TOBACCO PLANT SUPPLY

Willie Joe Robertson, Rt. 1, Warrenton had tobacco plants to spare this year. In the picture above you see Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and helper mechanically transplanting tobacco and another helper pegging in missed hills. Mr. Robertson located his Methyl Bromide treated beds in a nice location, well protected from the winds by trees. He set up his irrigation system so when the need arose he put in a little gas, applied a little elbow grease and the drought disappeared. Not only did he have adequate plants for his farm but gave away thousands. Mr. Robertson followed a plant production program that outdid the desired accomplishments of a county agent.

expected to become mothers, date to dry the cow, etc. The tees are colored and each color has a meaning. This is an excellent method to keep up with special events and it can be observed every day by a casual glance.

COTTON STANDS

A good number of cotton producers are experiencing very poor cotton stands and in a number of cases such people are disking the soil and planting soybeans. The ASCS office has advised farmers plowing up such cotton to be sure the borders of the fields are well marked so the land can be measured and give credit for cotton planted in order to maintain the cotton allotment.

GOLF TEE

Who would have thought a golf tee had a place other than on a golf course? Connell and Son Dairy has discovered another use. They have a board in the milking parlor lined off with the names of cows down the left side and listings of important events across the top, such as days the cows are

Bible School To Be Held Next Week

A joint Vacation Bible School will be held by the Providence and Shocco Methodist Churches at the Shocco church, the Rev. Oliver Taylor announced this week. The school will last from 9 a. m. until noon each day, June 10 through June 14.

Mrs. Rosa Fleming will be the director of the school and the faculty will come from both churches. The public is invited to attend.

Family Affair

A junior executive we know came home to find his young son sitting on the curb outside the house, a brooding expression on his face.

"What's the matter, Joey?" he asked.

"Aw," said the boy bitterly, "I just had a big fight with your wife."
