

Shearin Family Picnics At Kerr Lake

Jesse W. Shearin of Hollister and Mrs. Lena Boone of Henderson, brother and sister, were honored at a family reunion and birthday party at Satterwhite Point, on Kerr Lake, on Sunday June 18, Father's Day.

Mr. Shearin, who will be 82 in July, and Mrs. Boone, who will be 79 in July, celebrated their birthdays at this time in order that all of the children might be able to attend. Mrs. Dorothy Shearin Allen of Henderson, will leave June 21 for Maine to teach a girl's camp during the summer.

Mr. Shearin gave thanks and all eagerly gathered around the long table, laden with a variety of appetizing foods.

In the Shearin family since the last reunion there has been added two new children, a great grandson and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Benton of Aikens, S. C., and one grandson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Shearin of Scotland Neck. Mrs. Benton is the former Miss Elizabeth Shearin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shearin of Warrenton. Mr. Shearin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwin Shearin of Scotland Neck.

Wilbur (Doc) Shearin, who has been unable to attend for several years, was present for the occasion this year and all 14 children were present.

The children and families present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shearin and children, Ronald, Carolyn, Larry, Ellen and Edward of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Moretz and daughter, Loritha, of Alexandria, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Earlie W. Shearin and daughter, Mrs. Billy Clark, of Warren Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shearin of Norlina, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stansbury and son, Joe Ed. of Littleton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur (Doc) Shearin and son, Karl, of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Moseley and son, Wayne, of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shearin and children of Scotland Neck, Mr. and Mrs. Alford and daughter, Terry Lynn, of Rocky Mount, Deanna Shearin of Raleigh, Edwina and Jimmy of Scotland Neck, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bright of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Shearin and children, Wilson, Lynne, Ruth Marie of Norlina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Shearin and son, Stuart, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. John Woodard and son, Johnnie of Lakeland, Fla., Mrs. Dorothy S. Allen and son, Glenn, of Henderson and Grover Shearin of Hollister.

Others attending were Mrs. J. V. Shearin of Hollister, Pamela Mather of Alexandria, Va., and three visitors, T. P. Williams of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Gladys Rogers of Arlington, Va., wife of Colonel Richard Rogers, recently deceased.

Among those unable to attend were David Shearin of East Carolina College, Charles Shearin of UNC, Chapel Hill, Robert Hunter Shearin of Greensboro, Jesse Shearin of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, Mrs. Ricky Benton and son and Mr. Benton of Aikens, S. C., and Mr. Ben Allen of Henderson.

Among the Boone relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boone and children, Faye and Thomas Robert of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Christine Boone of Henderson.

Following the delicious meal, Mr. Shearin opened his many nice and useful Father's Day gifts.

Patronize the advertisers.

Tobacco Barn FLUES

Bring In Your Old Flues For Repairs Now — We Can Furnish Repairs For All Size Flues — Any Pattern

If You Will Need A New Set Place Your Order Now For Delivery Anytime You Wish — We Will Have Them Ready The Day You Want Them.

Park in the convenient parking lot behind our store.

LANIER Hardware Co.
Everything in Hardware
Phone 206-1 - We Deliver

COLORED BLIND enjoy annual picnic on Hawk's Campus

Colored Blind Given Annual Picnic By Warrenton Lions

The annual picnic for the colored blind was held on Wednesday of last week at the John R. Hawkins High School campus at 5 p. m. The event was sponsored by the Warrenton Lions Club.

A picnic supper was served by members of the Lions Club. Several games were played and group singing was enjoyed after the picnic.

Mrs. Agnes Pernel, Blind Case worker, and her seeing-eye dog, Jolly, and her assistant, Alice Privette, were present.

Rites Held For R. A. Edwards

HENDERSON — Funeral services for Robert A. Edwards, 89, were conducted Monday afternoon at three o'clock at First Congregational Christian Church, of which he was a member. Rev. Joe A. French, pastor, was in charge of the rites and burial was in Elmwood cemetery.

