State Fashion Sewing Contest Held At G'boro

The North Carolina State Fashion Sewing Contest, sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Vogue Pattern Service of New York City, was held at the Sedgfield Country Club in Greensboro on April 4.

A delicious luncheon was served to the 250 women's club members and high school contestants who came from all parts of the state for the event. A lovely fashion show put on by the contestants, all district winners, followed the luncheon.

District 14 was represented by Miss Ann King of Warrenton in the high school division and Mrs. William Harkness of Henderson in the senior division.

Winners in each division who will participate in the National Contest in New York were Mrs. Frank Dougherty of District 5 and Miss Peggy Ann Bickett of District 3.

Others from Warrenton attending the fashion show and luncheon were Mrs. Leonard Daniel, Miss Emily B. Person, Mrs. Tom Hawkins and Mrs. Harry Williams.

Misses Sarah and Betty Jean Fitts returned Sunday from spending the winter with Brig. General and Mrs. W. T. Fitts in Asheville.
