

Basketball Play In Full Swing Tonight

Halifax-Warren teams take off their Christmas wraps tonight with a near-full conference slate on tap.

Highlighting the first round of loop action since the two-week holiday layoff will be Warrenton's meeting with Weldon on the Tornados' home court.

The featured attraction of this match will be the nightcap, when two teams with perfect 3-0 conference marks face one another.

Weldon's boys have gotten wins over Littleton, Davie and Enfield, while the Yellow Jackets' victories have come at the expense of Norlina, Aurelian Springs and Enfield.

In the opening game Warrenton's Lady Jackets will tangle with a Weldon team paced by Glo Elias, who has led the Weldon sextet to a 2-1 conference record thus far.

Norlina warmed up for its stand against Aurelian Springs tonight with a win and a loss at the hands of Middleburg on Tuesday night. Norlina girls are currently in second spot in the H-W standings, while Aurelian Springs will be looking for its first win in five starts.

Littleton's boys and girls aggregations will try for their first dual win of the year tonight when they encounter Davie squads which have shown some signs of brilliance this season. Davie's boys have a 2-1 record, with a loss to Weldon, 50-40, the only blemish on their loop record. The Davie girls have a 1-2 loop mark, including a 57-53 loss to Littleton on December 15.

Tuesday night conference warfare continues with Warrenton at Littleton, Davie at Norlina and Littleton at Aurelian Springs.

Norlina Splits Games In Play At Middleburg

Middleburg got a double-figure scoring punch from three of its starters Tuesday night to win its eleventh game of the year with a 54-30 trouncing of a Norlina boys team.

Coach Joe Stepusin's team ended the holiday vacation with a display of shooting accuracy from both the floor and foul line to keep their perfect record intact.

Jimmy Brown's 18 points was high for both teams and the Wildcats, playing before home fans, got added help from Billy Watkins, with 14, and J. W. Bartholomew's 13 point effort.

Jimmy Hundley was top scorer for Coach Bob Price's visitors, who fell behind by a 25-13 mark at half-time.

From the foul line Middleburg hit on ten of 14 and Norlina dropped eight of 11.

In the opening game the Middleburg lassies dropped their ninth game of the year as they dropped a 25-12 decision to the Wavelets.

The Middleburg girls played on even terms with the visitors during the two periods but were unable to find the range from the floor in the second and final quarters.

Gayle Williams was high scorer for the night with ten points, and Shirley Abbott dropped in nine to lead the losers.
