Mrs. Kate Daniel Wed In Methodist Ceremony

In a ceremony of simplicity and beauty conducted Saturday afternoon at four o'clock Mrs. Kate Daniel of Warrenton became the bride of Ray Puryear of Boydton, Va.

The marriage took place at Providence Methodist Church in Warren County. Mrs. Daniel is the daughter of Mrs. Hugh Davis of Macon.

Decorating the church were arrangements of blue mums, white gladioli and fern. A program of nuptial music was rendered by H. M. Hardy of Warrenton, soloist, and Mrs. Leonard Daniel, pianist.

For her wedding the bride wore a blue suit with matching blue mink collar, complementary accessories and a white orchid corsage.

After the exchange of vows a reception honoring the couple was held in the church basement. Hostesses for the occasion were sisters of the bride: Mrs. G. N. Tucker of Henderson, Mrs. Guy Overby of Macon, Mrs. Robert Carroll, Jr., of Warren Plains, Mrs. Leon Dillard of Raleigh and Mrs. John Felts of Afton.

Receiving guests were the bride and groom, Mrs. Hugh Davis and Mrs. Lettie Daniel. A color motif of blue and white was expressed in the room decorations. Those attending were served refreshments.

Mrs. Puryear prior to her marriage was employed as secretary with the Virginia-Carolina Lumber Company in Warrenton. The groom, a retired naval officer, is affiliated with the Boydton Water Department in Boydton.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Boydton.
