MRS. FREDERICK LEROY BARTHOLOMEW, JR.

Miss Ballou Becomes Bride Mr. Bartholmew

Miss Deanna Ballou of Morehead City became the bride of Frederick Leroy Bartholmew, Jr., of Warrenton in a candlelight double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, May 22, at four o'clock at Franklin Memorial Methodist Church, Morehead City.

Arrangements and twin baskets of white gladiolas and greenery were used to decorate the church. Three seven-branched candelabra held lighted cathedral tapers.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Billy Wade, organist, and Mrs. Johnny Edwards, soloist. Mrs. Edwards sang "Tell Me, O Promise Me," and "Wedding Prayer." The Rev. Samuel Street Moore, pastor, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white imported lace and tulle over satin. The gown was fashioned with a moulded bodice of lace featuring long sleeves and a sabbina neckline, sequins and seed pearls.

The voluminous skirt of crystal pleated tulle ruffles featured a hip length lace pelum and extended into a chapel train.

Her two-tiered elbow length veil of imported illusion fell over a swedish crown of pearls. She carried a white Bible covered with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Warren Mann of Morehead City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a tea-length gown of maize silk organza over taffeta. The gown was designed with a draped bodice, scoop neckline and cap sleeves and featured a bouffant skirt.

She wore a matching headpiece of flower petals with pearl tips, from which fell a circular nose veil. She carried a bouquet of frenched carnations showered with embroidered streamers of emerald green.

Miss Emma Gray Bartholmew of Warrenton, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Liske of Charlotte, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They wore tea-length gowns of Nile green silk organza over taffeta identical in style to that of the honor attendant. They also wore headpieces of flower petals with pearl tips, from which fell circular nose veils.

They carried bouquets of frenched carnations showered with embroidered streamers of maize.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Johnette Styron, Miss Marlene Moore, Miss Judy Lewis, Miss Dessie Sewell, Miss Joan Guthrie and Mrs. Jimmy Pittman, all of Morehead City.

Pete Stallings, East Carolina College, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Al Greene, East Carolina College, and David Ballou, brother of the bride. Junior ushers were E. C. Ballou, Jr., brother of the bride, and Donnie Mann, nephew of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ballou wore a pink lace sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown lace sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home. Guests were greeted by Mrs. D. B. Willis and introduced to the receiving line, composed of the bridal couple, their parents, and the bride's attendants.

Mrs. Robert Ballou presided at the bride's book and Miss Judy Lewis presided in the gift room. Mrs. Grayton Willis poured punch and Mrs. Roma Styron served cake.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrol Ballou, graduated from Morehead City High School and Southern College of Beauty Culture, Charlotte. She is employed at Helen's Beauty Shop in Morehead City.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leroy Bartholmew, Sr., of Warrenton. He attended Louisville College for two years and is a student at East Carolina College, Greenville. He has been employed here during the summer months.

For a wedding trip to the mountains of South Carolina, the bride wore a sheath of aqua silk organza over taffeta with matching organza jacket. She wore matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Upon their return, the couple will be at home at 1713 Shepard Street, Morehead City.

Open House Held At Inez Parsonage

"Open House" was held at the Methodist Parsonage of Shady Grove Church, Inez, on Sunday afternoon from four to six o'clock with the Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Amspacher and Mrs. Frederick Williams greeting the guests, who were later conducted through the new home by Mrs. E. R. Davis.

In the dining room, punch was poured by Miss Sylvia Capps of Arcola. Serving decorated cakes were Mrs. David Koontz of Burlington, Mrs. Benjamin Harris and Mrs. G. W. Davis, Mrs. Richard Coleman and Mrs. Harry Williams, Jr., of Inez. The table was covered with a cut-work linen cloth and bore an arrangement of mixed summer flowers, flanked by white burning tapers. The mantle was banked in magnolia leaves and blossoms and the parsonage throughout was festive in lovely flower arrangements.

Mrs. Claude Coleman and Miss Catherine Brown registered guests in the study. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fowler. Around 150 attended from Middlesex, Arcola, Inez, Warrenton, Norlina, Macon, Louisville and other places.
