MRS. RICHARD ROY SNEDEGAR

Miss Jeffries Becomes Bride Of Mr. Snedegar

Miss Mary Ricks Jeffress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fleming Jeffress of Palmer Springs, Virginia, became the bride of Richard Roy Snedegar, son of Mrs. Annie Stevens Snedegar and the late George Roy Snedegar of Roanoke, Virginia, Saturday afternoon, August 3 at 4 o'clock, in the Green Memorial Methodist Church in Roanoke. Dr. Theodore E. Landis officiated, using the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Lois Ayers, organist, and the Green Memorial Church Choir, directed by Mrs. Eula Ligon with Elwood Norris as soloist, presented a program of wedding music. The choir sang "O Perfect Love" and "Whither Thou Goest." Mr. Norris sang the "Wedding Prayer."

The bride entered the church with her father who gave her in marriage. Her floor length gown of imported hand clipped lace over bridal satin was fashioned with a sculptured bodice, long sleeves with callpoints, a deep scoop scallop neckline etched with seed pearls and iredescents. A pointed waist topped a full front skirt, the back circled with eight lace roses fell over a chapel train with scallop hem.

Master Paul Peters son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Peters of Roanoke was ring bearer and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Wellford W. Inge, Jr., of Cincinnati, Ohio, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert L. Hundley of Richmond, Virginia and Mrs. D. David Ringley of Roanoke, Virginia, former classmates of the bride. The attendants wore dresses of ballerina length, fashioned of silk organza and chantilly lace in autumn pink, the full skirt front with three silk bows, a basque bodice with bracelet length sleeves and deep scoop neckline of matching lace. A circular veil fell from a clip of double pink silk roses. They carried white lace fans showered with pink roses and baby's breath.

Mr. James A. Hancock, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were James H. Jeffress of South Hill, brother of the bride; D. David Ringley, Charles R. Carper, and Winfred H. Hart, Jr., all of Roanoke.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath of silk organza and lace in Dior blue with matching accessories and a purple throated orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore a street-length dress of blue lace with matching accessories and a purple throated orchid.

Mrs. Snedegar is a graduate of Mars Hill Junior College and the Medical College of Virginia with a B.S. Degree in Nursing. She is now completing her third year as instructor in Maternity Nursing at the Lewis-Gale Hospital School of Nursing, Roanoke. Mr. Snedegar is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute with bachelor of science degree in electrical and mechanical engineering and is a member of the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity. He is employed by Appalachian Power Company of Roanoke.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Church Social Hall for all guests attending. Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. W. L. Gunter of Salt Lake City, Utah, sister of the groom. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Mary Steele and led to the line which was composed of the wedding party and the parents of the bride and groom. The table was covered with a pink satin cloth with the center arrangement of white glads, white mums, pink roses in arrangements of the brides bouquet, silver candlebras with tall pink candles. White wedding bells decorated the hall.

Punch was poured by Misses Vicki Ruggeri, Jeannette Harwell, Janice Walker, and Mrs. Linwood DeWhitt. The wedding cake was served by Misses Eloise Caldwell and Sue Scott. Party sandwiches, cake, mints and other dainties were served.

For traveling, Mrs. Snedegar wore a blue suit with matching accessories and her corsage was the one lifted from her bridal bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Snedegar left for a two week wedding trip to Bermuda. Upon return, the couple will reside at 1815 Westover Avenue, S. W., Roanoke.
