Ruby Ann Newsom, B. H. Hudgins Wed

The marriage of Miss Ruby Ann Newsom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ray Newsom of Littleton, to Bradford Hunter Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noland G. Hudgins of Norlina, took place Sunday afternoon in the Norlina Methodist Church. The Rev. J. B. Parvin, pastor of the group, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Margaret Hicks of Norlina, organist.

Vows were spoken before an altar decorated with basket arrangements of white hydrangeas and fern, flanked by candelabras holding burning tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white cocktail dress of chiffon over taffeta with a fitted bodice, fashioned with a portrait neckline and a bell-shaped skirt. Her veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She wore pearl accessories and carried a white prayer-book topped with white cymbidium orchids.

Miss Margaret Lee Newsom was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pink dress of chiffon over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Kenneth Daeke of Manson was the bridegroom's best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories and had a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother also wore a blue dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Sol B. Bobbitt was mistress of ceremonies.

The couple received in the vestibule of the church after the ceremony.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a green floral dress with white accessories and her corsage was a white cymbidium orchid lifted from her prayer book.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Littleton High School. The groom is a graduate of Norlina High School and is employed in Roses 5-10-25c Store in Tarboro, where the couple will make their home.

Zion HD Club Meets At Home Mrs. Rooker

The Zion Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. C. P. Rooker on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. E. E. Hecht, pres. opened the meeting with the reading of a hymn. "Security" was the topic of the devotional led by the hostess who asked the question during her talk, "How Big are Our Lives".

"Feeding the Sick in the Home" was the subject discussed by the Food and nutrition leader, Mrs. Rooker. She gave the group several important points on feeding the sick. Among these were:

1. was to fix attractive trays.
2. prepare appetizing foods.
3. Make the patient comfortable before serving.
4. Feed the patient promptly.

Mrs. Rooker demonstrated a broccoli souffle which she served each guest. Routine business was then held, after which the hostess served lime sherbert floats and cookies.

A lovely arrangement of colorful petunias added an air of spring in the living room. The annual family picnic will be held at the J. D. Holtzman pond in July.

J. C. Pridgen is receiving treatment at Park View Hospital in Rocky Mount.