Mr. Edwards, a retired railroad employee, died Saturday afternoon at 5:10 o'clock in Maria Parham Hospital following a serious illness of five days. For sometime he had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. R. P. W. Seaman, on Sunrise Avenue.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Seaman are two other daughters, Mrs. Henry Stevenson of Macon and Mrs. Bessie Ellis of Newport News, Va.; two sons, George W. Edwards of Warrenton and C. A. Edwards of Henderson; twenty-one grandchildren, seven great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Maggie Faulkner of Warrenton and a brother, Wesley Edwards of Macon.

TEACHER

(Continued from page 1) while in Mt. Gilead was active in the church choir and youth work.

One of her chief interests is sports, with a special interest in basketball and tennis. Another major interest is archaeology, and this has become somewhat of a hobby for her. She has done archaeological field work for a portion of the past three summers at Town Creek Indian Mound near Mt. Gilead. She is a member of the North Carolina Archaeological Society and is currently the Newsletter editor of the Society. In addition to summer archaeological work, Miss Allen has been recreational director at Stanback Memorial Park in Mt. Gilead for the past four summers.

COURT

(Continued from page 1) laws for two years and pay the court costs.

Johnnie Blackwell, also in court on a reckless driving charge, had judgment in his case suspended for two years provided he violate no motor laws during that period and pay the court costs.

The State took a nol-pros in the case of State vs. Wally Bullock, non-support.

John Morton Burton was taxed with costs in a speeding case.

Henry L. Candler, Jr., charged with speeding, was fined $15.00 and taxed with court costs.

E. T. Duncan was found not guilty on a bad check charge.

Blind persons and their guests present were: Carene Jones, Juanita Green, Flossie Jeffries, Berkeley Scott, Claspie Kearney, Carrie Kearney, Anne Mae Austin, James Williams, Clifton Williams, Carrie Shearin, Mattie Hawkins, Anne Mae Scott, Washington Richardson, Bertha Richardson, Queen Boyd, Mevia Davis, Laura Richardson, Jean Richardson, James Hargrove, and Willie Lyons.

Others present included J. F. Byers, principal of the John R. Hawkins High School; Sam A. Warlick, Jr., chairman of the Lions Blind Committee; and Lions Harry Cohen, Hy Diamond, A. C. Fair, Al Mustian, A. A. Wood, F. P. Whitley, Duke Jones, W. L. Turner and W. K. Lanier.

Henderson Girl Winner Dairy Princess Contest

HENDERSON — Miss Nancy Crocker, nineteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crocker of Route 4, Henderson, was crowned Dairy Princess of Area VI in judging held at the Oxford Woman's Club in Oxford on Friday afternoon.

Nancy competed with five other contestants who were Olivia Ann Davis of Wake county, first runnerup; Nancy Blackley of Granville county, second runnerup; and Judy Carolyn Bradley of Durham County, Connie Taylor of Franklin county, and Nancy Wilson of Warren county.

The contestants were judged on friendliness and ability to meet people, beauty, poise, personality, and photographic qualities, healthy appearance and natural attractiveness, pleasing voice, ability to think before an audience and effectiveness of presentation. Each of the contestants was asked two questions, "How would you persuade a teenage non-milk drinker to drink milk?" and, "Who is the greatest living American?"

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Frances Smith, assistant editor, The Progressive Farmer, Raleigh; Homer A. Sink, state manager, American Dairy Association, Greensboro; Bill Leinback, editor, D & P Monthly Magazine, Greensboro, Mrs. Yvonne Amico, Greensboro-High point Dairy Council Director, Greensboro; and Miss Eugenia White, home economist, Carolina Power & Light Company, Henderson.

