Scout Leaders Dinner To Be Held Friday

The annual Boy Scout Leaders recognition dinner will be held Friday, November 16, at 7 p. m. in the National Guard Armory in Henderson on C. P. Gaston, Warrenton Scout leader, announced Monday.

Gaston said that if this dinner follows the pattern of previous years it is likely to be the largest mass meeting of the Vanwarco District. It is held as a pot-luck dinner with each person bringing a certain part of the food. Chairladies for each table—which covers one Scout unit—are assigning portions of the menu to different people. It was urged that arrangements be completed as soon as possible in order to make seating arrangements.

Chairladies were requested to contact Robert E. Smith for the seating arrangements.

New District Officers for the Vanwarco District will be installed at Friday's meeting. Outstanding unit leaders will be recognized as well as outstanding district Scouters. Dr. W. W. Noel, vice-president of the Council, will preside.

Some 30 Boy Scout units have been invited to be represented at this meeting. There will be an attendance award and an award for the best decorated tables by the adults of Cub Pack, Scout Troop, and Explorer Post. The dinner is strictly for adults except for Eagle Scouts and Scouts on the program. Eable Scouts of the past will be recognized.

Arthur Lord is Pot-Luck Dinner chairman and Bob Smith is arrangements chairman. Others assisting are Fred McFarland, Roscoe Orr, Ralph Murray and Gene Robertson.

Total imports of cotton textiles, on a raw fiber equivalent basis, totaled 393,000 bales in the first seven months of 1962. This meant that they exceeded exports by about 119,000 bales. In contrast, imports were 77,300 bales less than exports for the first seven months of 1961.
