MRS. HAROLD VERNON CARRAWAY

Mary B. Davis And H. V. Carraway Wed

St. James Methodist Church in Tarboro was the setting on Sunday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Mary Burwell Davis and Harold Vernon Carraway. The Rev. Robert Stewart Brodie, uncle of the bride, officiated in a double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carey Davis of Inez. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Carraway of Snow Hill.

Arrangements of mixed white flowers and seven-branched candelabra with burning tapers decorated the altar.

The bride entered the church alone and wore a short ballerina gown of imported silk trimmed with motifs of chantilly lace. Her simple bodice was styled with a sweetheart neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. The full skirt was styled with a bustle of chantilly lace flowing to a scalloped hemline. Her veil was attached to a crown of pearls and lace, and she carried a bouquet of pom-poms and glosephelia centered with a white orchid.

Miss Elizabeth Davis of Inez was her sister's maid of honor. Her dress was of light blue chiffon over taffeta, and she carried a nosegay of mixed flowers in pastel shades.

Best man was James Carraway, brother of the groom, of Kinston. Ushers were Dalton Holloman of Enfield and Marshall Carr of Wilson, brother-in-law of the groom.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Edgar Hart organist, and Mr. Jim Mann of Newport News, Va., brother-in-law of the groom, soloist, who sang "O Promise Me," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress and matching accessories. Mrs. Carraway wore a navy dress with matching accessories, and each had a lavender orchid corsage.

Mrs. Carraway is a 1960 graduate of Woman's College, Greensboro, with a B.S. in Home Economics Education and has been assistant Home Economics Extension Agent in Greene County since graduation. The bridegroom attended King's Business College, Raleigh, and is a federal employee in Raleigh where they will reside after a wedding trip to Florida.

For travel, the bride changed to a light blue linen suit and a white straw pillbox hat. She wore the orchid lifted from her wedding bouquet.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Brodie, given by the Brodies and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Honored At Tea
Miss Mary Burwell Davis, bride-elect of March 31, was honored at a tea on March 25, given by the Greene County Home Demonstration Council at the American Legion Building in Snow Hill.

Guests were met by Mrs. Haywood Hill and introduced to the receiving line, consisting of the honoree, her mother, Mrs. J. C. Davis of Inez, and the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Raeford Carraway of Snow Hill.

Mrs. W. R. Price served bridal cakes and Mrs. Frank L. Walton served punch. Cheese straws, nuts and mints were also served.

Assisting were Mrs. Moses Jones, Mrs. Wyatt Taylor, Mrs. Alton Cox, Mrs. J. D.

table' was covered with an Italian linen cut-work cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white bridal wreath, narcissus and candy tuft in a silver bowl, which was flanked by burning tapers. Miss Nancy Lewis Williams assisted in serving ham biscuits, cream puffs filled with chicken salad, decorated cakes, miniature lemon and cherry tarts, cheese straws, nuts and mints.

A special guest was the bride-elect's sister, Miss Elizabeth Davis of Greensboro.
