Pippen Funeral Held At Littleton Friday Afternoon

LITTLETON—Funeral services for Mrs. Sally Moore Pippen were held from St. Alban's Episcopal Church on Friday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Frank M. Pulley, rector. Burial followed in Sunset Hill Cemetery in Littleton.

Born October 19, 1882 at Mosby Hall, Mrs. Pippen was the daughter of Capt. John Pelopidas Leach and Ellen Douglas Moore Leach. She grew up on the Mosby Hall plantation. She was educated at St. Hilda's School in Littleton and was graduated from St. Mary's School in Raleigh in 1902.

She was married to Joseph Powell Pippen of Tarboro on April 17, 1906 at St. Alban's Episcopal Church here. The late Rev. Frances Joyner officiated at her wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Pippen was a lifelong member of St. Alban's, although she was baptized at Christ Church in Raleigh, she was confirmed, married and her funeral services were conducted from the little Episcopal church here.

For many years she was an active member of the Woman's Auxiliary of the church, where she also served for sometime as president. She sang in the church choir for a number of years.

She was a charter member of the first Littleton Woman's Club and was one of the first 12 members of the Wyanoke Study Club, organized more than 50 years ago.

She also was an active member for a number of years of the Roanoke Minute Men, the Littleton chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. Pippen is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry Leroy Townsend (Ellen Douglas) of Marshall, Va., and Mrs. William Finley Stokes (Sally Moore Pippen) of Hendersonville. Two daughters predeceased her in death, Emily Pender Pippen Koonce and Mary Powell Pippen Rosenthal Pike.

Also surviving are six grandchildren, Mrs. William C. Overman, Henry Townsend, Jr., and William Brock Townsend, William F. Stokes, Jr., Joseph Powell Stokes and Herbert Rosenthal.

Mrs. Pippen was for many years a correspondent for "The Warren Record." She also served as nominator for many, many years from this area for the Terpsichorean Ball in Raleigh.

Tharrington Rites Held On Friday
