

John Graham To Open Football Season At Apex

Defending district champion Warrenton will put its football hopes on the line September 7 when it meets Apex in the opening game of the 1962 grid season, Coach Charles "Preacher" Parker said yesterday.

Parker said the Yellow Jackets, who last year posted a 9-2 record, losing to Windsor in the regional state playoff game at Rocky Mount, would play a nine-game slate this season, with five games being played on the local field.

One new face on the schedule this season will be Oxford Orphanage, which is stepping down from the Class 3-A ranks and has joined the Tar-Roanoke Conference. Last year Oxford Orphanage was in the District Three Conference.

which included such schools as Henderson, Oxford and Graham.

During the 1961 season, Parker made his coaching debut a highly successful one—his football team advancing to the state playoffs, his basketball team going to the state finals, and his baseball team capturing the conference championship.

The schedule for the Yellow Jackets is as follows: Sept. 7—at Apex; Sept. 14—at Weldon; Sept. 21—Spring Hope; Sept. 28—Nashville; Oct. 5—Louisburg; Oct. 12—Open; Oct. 19—Franklinton; Oct. 26—at Norlina; Nov. 2—Open; Nov. 9—at Oxford Orphanage; Nov. 16—Littleton.

Warrenton Still On Top In Tri-County League Play

COKESBOR GRABS TWO TRI-COUNTY WINS; WARRENTON STILL ON TOP

RESULTS SUNDAY Williamsboro at Townsville, postponed by rain after 1 1/2 innings, no score.

Providence at Warrenton, postponed by rain in third inning, no score. Cokesbury 8, Epsom 6.

GAMES NEXT SATURDAY Williamsboro at Epsom. Cokesbury at Providence. Townsville at Warrenton.

GAMES NEXT SUNDAY Townsville at Epsom. Providence at Williamsboro. Warrenton at Cokesbury.

HENDERSON — Cokesbury, Providence and Epsom chalked up victories in Tri-County Baseball League contests on Saturday afternoon, then Cokesbury made it a perfect weekend by grabbing another victory in the only game completed Sunday. Two games were halted by rain without a run scored Sunday.

League-leading Warrenton dropped a 4-3 decision to Epsom on Saturday but held to the No. 1 slot since second place Williamsboro also bowed to Cokesbury, 3-1. In the other Saturday affair, Providence edged Townsville in a squeaker, 8-7.

The Cokesbury triumph Sunday was at the expense of Epsom, 8-6. Williamsboro's visit to Townsville was rained out after an inning and a half, while Providence at Warrenton was halted by rain in the third stanza. There was no scoring in either contest before thunderstorms cancelled out the action.

Cokesbury hurlers Preston Edwards and Ray Pegram limited Williamsboro batters to four hits in the Saturday meeting, with no Williamsboro batsman collecting more than one safety. Pacing Cokesbury were Roger Clayton and J. W. Stainback, each with two hits in four trips, and Pegram, was charged with the loss.

In the slugfest at Epsom Sunday, Cokesbury pounded out thirteen base knocks against hurler Sonny Grissom and Epsom clouted eleven against J. W. Bartholomew, Ray Pegram and Alton Clayton. Clayton fanned eight batters in his three and two-thirds innings of action.

Top batters for Epsom were Sonny Grissom, who banged out a home run, a triple and single in five times at the plate, and Arnold Grissom and Smith, each with a double and single. For Cokesbury, the leaders included Roger Clayton, with a triple and double, Ray Pegram, a double and single, Wilson Hoyle and Alton Clayton, a triple and single each, and J. W. Stainback, with a double and single.

Polk Gives Concert At Louisburg College

Tasker Polk, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Polk of Warrenton, presented a piano concert in the Louisburg College Auditorium on Thursday, July 12, at 8 p. m.

A student of Dr. Robert Carter of East Carolina College, Polk has won numerous contests and awards. In 1958 he was winner in a Solo Piano Contest, in 1960 was awarded the N. C. Division of the Marie Morissey Keith Scholarship, in 1959 and 1961 was winner of the N. C. Division of the Student Musicians' Biennial Award. In 1961 he was the winner of the Washington International Bach Auditions, and as the winner of this competition received $150, a gold medal and a debut concert in the nation's capital. At the Bach Auditions, Critic Paul Hume of "The Washington Post" said, "Young Polk's playing was a model. In a genuinely moving reading Polk showed the highest degree of present attainment and future promise."

Polk appeared as guest soloist with the East Carolina College Orchestra in 1959, 1960 and 1962, and in 1962 was soloist with the N. C. Symphony Orchestra. He presented a number of recitals in 1961-62, including a concert in May, 1962, at the Governor's Mansion in Raleigh.

He plans to enter the Van Cliburn International Piano Competition in Forth Worth, Texas, in September.

Polk says of Dr. Carter, his teacher, "He is one of the South's truly outstanding teachers and musicians. Since being in North Carolina, Dr. Carter has had many prize-winning students. Among these are five students who have appeared as soloist with the N. C. Symphony Orchestra. Dr. Carter has a record few can boast."

The concert included selections from Bach, Scarlatti, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt and Copland.

An informal reception followed the concert which was open to the public free of charge.

Bride-Elect Feted At Linen Shower

Misses Kaye Fair, Betsy Byrd Bobbitt, Lisa Burton, Brenda Davis and Ginger Tucker entertained at a linen shower on Wednesday afternoon in the Fair home in honor of Miss Patsy Harmon, bride-elect of Saturday. She received many lovely gifts from 20 Warrenton friends.

A film was shown of the John Graham Junior-Senior prom and the graduations of the past two years.

Mrs. Roy Lee Harmon, mother of the honoree, poured punch. Decorated cakes, nuts and mints were also served. The table bore an arrangement of bridal flowers and summer flowers were used at various points throughout the home.

Miss Harmon is a recent graduate of John Graham High School.
