Board Has Long Session

The Board of County Commissioners had a full day at their regular meeting on Monday—interrupted for more than an hour for a hearing on subdivision regulations—with adjournment coming slightly after 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

In addition to the hearing on the subdivision regulations, the ordering of a bond issue for schools, the drawing of a jury for the January term of court, and the appointment of listtakers, the commissioners disposed of a number of minor matters as well as transacting the usual amount of routine business.

Edward B. Harris was exempted from the payment of a county's peddlars license until January 1 on account of his being a veteran of World War II. Action of the board was taken after Harris had appeared before the board to explain that he was partly disabled and unable to hold a regular job. He told the commissioners that he wanted to be permitted to sell some items for Christmas.

Offices in the court house will be closed on Saturday, December 23 and will re-open on Wednesday, December 27 for the Christmas holidays, the commissioners decided. The board also ordered that the court house be closed on January 1 for the New Year's holiday.

The board ordered that delinquent taxes for 1960 be turned over to the county attorney for collection.

An amount of $25,000 was appropriated from the General Fund as a Christmas offering to the Caswell Training School. The commissioners agreed to appropriate $600 for part time clerical help for the office of Soil Conservationist Nat White. The action of the commissioners was taken after the Soil Conservation Committee, composed of A. S. Bugg, Walter Smiley and W. H. Bender, had appeared with White to point out the need for this assistance and to ask for an appropriation for this purpose.

The commissioners donated $100 for the Memorial Recreation Forest, Inc., located in the southern part of Warren County.

Bond renewal certificates were received for Wiley W. Vaughan, constable; Elwood J. Burgess, constable; Arthur Pettis Rodwell, Jr. Auditor; and Sam E. Allen, Register of Deeds.

The Board reviewed all bonds of the county officials and found the same to be in order.

Water Cut-off

Water users in West Warrenton have been warned of a disruption in the town-furnished water supply on Saturday.

Water Superintendent H. R. Skillman said water would be cut off to customers on West Franklin Street and branching streets from a point near White's Gin westward to the Prison Camp Road.

The water supply will be cut off at 2 p. m. Saturday and will remain off for approximately two or three hours, the superintendent said.

Skillman said the interruption was necessitated by repairs on a fire hydrant near the John R. Hawkins High School. The work is being done on Saturday in order to avoid disrupting service during school hours. The Warren County Prison Camp will not be affected by the disruption, he said.

High School and that the train's operators were unable to avoid a collision.

A crewman, O. R. Baker, said the train was travelling approximately 50 miles an hour when the truck was hit.

Officers said the truck was owned by Boyd C. Edwards, 49-year-old Hawtree Township farmer.

Fire companies from Warrenton and Norlina were called to the scene after the wrecked truck caught fire. The blaze was contained with no damage occurring to any property except the vehicle.

Christmas Gifts For Needy Sought By Welfare Dept.

Persons wishing to extend Christmas joy to needy persons and families throughout Warren County may do so by making contributions of cash, food, clothing and toys to the Warren County Welfare Department.

Superintendent Julian Farrar said yesterday that the local department is making plans for the distribution of these needed items and persons interested in making donations could contact the local department for arrangements on delivery of the items.

Manley Martin Named Treasurer National Ass'n

A Warrenton man has been elected treasurer of the National Water Well Association.

Manley S. Martin, former president of the N. C. Well Drillers Association, was elected to the post at a meeting held at Miami Beach, Fla., from November 26 through December 2.

Mrs. Martin was named treasurer of the association's auxiliary in connection with her husband's election.

Martin is currently secretary and treasurer of the N. C. Well Drillers Association and executive secretary and treasurer of the South Atlantic Well Drillers Jubilee, an organization encompassing North and South Carolina and Virginia.

In addition to well drillers from this country, the Miami meeting was host to representatives of several foreign countries.

An estimated 39 per cent of the North Carolina cotton acreage was adequately treated for insects in 1961.

One Hurt When Cow Struck

A 32-year-old Warren County man suffered minor injuries when the automobile in which he was a passenger struck a cow five miles west of here at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday.

John Owen Kearney, Negro of Rt. 2, Warrenton, was taken to Warren General Hospital here for treatment of minor facial lacerations following the accident. John Edward Hyman, 16, of Rt. 1, Warrenton, told Trooper W. E. Brown that several cows were in the path of his eastbound automobile on the Warrenton-Henderson highway and that he was unable to avoid a collision with one of them. The cow was killed.

Funds Requested For Salvation Army By N. M. Hilliard

Donations for needy Warren County families have been requested here by N. M. Hilliard, chairman of the Warren County service unit of the Salvation Army.

Calling for donations of clothes, food, cash and toys to brighten the holiday season for needy families, Hilliard said that the local unit was responsible for passing on donations to more than 50 needy families last Christmas season.

"This year let the Salvation Army be your messenger of good cheer at Christmas time. Donations may be mailed to A. A. Wood, secretary of the Warren County unit, Warrenton, N. C.," Hilliard said.

Stalled Truck Demolished When Struck By Train

A pickup truck was demolished two miles north of Wise shortly before 11 p. m. Wednesday when it was struck by a northbound freight train.

State Trooper W. E. Brown said the truck became stuck on the Seaboard Airline Railway tracks near the North Warren
