

Girl Scouts Observing Their Fiftieth Birthday

Approximately 3 1/2 million girls and adult members of Girl Scouts of the USA are this week celebrating the 50th anniversary of the organization.

Juliette Low established the first troop of 12 girls on March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Georgia.

As a part of the observance of Girl Scout Week, Mrs. Herbert Sicker of Durham, publicity chairman of the Bright Leaf Girl Scout Council of North Carolina, Inc., has prepared a release of the history, duties and objectives of Girl Scouting which follows:

Mrs. Low in 1912 brought from England the principles of Scouting as set forth by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Scout movement, and adapted them to the needs of girls in the United States.

Since 1912, almost 18 1/2 million girls, women and men have belonged to the Girl Scouts. They carry on their program in every state of the Union, in its possessions and in 49 other countries where American families live. The program itself, according to Mrs. Charles U. Culmer of Libertyville, Illinois, Girl Scout National President, has expanded and changed to keep pace with our changing times.

The basic purpose of Girl Scouting, however, has remained the same," Mrs. Culmer added. "It is to inspire girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens."

Girl Scouting is part of an international movement. In many other countries, Girl Scouts are called Girl Guides. The Girl Scouts and Girl Guides are linked through membership in the 51-nation World Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. carries on an extensive exchange with other member countries of the World Association. Girl Guides visit Girl Scout councils in the United States and attend events such as Senior Roundups; in turn, Girl Scouts from this country visit Guides and participate in international meetings and encampments abroad.

During the last six years, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. have served as hostesses to almost 700 international Guides / Girl Scouts and have sent close to 1,000 Girl Scouts abroad in exchanges involving 51 countries. These exchanges are largely financed by Juliette Low World Friend Ship Fund which is supported by voluntary contributions from Girl Scouts all over the United States.

Girl Scouting is open to all girls seven through 17 years of age, regardless of race, creed, or nationality. They are united by the Girl Scout Promise in which each girl pledges: "On my honor, I will try: 'to do my duty to God and my country, 'to help other people at all times, 'to obey the Girl Scout Laws."

The Girl Scout Laws require members to be trustworthy, loyal, useful, friendly, courteous, kind to animals, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, and clean in thought, words, and deed. The Girl Scouts' motto is "Be Prepared."

There is a single overall program of activities graded according to three age levels: Brownies, seven through nine years; Intermediate Scouts, 10 through 13 years; Senior Scouts, 14 through 17 years. Each age group has its own uniform.

The Girl Scout program includes activities in 11 fields: arts and crafts, literature and dramatics, music and dancing, community life, international friendship, nature out-of-doors, sports and games, agriculture, health and safety, and home-making.

Brownies explore the world of nature, make bird feeding stations, learn to care for pets and collect pebbles, shells, leaves and other natural treasures.

Library News

The thoughtfulness and generosity of the library patrons have provided many hours of enjoyable reading for the people of Warren County. Recent gifts of books include two copies of "A Long and Happy Life," a novel by a Warren County native, Reynolds Price. One copy was given by Mrs. Ethel Russell Lauria in memory of Arthur Nicholson; the other by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Poindexter in memory of W. S. Price; "Re-creations", by Hill in memory of Douglas Mustian, given by the Grady Moseley family; and "The Blue and the Gray," which was presented by Mrs. J. L. Hazelhurst (Elizabeth Graham), in memory of her cousin, Miss Amma D. Graham.

Two new reference sets for young people have been added recently. "The Book of Popular Science", a ten-volume set of reference books on science, which has proved to be quite popular. Most recent reference acquisition has been a set of "Encyclopedia Britannica Junior", which has been placed on the shelves for the particular benefit of the younger readers. Some of the new best-sellers are: "Chairman of the Board", by Streeter; "The Ivy Tree", by Stewart; and "Little Me", by Dennis. New mysteries are: "Clue for Murder", by Barker; "But the Patient Died", by Sinclair.

Volume III of "A New Geography of North Carolina", by Sharpe came in last week. It is to be hoped that volumes one and two may be acquired, as well as volume four, which will be published soon.

The library fund drive has gotten off to a rather slow start. However, the Home Demonstration clubs, with Mrs. Claude Halthcock as chairman of collections in the county, have responded practically one hundred per cent. It is expected that many interested citizens will make their contributions between now and the culmination of the drive during National Library Week, April 8-14. The really big contributions will probably come in at that time.

August is known as "ham month" in North Carolina because hams cured in December have aged to the desired flavor by then.
