Miss Warren Is Bride Of Nathan Henry Gay

LITTLETON—In a ceremony performed in the Bear Swamp Baptist Church on August 18 at four o'clock, Miss Doris Faye Warren became the bride of Nathan Henry Gay. The Rev. G. B. Norman officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Warren. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. E. Conner of Springfield, Va., and the late Mr. Sidney Gay of Gaston.

The church was decorated with potted palms, baskets of pink gladioli, astors and seven-branch candelabra with pink burning tapers.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. A. G. Wilcox presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Art Fore of Rolesville was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of chantilly lace over taffeta featuring a scalloped neckline, long sleeves with bridal points at her hands, a scalloped over-skirt ending in a chapel train embroidered with seed pearls. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Esther Read daisies.

Miss Sandra Warren, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a mint green street length dress with a bell-shaped skirt of candy floss over taffeta. Her headpiece was of matching green illusion and she carried a bouquet of pink Esther Read daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Echols of Roanoke, Va., sister of the groom, Miss Violet Moore of Emporia, Va., cousin of the groom, Miss Mary Ann Williams of Roanoke Rapids and Miss Vivian Satterwhite of Hollister. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Charlotte Warren, niece of the bride. They wore street-length dresses of pink candy floss over taffeta identical to that of the honor attendant and carried green Esther Read daisies.

Sidney Gay of Alexandria, Va., was his brother's best man. Ushers were James Echols of Roanoke, Va., brother-in-law of the groom, Claude Warren, Jr., and George Warren of Littleton, Alton Warren of Fayetteville, brothers of the bride and Floyd Daughtry, uncle of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a street length dress of emerald green pure silk shantung with matching hat and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Conner, mother of the groom, wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

For traveling the bride chose a blue brocade silk sheath with white accessories. The bride attended Hardbarger's Business College, Raleigh, and is now employed by the J. P. Stevens Co., Inc., Roanoke Rapids. The bridegroom is a 1962 graduate of East Carolina College and has
