

Norlina To Host Jackets Tonight

Warrenton and Norlina will meet in cage contests at Norlina tonight in a battle that will shed light on the 1961-62 Halifax-Warren basketball race among the boys' hardwood clubs.

Both quintets have won one and lost one since ushering in the season last Friday night. Warrenton has beaten Gold Sand and was the eighth victim of Middleburg on Tuesday night.

Norlina posted a 52-37 win over Enfield in their opener. Enfield was rated by many as one of the stronger teams in the seven-club loop and was given the nod by some to unseat Weldon as conference champion. Aycock, a Vance County team, knocked off the Waves on Tuesday night.

In the girls' game, Norlina will be looking for its first win of the young season when it tangles with Warrenton, which has lost to Gold Sand and won over Middleburg.

Elsewhere in the conference Weldon will be at Davie and Enfield travels to Aurelian Springs.

On next Tuesday night Norlina continues county warfare when it goes to Littleton. Warrenton hosts Aurelian Springs and Weldon is at Enfield.

Norlina Drops Both Games In Play At Aycock School

Aycock swept both ends of a doubleheader from Norlina on Tuesday night with the girls winning by a lopsided 52-25 score and the boys giving Coach Jimmy Overby a 55-43 win over his alma mater.

In the opening game of the non-conference twinbill, all three Aycock forwards scored in the double digits, with forward Peggy Pegram taking scoring honors for both teams with 23 points. Pauline Patterson and Frances Fuller added 24 points to the winning effort.

Gayle Williams with 16 points led Coach Bob Price's Norlina quintet. The win was the fifth of the season for Aycock, against three losses, while Norlina's loss was their second of the year.

In the second game Aycock pulled in front by a dozen points at the end of the first quarter and coasted to its third win of the year as forwards Jerry Hoyle and Marshall Coghill handled the scoring burden.

Billy Fuller was top point man for both clubs with 19 points. Jimmy Burton also hit in the double figures for the Norlina club, losing its first in two starts.

John Graham And Middleburg Split Games Tuesday

Middleburg threw a tight zone defense and a well-balanced scoring attack at Warrenton Tuesday night and came off the court with a 43-38 win.

The Middleburg lassies had a rougher time of it, dropping their sixth game of the season, 31-20, in the opener.

Coach Joe Stepusin's Wildcats, after their eighth straight victory, found the Jackets battling to the wire. Warrenton, which led at the three-quarters mark, hit on ten of 11 tries from the foul line and kept the visitors, experiencing a poor night from the charity stripe, on their toes throughout the contest. Warrenton took 44 shots from the floor and hit 14.

Middleburg's Eddie Royster scored a dozen points to lead the Wildcats, while center Herman Rooker was high for Warrenton with 18.

In the girls' contest, Brenda Davis and Knox Polk teamed for 29 points to give Coach

Janice Allen her first victory. Warrenton stepped off to a 10-3 first-quarter lead and held Middleburg scoreless in the final frame to gain the margin of victory.

Prizes To Be Given For Decorations

Some $40 in cash prizes will go to Norlina residents with Christmas decorating ingenuity.

According to an announcement made yesterday by the Norlina Merchants Association, cash prizes will be awarded the town's residents who display the best outside Christmas decorations.

Out-of-town judges will inspect the exterior decorations on Wednesday night, December 20, according to the announcement.

Turkey Shoot To Be Held Saturdays

Saturday will mark the first of three Saturdays between now and Christmas on which marksmen may win free turkeys.

The Warrenton Rural Fire Department has announced that it will conduct a turkey shoot each Saturday until Christmas from 1 p. m. until 8 p. m.

The shoot will be held between the Carolina Sportswear plant and Bullock Oil Company on t he Warrenton-Norlina highway.

The Department will furnish the shells, but marksmen may bring their own guns if they prefer. Jimmy Roberts, Fire Chief, said.

He said a shoot will be held each 30 minutes during the hours listed.

Bureau Endorses Crops Referendum

Warren County farmers possibly have a larger stake in the referendum to be held on Tuesday, December 12, than ever before in the history of agriculture.

This is the opinion of Erich E. Hecht, president of the Warren County Farm Bureau, who this week urged farmers and all other eligible voters to participate in Tuesday's balloting.

"Our tobacco, cotton and peanut programs are at stake. We need a large vote to show members of Congress and other segments of government that we, as farmers, are interested in our own welfare and that we are going to help in making the decisions that affect us," he said.

Hecht urged all farmers and producers to vote for marketing quotas on flue-cured tobacco and cotton and to help continue to promote the sale and use of tobacco and peanuts by the Tobacco Associates and Peanut Growers Association.

4-H CLUB MEETS
Warren County's annual 4-H achievement program will be held on Wednesday night, December 20.

Persons planning to attend the meeting—slated to begin at 7:30 p. m. in the courtroom of the Warren County courthouse—are urged to take note of the new date set for the yearly event.

More Communities Turn In Donations

Five Warren County communities this week turned in their completed quotas for the 4-H Development Fund drive, Paul Lancaster, county drive chairman, said yesterday.

Lancaster said the five communities turning in funds were Marmaduke, Oakville, Vicksboro, Afton and Norlina.

Several other communities are nearing their goals and are expected to complete their drive within the next few days, he said.

BOND

The purpose of the bond issue is to provide for the consolidation of some eleven small Negro schools in the county, and to offer better facilities for the Negro school children of the county now taught in small classrooms with multiple grades. Slowness in consolidating these schools under a pay-as-you-go plan, has created much dissatisfaction among Negro school patrons and leaders of the county, and has resulted in the boycotting of one school and a number of mass meetings in protest during the past year.

QUOTAS

While the Secretary of Agriculture proclaims quotas for the next crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal, it is the growers who decide whether or not quotas shall be used. Previous votes have been highly favorable and 1961 quotas were approved by more than 96 per cent of the voters, he pointed out.

Second largest group affected by Tuesday's vote will be Warren flue-cured tobacco producers. Nineteen hundred and forty-two farms in the county have received 1962 tobacco allotments.

Even if no tobacco was produced on a farm in 1961, persons preserving allotments are eligible to participate in Tuesday's balloting.

"If quotas for flue-cured tobacco are approved by at least two-thirds of the voters, the present program will be continued for the next three crops with penalties on 'excess' tobacco marketed, acreage allotments and price supports,"

Smiley said.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas, no penalties on 'excess' tobacco, and no price support program on the 1962 crop.

"In that event, another referendum would be held next year on marketing quotas for the next three crops," he said.

Peanut allotments for 1962 total only 176.2 acres in the county and the crop is grown on only 56 farms. Nevertheless peanut producers were mailed official notices of their allotments, along with tobacco and cotton producers on December 5, in order that they would know to what extent they would be affected by Tuesday's referendum.

Peanut producers will vote whether or not to continue to assess themselves two cents per 100 pounds for production of the crop.
