MRS. DAVID WILLIAM PERKINSON

Lorraine Harris Weds David W. Perkinson

In a ceremony of beauty and simplicity which took place on Saturday afternoon, June 30, at four o'clock in Bethlehem Methodist Church, Arcola, Miss Edith Lorraine Harris became the bride of David William Perkinson with the Rev. William Sabistan, pastor, officiating. Miss Harris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edgar Harris of Arcola and Mr. Perkinson is the son of Mrs. William Horace Perkinson and the late Mr. Perkinson of Norlina.

Music was rendered by Miss Harriet Daniel of Warrenton, pianist, and Mrs. Carl Fleming of Henderson, soloist, who sang, "Indian Love Call" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of pure silk organza edged in Chantilly lace, featuring a portrait neckline, long pointed sleeves and scalloped torso bodice. Her full skirt, trimmed in lace, ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pearl scalloped crown and she carried a white prayer book, topped with white orchids and showered with stephanotis and fern.

Mrs. George Wise of Erwin was matron of honor. She wore a gown of lavender chiffon over taffeta with a picture hat and carried yellow mums, tied with ribbon. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Clarence Harris of Raleigh, Mrs. Ray Edwards of Louisburg, Mrs. Charles Greer of Warrenton, Miss Geneva Congleton of Washington, N. C., and Miss Barbara Ann Shearin of Whiteville, cousin of the bride. They wore similar gowns to the matron of honor and also carried yellow mums.

John Linwood Perkinson of Norlina served his brother as best man. Ushers were Clarence Harris of Raleigh and Irvin Harris of Littleton, brothers of the bride, Billy Fuller, Bob Traylor and Charles Gupton of Norlina.

Vada Jean Harris of Littleton was flower girl and David Harris of Atlanta, Ga., was ring bearer.

Miss Harris chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue lace with white accessories and Mrs. Perkinson wore beige lace and matching accessories. They each wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

The bride is a graduate of John Graham High School and Chowan College, Murfreesboro, and holds a position with the State Capital Life Insurance Company in Raleigh. The bridegroom is a graduate of Norlina High School and State College, Raleigh, and will be associated with the Highway Department in Greensboro where they will reside.

For travel to the western part of the state the bride changed to a two-piece mingled suit with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Walter Shearin of Smithfield, Va., aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris entertained at a reception following the wedding in the Arcola Club House which bore a white and green motif and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Foster King was in charge and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clark greeted guests. Mrs. Irvin Harris registered guests in the bride's book. Mrs. Raymond Harris directed guests to the refreshment table where ham biscuits, cake, nuts and mints were served.

Miss Lizzie Shearin poured punch and assisting in serving were Mesdames Melvin Shearin, Bruce Browning, Billy L. King, Elmer Harris and Miss Peggy Norwood. Good-byes were said to the Rev. Mr. Sabistan and Mrs. Sabistan.

Cake-Cutting

Following the Perkinson-Harris rehearsal on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gupton entertained at a cake-cutting in the Fuller home. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. John Perkinson.

Mrs. Gladys Perkinson, mother of the bridegroom, poured punch and Mrs. Clarence Harris, mother of the bride, served the cake after the couple had cut the first traditional slice from the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mints and nuts were also served.

The table was covered with a cut-work linen cloth and bore silver candelabra with pink lighted tapers and a nosegay of pink and white roses. Good-byes were said to Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Gupton.
