FHA Entertains Parents At Dinner On Tucker Lawn

The John Graham Chapter of Future Homemakers of America enjoyed a delightful outdoor buffet supper honoring their mothers and fathers on Wednesday afternoon, May 16, in the formal garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Tucker.

The central buffet table was beautifully appointed with an arrangement of pink peonies in the center flanked by ivy and hurricane lamps. The dessert table, with a colorful tablecloth and an arrangement of purple iris, offered an array of tempting pies and cakes.

Guests were seated at small tables, covered with green, pink and yellow covers. On each table were miniature arrangements of roses.

Delicious fried chicken, assorted sandwiches, potato salad deviled eggs, potato chips and pickles were served.

Following the supper Mr. and Mrs. Tucker invited the guests into their home where they enjoyed its elegance and beauty.

Approximately one hundred and fifteen persons attended. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Peeler, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brown, Jane and Mike Brown, Miss Louise Allen and Miss Emily Burt Person, FHA Advisor.
