Juanita King Becomes Bride Of John Coley

Miss Juanita King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry King of Route 3, Warrenton, became the bride of Mr. John William Coley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall Coley of Raleigh, on Friday evening, February 10, at North Street Baptist Church in Raleigh.

The double ring ceremony, attended by the families of the couple, was performed by the Rev. John L. Coley, grandfather of the groom. Preceding the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. McCoy Beaver, organist, aunt of the groom, and Mr. Bobby Bridges, pianist.

The bridal couple entered the church together. The bride wore a dress of navy shantung with a fitted jacket and matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Ushers were Messrs. Travis Whitley and Jim Marshburn of Raleigh.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple and their parents received guests in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Coley, who attended John Graham High School and Louisburg College, is employed as secretary at the North Carolina State Board of Health in Raleigh. Mr. Coley, a graduate of Needham Broughton High School in Raleigh, is employed in the Film Library of the North Carolina State Board of Health.

Miss Coghill, Mr. Jones Wed at Brown's Church

Brown's Baptist Church in Warren County was the setting for the wedding of Miss Margaret Lela Jones and Mr. Archie Chesley Coghill, Jr., on Friday evening, February 3, at eight o'clock. The double ring ceremony of simple dignity and beauty was performed by the Rev. Billy Fallaw, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Earl Jones of Henderson, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Chesley Coghill of Route 2, Henderson.

The vows were spoken before a background of white burning cathedral candles in seven-branched candelabra, forming an arch amid a setting of woodwordia fern and tall baskets of all white flowers. The family pews were marked with white flowers and satin ribbon bows.

Mrs. Barbara Thomerson presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Frances Stallings, soloist, sang "O Promise Me," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "O Perfect Love." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballarina length regal gown styled along princess lines of white duchess satin fashioned with a deep V neckline with short sleeves and featuring a full flared skirt. Her two-tiered finger tip veil of illusion fell from a pleated head band of white duchess satin and she carried a satin covered prayer book topped with a purple throated orchid and tied with satin streamers.

Miss Anne Lassiter of Henderson attended as maid of honor. She was attired in a street length gown of blue tulle over matching satin. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a nosegay bouquet.

On Thursday evening, February 2, following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Margaret Lela Jones and Archie Chesley Coghill, Jr., the couple were entertained at a cake-cutting in the reception hall of Brown's Baptist Church.

Mrs. Earl Cobb and Miss Marion Coghill, both sisters of the groom, greeted the guests.

A lace cloth over white covered the bride's table which was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake, made by Mrs. Milton Jones and Mrs. Ben Marks, sisters-in-law of the bride. On the other end of the table was the punch bowl. Tall burning white tapers complimented the setting.

The bride and groom cut the first traditional piece of wedding cake, after which Mrs. Frances Stallings completed the serving. Mrs. John M. Barnes, Jr., sister of the groom, poured punch. Mrs. Dorothy Martin assisted in serving the guests.

Approximately 20 guests were present for the occasion.

Randy Warlick Has Valentine Dance

Miss Randy Warlick entertained 60 guests from Warrenton and Macon at a Valentine Dance on Saturday evening at the Club House, which was festive in Valentine motif and red candles. The table was centered with a Valentine tree.

Party sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and Pepsi-Colas were served. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Warlick were chaperones for the group.

Jeffrey Hockaday entertained 18 friends at a party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of his eighth birthday. Valentine punch was served with cookies and candies and guests received yo-yos as favors.

Mrs. A. A. Williams is in Warren General Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Wilkins Lewis of Jackson was an overnight guest of Miss Mamie Williams on Monday.
