Gardner Installed As Head Of Warrenton Lions Club

A member of the Warrenton Lions Club has assumed two important offices in Lionism.

W. Monroe Gardner, insurance agency manager, was installed as president of the Warrenton Club at a meeting held at Hotel Warren on last Friday night.

At the same time Gardner assumed his duties as Deputy District Governor of Lions District 31-G, a position to which he was recently appointed by District Governor John Xanthos of Burlington.

Retiring President Duke Jones presided over the meeting where officers and directors were installed by George Cherry of Raleigh, General Service Officer of the Department of Administration of the State of North Carolina.

Officers installed in addition to President Gardner were Randolph M. Miles, 1st vice-president; Nat White, 2nd vice-president; A. A. Wood, 3rd vice-president; C. V. Whitford, secretary; R. H. Bright, treasurer;

W. L. Turner, Lion Tamer; and Claude F. Burrows, Tail Twister. Also installed were Hy Diamond and Manley Martin, as two-year directors.

A large number of Lions were present for the meeting from the Henderson Club. These were recognized by President Jones.

In retiring from his one-year term of office, President Jones thanked the club members for their co-operation during the year, remarking that whatever success the club may have enjoyed under his presidency would have been impossible without the loyal help of committee and club members. He congratulated the club upon its election of Lion Gardner as president and asked the same fine cooperation for Gardner that he had received as president.

Upon receiving the gavel from Cherry, President Gardner thanked the members for the honor bestowed upon him, asked the club's assistance, and pledged his best efforts to carry on the work of the club. Complimenting Jones upon his fine work as president, Gardner asked the club for a rising vote of thanks for Jones' service. This was given.

Haithcock Edges Fair In Close Coroner's Race

N. I. Haithcock received the Democratic nomination for Coroner for the third straight time on Saturday in a run-off with A. C. Fair, Warrenton jeweler, and runner-up in the first primary of May 28.

Haithcock, who had little trouble in sweeping the field in primaries of four and eight years ago, won his seat Saturday by only a margin of 17 votes out of a total of 1483 votes cast. Haithcock received 749 votes and Fair's vote was 732. The other two votes were write-ins for T. H. Brown, Negro mortician of Warrenton, who ran third in the first primary.

Fair won handily in the two precincts of Warrenton piling up a lead of more than 150 votes in early returns. This lead was boosted by returns from Fork by 10 votes, as the first rural precinct to report gave Fair a 22 vote to Haithcock's 12. This was Fair's high-water mark, as returns from other rural precincts began to cut down his lead. Norlina's returns changed matters very little as in that relatively large precinct Fair received 75 votes to Haithcock's 74.

With only three precincts to be heard from Fair's lead was cut to less than sixty, and watchers familiar with voting trends over the county, began to claim that Haithcock would win the election. Returns from two of these townships put Haithcock in the lead by 15 votes. Still Roanoke remained to be heard from.

In the first primary Haithcock had polled 16 of the precinct's 32 votes, and Fair had received none. It was unlikely that enough votes would be cast to overcome Haithcock's lead, and it was likely that Haithcock would be the winner in that precinct. But one could not be certain.

Fair in the office here with Haithcock said, "I worked mighty hard in that township." Haithcock claimed that the vote would be light and that he would carry the precinct. But still no returns from Roanoke.

Finally around 9 o'clock Fair conceded the nomination and congratulated Haithcock. Haithcock said, "I was scared; I was lucky to get it."

Tuesday morning official returns were made from Roanoke. Fair's work and Haithcock's faith were justified. The vote was light—14—and Haithcock got 8 and Fair 6. This might be termed a moral victory in a precinct known for a long time for its one-sided voting. At any rate it gave Haithcock a 17-vote margin.

4-H Boys And Girls Leave For Camp

By EMILY BALLINGER

Home Economics Agent

Fifty-three 4-H Club members from Warren County are attending club camp at Millstone 4-H Club Camp near Elberbe. Mrs. John Killian, Mrs. Willie Norwood and Mrs. Chris Holtzman, adult 4-H club leaders, are also with the group.

As the group gathered to leave on Monday morning it was most interesting to observe and listen to comments of club members and parents. Many were going for the first time, while others have been several times. Some of the comments I heard as I mingled with the group were: "My child has been up since 6:10 a. m. getting ready to come. She is so excited." Another mother was heard to say, "My daughter has been begging me since 7:30 to bring her over here but I told her I would have her here at 9:00 o'clock when the letter said to be here."

Another mother was heard asking a second mother, "Has your child ever been away from home before for a week?" With the negative reply, both mothers hoped their children would not get homesick.

Real disgust was shown by one mother whose son had indicated he did not want her to come see him off. "He must be afraid I will embarrass him," she said. One camper was most concerned at leaving her pillow at home and indicated that Dad mail it to her.

Other comments and questions that could be heard were, "Where did you put your lunch?" "Have you paid the remainder of your deposit?" (See 4-H, page 8)

Both Mrs. Dameron and Mrs. Hawkins were delegates of their club to the Convention of the State Federated Women's Clubs, recently held in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Dameron gave an interesting report of the proceedings of the convention, including a resume of the remarks of some of the speakers who addressed the convention on domestic and international matters of interest and consequence.