Karen Worth Pearce, 1960 Area Dairy Princess of Wake county crowned the new princess. Nancy, a petite brunette with blue eyes, is a rising sophomore at Woman's College University of North Carolina with a major in home economics. Her hobbies are swimming, piano, writing and homemaking. She has been outstanding in 4-H and school activities.

Nancy will compete with the other eleven area winners in the North Carolina Dairy Princess contest to be held in Asheville on June 28-30.

Barbara Pittard Honored At Party

Miss Harriet Daniel honored Miss Barbara Pittard, bride-elect of July 2, at a Coca-Cola party on Wednesday afternoon. The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations and china in her pattern by the hostess. The guests were then invited into the dining room where party sandwiches, cheese straws, bridal cakes, and salted nuts were served. The candlelight table bore an arrangement of white roses, feverfew, and fern.

Some twelve guests were present.

Miss Emily Hilliard of Gastonia faculty is spending some time at her home here.

Mr. John K. Fletcher of Clinton, S. C., is spending some time here with his mother, Mrs. H. L. Falkener.

POULAN CHAIN SAWS

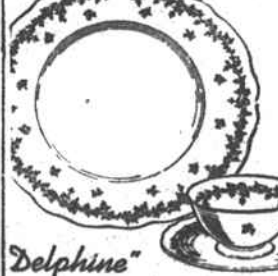

EASY STARTING PERFECT BALANCE MORE POWER

SALES & SERVICE

WILLIAMS MOTOR SALES
WARRENTON, N. C.

FRANCONIA CHINA

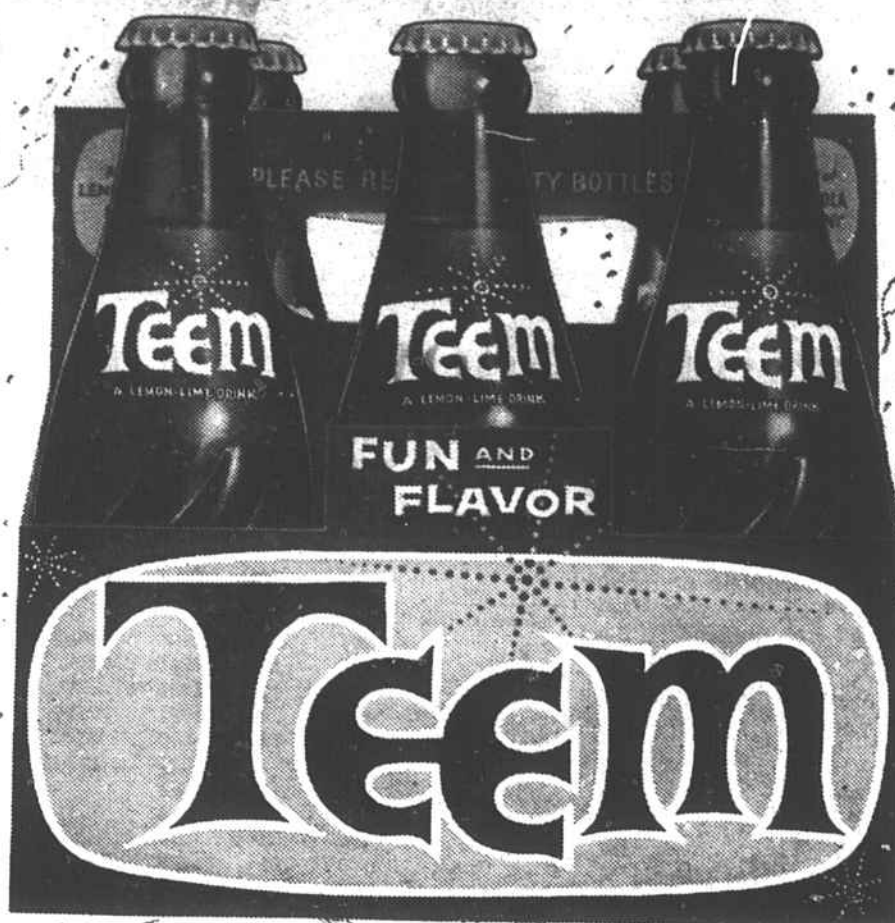

"One of Europe's Finest"

