MRS. JACKIE RAY HUNDLEY

Juanita Jones Married In Afternoon Wedding

The marriage of Miss Edith Juanita Jones to Jackie Ray Hundley was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Calvary Methodist Church near Littleton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fabius Jones of Route 3, Littleton, are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Monroe Hundley and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Claude Hundley of Draper.

The Rev. Arthur W. Winstead, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Emerald Palms, fern, and baskets of white gladiolas and asters with spiral candelabrum bearing burning tapers were used to decorate the altar for the ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. William H. Perkinson of Norlina, organists, and Mr. Garland S. May, Jr., of Littleton, soloist. Selections included "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The fitted lace bodice over satin was designed with a Sabrina neckline, outlined with lace motifs, delicately embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The long-fitted sleeves ended in calla points over the hands. The bouffant skirt of satin with lace panels extended into a full-length train. Her twotier fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace crown embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Aaron Hudson Callihan of Walstonburg attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of Monte blue silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with a bouffant skirt. The bodice featured a scoop neckline, dipping to a V at the back. The shirred cummerbund was accented in the back with a cluster of self rosettes. The noisetip veil of silk illusion was attached to a cluster of matching organza rosettes tipped with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white Marguerite daisies and blue delphinium.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rubert Harold Stanley of Fayetteville and Mrs. Joel Blanney Hudson of Newport News, Va. They wore dresses and carried bouquets identical to those of the matron of honor. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Wilson of Littleton and Miss Sally Myrick of Roanoke Rapids, both cousins of the bride. They wore dresses of Romance blue silk organza, styled identical to the other attendants and carried smaller cascades.

Joseph Claude Hundley of Draper, uncle of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Aaron Hudson Callihan of Walstonburg, brother-in-law of the bride, Bobby Stegall of Warrenton, cousin of the bride. Dr. William Herbert Lewis, Jr., of Columbia, South Carolina, and Raenard Walker of Colonial Heights, Va. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones wore a lace dress of Serenade blue over taffeta with matching accessories. Mrs.

graduate of East Carolina College with a B. S. degree in Business Education.

For the coming year, both are employed by the Colonial Heights High School, Colonial Heights, Virginia, where the bride will teach English and the bridegroom commercial. The couple will reside at 209R Jefferson Avenue, Colonial Heights, Virginia, upon returning from their wedding trip.

Couple Feted After Wedding Rehearsal

On Saturday night, following the rehearsal of the Hundley-Jones wedding, Mrs. Wilbur Edward Myrick, Sr., of Weldon, Mrs. William Bowers Wilson of Littleton, and Mrs. Robert Malcon Stegall of Warrenton entertained the wedding party and a few close friends and relatives at a cake-cutting at the Calvary Community Building. Upon arrival, Miss Jones was presented a corsage of carnations.

The refreshment table was covered with an imported cloth and pink net accented by ribbon bows. It was centered with an arrangement of white fugi mums and asters, flanked by three-branched silver candelabra bearing tall pink lighted tapers.

After the honored couple cut the first traditional slice of the wedding cake, Mrs. A. H. Callihan of Washington, sister of the bride, served the cake to the guests. Mrs. W. E. Myrick of Weldon, aunt of the bride, served wedding punch, while nuts and mints were served buffet style.

Approximately 75 guests were present from Littleton, Roanoke Rapids, Weldon, Warrenton, Norlina, Walstonburg, Draper, Fayetteville, Newport News and Colonial Heights, Va., and Columbia, S. C.
