

Future Homemakers Stage Littleton Fashion Show

LITTLETON — Mrs. Francis T. Ricks presented members of the Future Homemakers of America in a fashion show Friday afternoon in the high school auditorium.

With a Christmas setting, stockings hanging on a mantel and chairs placed before the fireplace and a lighted Christmas tree in a corner of the room, the members modeled the outfits and dresses they have been busy making for the past several weeks.

Sandra Walker presented the devotional, "No Room in the Inn."

Betsy Clark served as narrator. The girls and their costumes included:

Faye Stainback, who modeled a red gabardine jumper with matching jacket featuring a stand-up collar;

Betty Jean West, wearing a green and white party dress. The top was of emerald green velveteen, with a white chiffon skirt with light green panel in back of the skirt; Linda Spragins wore a gray wool plaid skirt with matching vest;

Betty Bobbitt modeled brown Capri pants;

Kathy Thorne was dressed in red wool kilts, accented by red fringe and stitched down pleats;

Sally Foster wore gray and black kilts.

Brenda Hale wore green plaid Capri pants with a matching weskit and red blouse and she had also made a skirt to match this outfit.

Lynne Mincher was dressed in a tan background printed shirtwaist dress, trimmed in gold buttons with pleated skirt. With this she wore a hemp belt.

Sandra Stansbury modeled a Magenta pleated wool skirt with matching plaid jacket. Gail Myrick was dressed in a green printed shirtwaist dress with roll-up sleeves.

Linda Mitchell's outfit was a

Nassau blue skirt with a blue and white cotton long sleeve blouse.

Sandra Walker was dressed in a black wool crepe model with cowl collar and rhinestone pin.

Barbara West wore a straight skirt with overlapping vest of brown and black wool plaid.

Faye Best wore a dark plaid jumper trimmed in large black buttons.

Camille Bobbitt wore a two-piece wool suit of gray-blue, with white blouse and hat to match the suit.

Evelyn Keeter modeled a red overblouse, with black and red woolplaid skirt.

Pat Sadler's dress was a black wool sheath with three-quarter length sleeves and a V-neckline.

Kay Barrette modeled a lemon yellow wool skirt with blue and yellow vest.

Gail Ellis wore a brown print shirtwaist model.

Patsy Reid was dressed in a green shirtwaist dress with roll-up sleeves.

Alice Ray Newsom wore a printed cotton shirtwaist dress.

Janet Taylor wore an old-fashioned style red cotton, trimmed in black rick-rack braid.

Between acts Sally Foster read "The Night Before Christmas" to three little children seated before the fire, Mason Hawfield, Ann Spottswood Hawfield and Clyde Johnston. Betty Jean West did a pantomime and dance to "Jingle Bell Rock."

Dorothy Hilliard wore a red flannel suit with open jacket and three-quarter length sleeves.

Ruth Wright was dressed in a blue print shirtwaist dress with knife pleats.

Lynn Short's dress was of printed polished cotton with three-quarter length sleeves.

Margaret Newsom wore a brown printed shirtwaist dress with pleated skirt, trimmed in white lace.

Selma Hudson's dress was of pale blue polished cotton with very full skirt.

Blaine Curl was dressed in a brown printed shirtwaist dress with Peter Pan collar and roll-up sleeves.

Harriet Wright modeled a green printed shirtwaist.

Shirley Reid's dress was of red cotton, made shirtwaist style, accented with black buttons and a black belt.

Betty Faye Reid's dress was an old-fashioned style cotton print, trimmed in large black rick-rack braid.

Faye Best, Betty Bobbitt and Camille Bobbitt sang "O Holy Night," with Sandra Stansbury accompanying them at the piano.

Linda Mitchell sang "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," with Gail Myrick at the piano.

Betty Sue Brinkley modeled a shirtwaist dress of red cotton, with full skirt accented by white lace.

Linda Spragins wore a red plaid kilt trimmed with black fringe.

Annie Shearin's dress was of Royal blue cotton print, made with very full skirt.

Lynne Mincher wore a powder blue two-piece wool suit made with self-covered buttons.

Gail Myrick accompanied five girls at the piano when they sang "Deck the Halls."

They included Linda Mitchell, Kay Goodrich, Harriett Wright, Ruth Wright and Wanda King.

Sally Foster's party dress was of Magenta brocade, accented with a rhinestone pin.

Brenda Hale's party dress was a red top with white eyelet over taffeta skirt. The added overskirt made a versatile style.

Faye Stainback's party dress was a royal blue sheer over rose taffeta.

Ruby Newsom wore a green velveteen party dress with a white brocade taffeta skirt.

Sara Ellis modeled an emerald green velveteen party dress with scoop neckline and a rhinestone pin.

Kathie Thorne's red velveteen party dress can be worn with or without the cord belt, according to the narrator.

Kay Goodrich modeled a black velveteen party dress with rhinestone pin.

Betty Bobbitt's red plaid kilt was trimmed with fringe and with it she wore an olive green blouse.

Betty Jean West's turquoise wool sheath was topped with a jacket of wool plaid.

The high school glee club presented several numbers with Sandra Stansbury as accompanist.

The narrator thanked Miss Ruby Moore for her work with the glee club and expressed the regrets of the school that Miss Moore was unable to be there for the performance. She also thanked Mrs. Bell for helping the glee club in Miss Moore's absence.

Santa Claus (Faye Stainback) and an elf (Betty Bobbitt) each sang a song, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charlotte Stainback Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weston and family of Franklinton were visitors here on Sunday night.

Mrs. T. F. Stallings attended the wedding of her sister in Durham on Saturday.

Lions Have Annual Children's Party

(Omitted Last Week)

In Memoriam

In memory of little Jerry Deems Ormsby who died on May 24, 1960.

WE MISS YOU
Your life was like a candlelight;
So pure, so brief, but, oh, so bright!
With beams of love you filled each heart
And made it hard for us to part.

We miss your voice, your sweet embrace,
Your precious smile, your angel face,
Our hearts are sad, but this we know,
When God called, you had to go!

God needed you in Heaven above,
To teach his angels how to love;
He freed your soul, now it can rise,
To lead the angels in Paradise.

THE FAMILY.

REJOICE! REJOICE!

As glad tidings sound forth, we wish for you and your loved ones a Christmas filled with rejoicing and with every blessing.