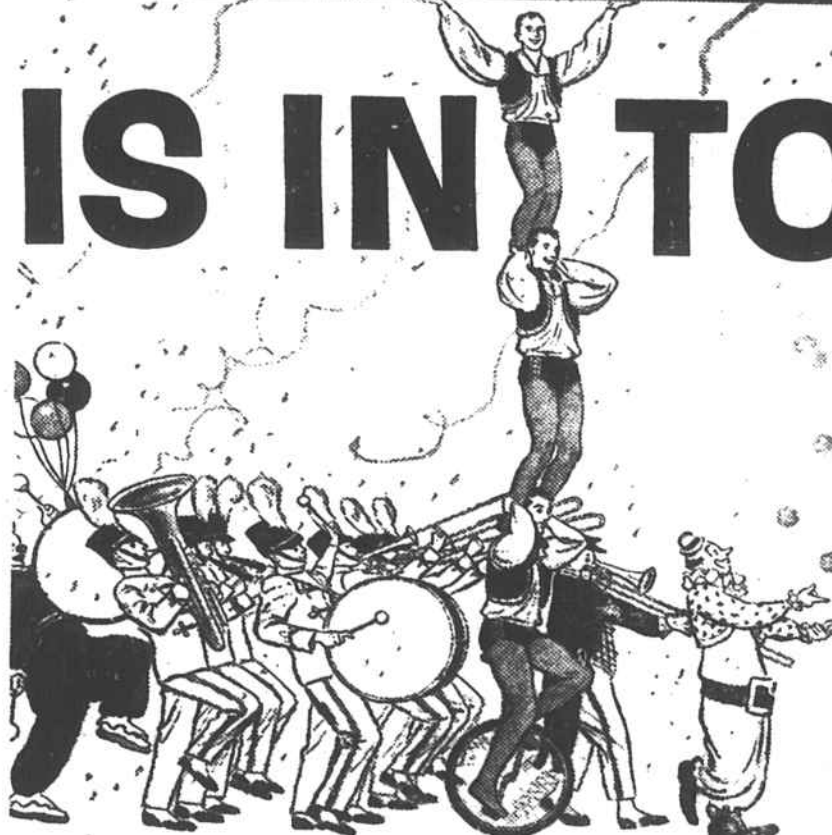

A graceful and lovely halo of Forget-me-nots and leaves accented with tiny Scavetta clusters in a delicate two-tone blending of Delphinium Blue on pure white translucent china in the exquisite Louis XV shape, deftly blended with Flairism for table settings of elegance complementing traditional decor and discreetly accented with the contemporary mood.

5-PC. PLACE SETTING with 10 1/2" dinner plate $13.95

Loughlin-Goodwyn Jewelers
Warrenton, N. C.

IS IN TOWN!

The whole town's drinking the NEW LEMON-LIME DRINK for FUN and FLAVOR

Never before—anywhere—has any new drink caught on like Teem! Now folks are finding out how refreshing a lemon-lime drink can really be! Your favorite store has Teem. Get Teem by the carton . . . Teem, the drink that's first of all for fun and flavor.

A product of Pepsi-Cola Co.

The Best Buy Of Beverages For The Weekend Is Now Offered In All Stores Selling Soft Drinks.

Pepsi-Cola Is Introducing A New Refreshing Lemon-Lime Drink In Warren County. All Retail Outlets Are Offering FREE Six Bottles Of TEEM With The Purchase Of Six Bottles Of Pepsi-Cola At The Regular Retail Price.

Be Sure To Include This Bargain On Your Grocery List Today.

Both Pepsi-Cola And Teem Are Bottled By PEPSI-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF HENDERSON, N. C., INC.