellowship hall, according to Mrs. Jimmie Roberts, chairman of the music committee of the church.

Two Cars Smash As Driver Attempts To Pass On Hill

Two men were hurt in what was almost a head-on collision about one mile north of Norlina on Route 1 around 3:30 on Sunday afternoon when the driver of one of the cars attempted to pass on a hill.

Recreation Meet To Be Held Here Wednesday P. M. A Youth Recreation meeting will be held at Hotel Warren on next Wednesday night, May 18, when H. M. Hardy, finance chairman, will discuss final plans for financing a recreational program here this summer.

Open House

Open House will be held at Camp Graham on Sunday afternoon, May 15, from 4 to 6 o'clock. All interested persons are invited to attend and view the camp.

In Hospital Mrs. R. L. Capps is a patient in Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill.

Reading Clinic

Miss Emma Lewis Whitaker, Warren County School Library Supervisor, said yesterday that she would hold a Reading Clinic at her home on East Halifax Street from June 16 to July 15 for the benefit of slow readers.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell was in Henderson on Wednesday.