On Honor Roll

The names of Ray Traylor and James Bowen of the fourth grade of Norlina High School were inadvertently omitted in the publication of honor roll students of the school last week.

MRS. RAY GENE LEDFORD

Nancy Jo Paschall And Ray Gene Ledford Wed

In a ceremony of beauty and dignity, which took place on Saturday evening at 7:30 in Zion Methodist Church, Miss Nancy Jo Paschall became the bride of Ray Gene Ledford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton William Paschall of Norlina and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ledford of Moultrie, Ga. The Rev. D. F. Funderburk officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk taffeta, styled with a portrait neckline re-embroidered with heirloom lace and seed pearls. Lace applique on the bodice accented the bouffant skirt, which ended in a Cathedral train. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a headpiece of taffeta and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with an orchid.

Miss Peggy McCracken of Charlotte, maid of honor, wore a floor-length taffeta dress of American Beauty rose with matching headband and veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and blue iris. Mrs. Hal Paschall, sister-in-law of the bride, was mistress of ceremony.

Don Chiofalo of Charlotte served as best man. Ushers were Hal L. Paschall of Norlina, brother of the bride, and William N. Craft of Norlina, cousin of the bride.

The Rev. Billy Fallaw, vocalist, sang, "Oh Love Divine," "Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Howard Lee Stultz, organist, cousin of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Norlina High School, Woman's College of UNC, University of Pennsylvania and for the past three years has been employed as Physical Therapist at the Miller Clinic in Charlotte. Effective March 1, she will be Physical Therapist at Wake County Cerebral Palsy and Rehabilitation Center in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Moultrie High School and has served four years in the U. S. Air Force. He is now an Insurance Adjustor with the Dixie Fire and Casualty Co., Raleigh.

The couple will reside at 1006C Braden St., Raleigh.

Among out-of-town persons attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Downman and children, Miss Maria Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Snuggs, Miss Mickey Barefoot, Miss Dolly Venderlip and Miss Ruth Holland of Charlotte; Miss Peggy Limer of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Limer of Halifax; Miss Camille Hicks and Mrs. Jerry King of Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crox and son of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ledford of Moultrie, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Terrell, Jr., of Dunn; Mrs. Estelle H. Heeman and Mrs. Mamye W. Hicks of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Routa Dixon, Miss Ann Parish, Mrs. Silas Perkinson, Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Sr., Mr. Robert M. Wilson, Mrs. George B. Robinson, Mrs. Dorothy Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dabbin, Mr. W. R. Parker and Mrs. Grace Perkinson of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Yancey Gordon of South Hill, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Knott of Oxford; and Miss Nell Hinson of Sylvia.

Wedding Luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Martin F. Hayes entertained at a luncheon at their home on Saturday of last week for the Ledford-Paschall wedding party and several guests from Charlotte.

The Hayes home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride-elect received a lovely corsage of white flowers. Book matches were made into attractive place cards.

The menu—consisting of tomato aspic, country ham, corn, stringbeans, turkey, dressing and gravy, a relish dish, hot rolls, coffee, tea, ice cream topped with cherries and heart-shaped party cakes—was served buffet style.

Cake-Cutting Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Foster entertained at a cake-cutting at their home, honoring Miss Nancy Jo Paschall and Ray Gene Ledford, Friday night following the wedding rehearsal.

The traditional green and white motif was used in the dining room. After the honorees had cut the first slice from the four-tiered cake, guests were served cake, cream, nuts and mints by Mrs. S. N. Hawks, Sr., Mrs. J. T. Walker and Mrs. Martin Hayes.

Guests included the families, members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and a few close friends of the family.

Jr. Woman's Club Holds Meeting

The Norlina Junior Woman's Club held its regular meeting last Thursday night in the Norlina School Cafeteria.

After the club collect was read the devotional was presented by Mrs. Margie Daniel.

Miss Bobbie L. Prichard, a music supervisor, gave an interesting program on "Music In Schools," discussing the trends of modern day teaching in music and how music should fit in with other school curriculum. Miss Prichard was presented a gift from the club.

After the business of the meeting, a report was given by Mrs. Helen Hendericks on the trip to Murdock Training School at Butner. Eleven members visited the school this month.

Each member brought a baby gift to be sent to The Children's Home Society in Greensboro. This is a state project of the Junior Woman's Clubs. Final plans were made for the pancake supper on Friday night.

The hostesses, Mrs. Walter Newman, Mrs. C. A. Hicks, Mrs. Earl Stetgall and Mrs. Jimmie Webb, served punch, decorated cakes, nuts and mints to the twenty members present.

A. A. Circle Meets With Mrs. Wemyss

The Annie Armstrong Missionary Circle of the Norlina Baptist Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Gladys Wemyss with Mrs. Jean Williams as joint hostess. Mrs. A. S. Wyckoff, circle chairman, led the devotional and presided over the routine business session.

Mrs. H. E. Bobbitt, program chairman, and Mrs. J. R. Overby taught the first two chapters of the mission book, "Glimpses of Glory," by C. C. Warren.

Mrs. Jean Williams was showered with many dainty and useful baby gifts at the conclusion of the meeting.

During the social hour, the hostesses served lemon pie, cheese straws and coffee to the 15 in attendance.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Adcock with Mrs. Mae Gums as co-hostess.

Mrs. Larry Bryson Entertains Circle

Mrs. Larry Bryson was hostess to members of the Lottie Moon Circle at her home on Monday evening. Mrs. Ira Weaver presided in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Howard Edmonds.

It was announced that the Lottie Moon Circle will have charge of the church nursery the second Sunday in each month.

The Rev. Larry Bryson taught a portion of the Home Mission book, "Glimpses of Glory," by C. C. Warren.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess served banana loaf topped with whipped cream to the seven present. Mrs. Edmonds will entertain the circle in March.
