Floating Shower Is Given Bride-Elect

A "floating shower" was held on Friday evening in the Mt. Pleasant Community Club in Bailey in honor of Miss Jackie Glover, bride-elect of July. Mesdames M. A. Finch, Millard Perry, Frank Vick, Rex Bottoms, Raymond Finch, Millard Glover and Hewell and Doyette Glover served as hostesses.

The table was covered with a pale green damask cloth, overlaid with white netting and centered with lillies and Queen Anne's lace, flanked by lighted tapers in old silver holders. Arrangements of greenery and magnolias were used on the piano.

The honoree was presented a corsage, as were Mrs. Glover and Mrs. F. B. Newell.

Mrs. Doyette Glover and Mrs. Hewell Glover, aunts of the bride-elect, poured lime punch. Decorated petite fours, iced with white, were served buffet style with assorted nuts and bridal mints.

July Bride-Elect Honored At Shower

Miss Jackie Glover, bride-elect of July, was honored at a shower in the home of Mrs. Thomas Gaskill on Monday night by the Women of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Jack Glover was a special guest.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white mums upon arrival. White mixed flowers, flanked by tall burning tapers, centered the table. Green and white floral arrangements were used throughout the Gaskill home.

Party sandwiches, cookies, nuts and mints were served. Punch was poured by Mrs. F. B. Newell.

Miss Glover Feted In Gastonia Home

Miss Jackie Glover, bride-elect, was feted at the home of Mrs. E. R. Clemmer in Gastonia on Saturday evening. Mrs. H. K. Strout was joint hostess. Arrangements of mixed spring flowers were used throughout the home.

The honoree was presented a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and a gift in china by her hostesses. Miss Suzanna Strout, a junior attendant in the wedding, assisted in serving a sweet course.

Attending from Warrenton were Mrs. Jack Glover, Mrs. F. B. Newell, Mr. Frank B. Newell, Jr., and the honoree.

Miss Pittard Weds William P. Shipp In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE — Miss Mary Elizabeth Pittard and William Paul Shipp were married Sunday.

The marriage took place in the First Baptist Church where the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bernard Pittard, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fowler Shipp of Clinton, had his father as best man.

The bride's other attendants were Mrs. James Allen Matthews of Chattanooga, Tenn., sister of the bride and matron of honor, and Miss Mary Jewel Shipp of Clinton, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Peggy Jane Highsmith of Bethel and Miss Patricia Ann McNulty of here, bridesmaids.

Attendants of the bridegroom, besides his father, were the following ushers: John Bernard Pittard, Jr., brother of the bride, Clarence Fowler Shipp, Jr., of Dathan, Ala., brother of the bridegroom, James Lockerman of Clinton, and Wade H. Hargrove, Jr., of Chapel Hill.

The bride wore a princess gown of satin with a chantilly lace bertha and full court train. Her veil was attached to a fitted cap of chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a prayer book.

The Rev. Robert Nathan, pastor, heard the vows. He was assisted by the Rev. Larry Williams, assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church, Graham.

Following the rites the newly weds left for a wedding trip on the coast. They will make their home in Chapel Hill, where Mr. Shipp is to enter the graduate school of the University of North Carolina. He is a 1962 graduate of the University and a member of Kappa Alpha Order and the Order of the Old Well.

Mrs. Shipp, an alumnae of St. Andrews Presbyterian College, is a rising senior at Meredith College.

MRS. WILLIAM RAY FRAZIER

Miss Harrell Becomes Bride Of Mr. Frazier

In a ceremony of beauty and dignity at Immanuel Baptist Church in Fayetteville on Sunday, June 2, at 4 o'clock, Miss Kay Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harrell of Fayetteville, became the bride of William Ray Frazier of Clinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Frazier of Afton. The Rev. T. J. Fulk officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Frazier of Warrenton, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. James Gardner, Miss Glenda Gillis and Mrs. Larry Martin, all of Fayetteville. They wore tea green dresses identical to that of the honor attendant and carried colonial nosegays of yellow pom poms.

Miss Kathy Harris of Richmond, Va., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and wore a white dress of chiffon over taffeta, featuring puff sleeves, high neckline and a three-tiered lace skirt with a bow in the back. Her head piece was of yellow and she carried a basket of yellow rose petals. Master Tony Harris, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

A. R. Frazier of Afton served his son as best man. Ushers were Stanley Harrell of Atkinson, cousin of the bride; Harold Harris of Richmond, Va., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Owen Widman and James Gardner of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Harrell chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath lace ribbon knit of pale blue. Her hat and accessories matched and she wore a white hybrid orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom was attired in a dress of aqua cotton and tambour embroidery plain sheath. With it she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white hybrid orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Douglas Branch Memorial Educational Building. A four-tier wedding cake centered the table. A silver punch bowl stood at one end of the table and an arrangement of bridal flowers, flanked by burning tapers in silver candelabra, was placed at the other end of the table.

For a bridal trip to the mountains, the bride changed to a costume design sheath dress of almond green. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Frazier will reside at 1003 Lloyd Street in Clinton.

The bride is a graduate of Fayetteville Senior High School and Worth Business College. The bridegroom is a graduate of John Graham High School and is employed by Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Mrs. Harrell, mother of the bride, entertained at a bridesmaids luncheon on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Harrell entertained at a bachelor dinner on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.
