Bible School Proves Successful

The Vacation Bible School of Norlina Baptist Church proved to be one of the most successful programs the church has attempted this year.

The school ran for eight days with an average attendance of 109. During the school the children gave a total of $39.38, which went to the co-operative World Mission Program of Baptists.

The faculty of 20 and the special committees of seven members proved that this was a church-wide effort.

As a result of the school, five young people made profession of faith, four came to rededicate themselves, including two who definitely feel that they should become foreign missionaries, and one who came to transfer membership from another church.

Stew Sale

Zion Methodist Church will sponsor a Brunswick stew sale Thursday, July 12, at the home of Mrs. Alton Paschall. Stew, at 75¢ per quart, will be ready by noon.

MRS. JOHN UPTON MC MANUS

Lucy Davis White And J. U. McManus Wed

In a ceremony of beauty and dignity which took place on Saturday afternoon, June 30, at five-thirty in the Norlina Methodist Church, Miss Lucy Davis White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. White of Norlina, became the bride of Ensign John Upton McManus, Jr., U. S. Naval Reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. John U. McManus of Red Springs. The Rev. J. M. Parvin, pastor, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza, fashioned with a square neckline and short sleeves trimmed with Chantilly lace and fitted bodice. The skirt bore inserts of lace ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white bride's roses. The groom wore a tuxedo of white tuxedo and headpiece of white tuxedo, encircled with veil. They carried bouquets of mixed summer flowers.

Mr. McManus served his son as best man. Ushers were John McManus, cousin of the groom, George T. Sammons, Jr., U. S. Naval Reserve, Sammy Thomas, Glenn Gibson, all of Red Springs, and Charles White of Norlina, brother of the bride.

Mrs. White chose for her daughter's wedding a pink lace with matching accessories and Mrs. McManus wore blue lace with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white orchids.

The bride is a recent graduate of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, and was a member of SNEA, Science Club and Mathematical Honor Society. The bridegroom is a graduate of Flora McDonald College, Red Springs, a member of the Mathematical Honor Society and is with the U. S. Navy Reserve, stationed at Jacksonville, Florida, where the couple will reside.

For a northern wedding trip the bride changed to an Irish white linen dress, white accessories and the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. A reception followed in the Church Fellowship Hall, given by the bride's parents. Miss Sally Smith of Morganton registered guests and Mrs. Tommy Peete Davis poured punch. Bridal appointments were used throughout.

Cake-Cutting

A cake-cutting was held on Friday evening in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. T. M. Gupton of Norlina, for the wedding party and out-of-town guests. Mrs. Gupton poured punch from an antique crystal bowl with a 200-year-old silver coined ladle, belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Charles F. Cole of Richmond, Va. Mrs. John McManus served the cake after the couple had cut the first traditional slice.

Miss White Honored

Miss Lucy Davis White, June bride-elect, was honored at a Coke party on Saturday afternoon, June 23, at the home of Mrs. Earl Stegall on Darden Street. Miss White was presented a cream and sugar dish and salt and pepper shakers in her chosen crystal pattern, and was also given a corsage of white pom-poms.

Cokes, decorated with squares, mints and nuts were served by the hostess.

Minister Announces Service Schedule

Homecoming Day will be observed Sunday, July 8, at the Jerusalem Methodist Church. The Church School hour will begin at 10 a. m., followed by the worship service at 11 a. m., with the Rev. Donald F. Funderburk, pastor, bringing the morning message. A picnic lunch will be shared on the church grounds following the services; those attending are invited to bring a well-filled basket and participate in this time of fellowship.

At the Zion Church of the Jerusalem-Zion Methodist Charge, the Church School hour will begin at 9 a. m. on Sunday, July 8, but no worship service will be conducted that day, due to the Jerusalem Homecoming activities. The congregation of Zion Church is invited to participate in the events at Jerusalem.

On Monday evening, July 9, the Official Board of the Jerusalem Church will hold its regular monthly meeting, at 8 o'clock, at the church. The newly elected board will assume their duties at this time, and all members are urged to be present.

On Thursday, July 12, the Zion Church will sponsor a Brunswick stew sale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Paschall. All members of the church and community and friends are invited to participate.

Circle 2 Meets With Mrs. White

Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday night with Mrs. R. M. White, Jr., with Mrs. B. A. Thaxton as co-hostess. Mrs. Graham P. Grissom,

Briefly Speaking

We have him 30 minutes He finished up in 10. Oh there's a prince of speakers And a servant unto men. His diction wasn't such a much. He hemmed and hawed a bit And still he spoke a lot of sense And after that—he quit.

Cocktail party chatter: "Don't take another drink, honey. Your face is getting all blurry-ed."
