

Moonshiners Fined $500 In County Court

Two Warren County moonshiners were fined $500 each in Recorder's Court last Friday by Judge Julius Banzet and taxed with the costs of court as a part of the condition of being given suspended sentences.

William Shearin and Henry Otis Godsey were in court on a charge of manufacturing illegal whiskey and each was given a two-years road sentence. The sentences were suspended for five years upon the condition that the defendants not engage in manufacturing or hauling of non-taxpaid whiskey in any manner or quantity or have any non-taxpaid whiskey in their possession for five years; that they appear at the June 15 term of court to show good behavior and that they each pay a $500 fine and court costs.

Shearin and Godsey, charged with possession of utensils and materials for manufacturing illegal whiskey in companion cases, were taxed with court costs.

Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs in the case of Edwin B. Lynch, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Robert Anthony Shearin was found not guilty in cases in which he was charged with manufacturing illegal whiskey and possession of equipment and material for the manufacture of illegal whiskey.

Prayer for judgment was continued for two years in the case of Macy Durham, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, upon condition the defendant pay court costs.

Other cases in Friday's court included:

N. I. Haithcock, theft, not guilty.

Fred Pryors, assault with a deadly weapon, ten days jail sentence.

Archie Collier, drunk and disorderly, court costs.

John Daniel Capps, no operator's license, $25.00 and costs.

James Edward Stegall, no operator's license, $25.00 and costs.

Willie Jordan, reckless driving, $100.00 and costs.

Pecan, Sour Cream Pie Special Treat

When it's nut gathering time, homemakers delight in brightening family menus with the distinct flavor of nuts—pecans especially.

Frosted cakes and whipped cream-topped puddings, pies and sundaes are more delicious when decorated with halved or chopped pecans. Chopped pecans also add a subtle flavor to a host of hot breads, coffee cake, waffles, griddlecakes, muffins, and rolls.

We know that pecan pie has long been a favorite dessert and is a must with many families for the Christmas holiday dinners.

For a different, yet highly appealing pecan pie, it is suggested that you try this recipe which features sour cream as an important ingredient.

To Make two 9-inch pies, mix 4 egg yolks, 2 cups granulated sugar, 2 cups sour cream, 1/2 cup sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract, and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Then cook the mixture over water until thickened or about 45 minutes. Spoon the mixture into two unbaked 9-inch pie shells.

For the topping, beat 4 egg whites and 2 cups brown sugar. Stir in 2 cups broken pecan meats. Then spread over pie filling, and bake in a 325-degree oven until brown, or about 15 minutes.

With plenty of pecans available for holidays ahead, use many of them in pies, cakes, cookies and various other desserts.
