Miss Margaret Davis Weds Bobby Boyette

Miss Margaret Joyce Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Egerton Davis, became the bride of Bobby Franklin Boyette, son of Mrs. Ola Boyette and the late James E. Boyette of Raleigh, in a double-ring ceremony on Sunday afternoon, July 15, at four o'clock in the Inez Baptist Church. The Rev. Emmanuel Pegrum of Rocky Mount officiated.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. H. M. Williams, Jr., of Inez, pianist, and Mrs. David Kooztz of Burlington, soloist, who sang, "O Promise Me," "Because" and "Prayer Perfect" in closing.

The chancel of the church bore decorations of floor baskets filled with mums, glads and greenery and seven-branched candelabra.

Given in marriage by her cousin, George William Davis of Inez, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza, fashioned with circular neckline, trimmed in sequins and pearls, three-quarter length sleeves, fitted bodice and lace inserts on waist and skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and she carried a white Prayer Book, topped with an orchid.

Mrs. J. C. Overton of Portsmouth, Va., was matron of honor and wore a gown of pink chiffon over taffeta, matching halo and short veil and carried a nosegay of varicolored mums and asters tied with rainbow ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Misses Elizabeth Davis of Inez, Peggy Norwood of Arcola and Mrs. Gid Tharrington, Jr., of Warrenton. Their gowns, headpieces and flowers were similar to the honor attendant and were all blue. Miss Susan Davis was flower girl and her dress and halo were pink. She carried a basket of rose petals and scattered them in front of the bride. Master Keith Tharrington was ring bearer.

Mr. Curtis Boyette of Raleigh served as best man and ushers were Gid Tharrington, Jr., of Warrenton, Shank Cline and Joe Canady of Raleigh.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, wore a dress of lavender lace with lace hat and white accessories. Mrs. Boyette wore a dress of beige lace with matching accessories and each wore a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Gid Tharrington, grandmother of the bride, wore a dress of black and a white orchid corsage.

For travel the bride changed to a yellow cotton dress, trimmed in white eyelet embroidery and white accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of John Graham High School and attended Hardbarger's School of Business in Raleigh. The bridegroom is a graduate of King's Business College and holds a position with Sharpe's Formal Wear in Raleigh. The couple will reside in Raleigh.

Reception
The ancestral home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis in Inez was the setting for the wedding reception on Sunday afternoon following the Boyette-Davis wedding in the Inez Baptist Church.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who also introduced the receiving line, composed of the bride and groom, their parents and members of the wedding party.

Miss Susie Tharrington registered guests and Mrs. O. L. Hicks and Mrs. J. I. McGrath poured lime punch. Assisting in serving decorated cakes, nuts and mints were Mesdames David Kooztz of Burlington, E. R. Davis, Frederick Williams and Willie Norwood of Inez. Good-byes were said to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harris.

The entire Davis home was festive in floral arrangements and greenery. The table was centered with a bridal arrangement of cut flowers, flanked by tall white tapers in old silver candelabra.

Attend Wedding and Reception
Among out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Ola Boyette, Mr. Curtis Boyette, Joe Canady, Shank Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Egerton of Raleigh, Mrs. E. H. Pulley of Greensboro, Messrs. Philip Shearin and Harold Carraway of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Nick Pescara of Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Skillman of Thomasville, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Eden Tharrington of Youngsville, Mrs. J. C. Overton of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. S. I. McGrath of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. David Kooztz and daughters of Burlington and many others.

Cake-Cutting
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tharrington, Mr. and Mrs. David Mayo and Miss Susie Tharrington entertained at a cake-cutting at the Inez Club House on Saturday evening following the wedding rehearsal of Miss Margaret Joyce Davis and Bobby Franklin Boyette.

Guests were greeted by Miss Susie Tharrington and Miss Anna Clark. Mrs. James Harris directed guests to the refreshment table which bore the traditional green and white color scheme. After the honorees had cut the first slice from the three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, Mrs. Ernest Davis cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ola Boyette presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving mints and nuts were Mrs. L. A. Fowler and Miss Mitzie Tharrington.

Approximately 60 guests attended from Inez, Arcola, Warrenton, Rocky Mount, Raeford, Burlington, Youngsville, Raleigh, Greenville and Portsmouth, Va.
