Warrenton Girl One of Leaders Of Debutante Ball

A Warrenton girl has been selected as one of 14 Tar Heel debutantes by the Terpsichorean Club of Raleigh to lead the 1962 North Carolina Debutante Ball.

Miss Rosa Heath Beckwith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beckwith of Warrenton, will be among the debutantes forming the inner circle of a colorful cartwheel—the traditional figure at the "coming out" presentation September 7.

The Terpsichorean Club, sponsors of the annual weekend event, also announced that Miss Bettie Freeman White of Raleigh has been selected to lead the statewide event in Raleigh September 7 and 8. Both Miss White and Miss Beckwith are students at St. Mary's Junior College.

Mrs. Terry Sanford, the state's First Lady, will serve as honorary chairman for the ball and will serve as hostess for several of the debutante events. Assistants for the ball were evenly divided between the eastern and western sections of the state.

Sunbeam Camp To Be Conducted

Songs, study and recreation will be on the agenda Wednesday for children participating in the Sunbeam Day Camp scheduled to be held at Gardner's Baptist Church.

Mrs. Claude Halthcock, camp director, said Thursday that only eight-year-old children may attend the camp, which is slated to begin at 10 a. m. Activities will close about 2:45 p. m., she said.

Heading the staff for the camp will be Miss Delores Hamrick, state Sunbeam leader, Mrs. Halthcock said. She said that any eight-year-old child, while not a Sunbeam, will be welcomed at the camp. All children have been requested to bring a sandwich and a blanket or towel.

Laymen To Preach At Local Church

Two Presbyterian laymen will conduct services at the Warrenton Presbyterian Church, on Sunday morning. Charles M. White, III, and Sam A. Warlick, Jr., will speak on the "Assurance of Salvation" at the regular morning worship service.

The pastor, the Rev. Levi Humphreys, will be on vacation through the month of August.

In Duke Hospital Chief of Police R. D. Chewning is in Warren General Hospital for treatment.

Receiving Treatment Mrs. M. E. Wilson of Afton is receiving treatment in Warren General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenner Peoples and daughter of Raleigh spent the weekend here with relatives.

North Carolina has 13 area development associations, covering 99 of the state's 109 counties. The state has 937 organized communities in the community development program.

Today, about 87 per cent of the total agricultural output in the U. S. is produced on 40 per cent of the farms, while 60 per cent of the farms produce only about 13 per cent of the agricultural supply.
