

Teachers Hold District Meet At Creedmoor School

CREEDMOOR—The Home Economics teachers of district four held a professional meeting at G. C. Hawley High School here recently with Miss Shaw as hostess. In the absence of the principal, Mr. Spell, agriculture instruction, extended a welcome to the group.

The theme for the meeting was "Developing Concepts In Teaching Home Economics." The topic for discussion was "Planning Classroom Instruction on Family Relationship, Health and Home Safety for the Preparation for Marriage and Home Making." These discussions were led by Mrs.

Follin Collins, Person-Albion High School, Franklinton; Miss Edith Spirey, Spaulding High School, Spring Hope; Mrs. Juanita Powell, Nash Central High School; Mrs. Lillie Dickerson and Mrs. L. R. McGrier, J. R. Hawkins High School, Warrenton; Mrs. Ophelia Davis, North Warren High School, Wise. Remarks were made by the area supervisor, Miss August White.

This group is composed of Homemaking Teachers from Granville, Vance, Franklin, Nash and Warren counties. The meetings are held under the auspices of the State Department of Public Instruction.

Nickels for Know-How funds contributed to the development of the bulk curing method for curing flue-cured tobacco.

Class To Meet
The V. L. Pendleton Philatelia Class will meet in the home of Mrs. W. L. Wood on Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p. m. Joint hostesses will be Mrs. A. C. Blalock and Mrs. Jane Montgomery.

More than $1.7 million has been contributed to agricultural self-assessments in the Nickels for Know-How Program.

Modern Youth
Little Bobby tripped and fell on his face on the sidewalk. A kindly old lady rushed over to help him up. "Now little boy, you must be brave about this," she purred. "You mustn't cry." "Cry, my foot," said Bobby. "I'm going to sue the heck out of somebody."

MISS EVELYN BOYD
Manson Native Will Be New Extension Agents' Secretary

Miss Evelyn Boyd, 18, of Manson has been employed as secretary to the Negro Extension Agents, succeeding Miss Delores Garrett who has served in the capacity for the past six years.

Announcement of Miss Boyd's employment was made yesterday by L. C. Cooper, Negro Agricultural Agent. He said that Miss Garrett would leave around Dec. 1 to assume her duties as secretary to the State Home Demonstration Agent at A. & T. College in Greensboro.

Cooper also announced that Miss Maretta Smallwood, who has served as assistant Negro home economics agent in Warren County since January, has been promoted to Home Agent in Bertie County where she will assume her duties around the first of the year.

Miss Boyd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, Sr., of Manson, is a graduate of North Warren High School and Durham Business College. She has been a NHA reporter, 4-H Club vice-president, and science club secretary. Last summer she served as assistant secretary at Staff Builders, New York, where she performed typing and shorthand.

Most of the world lives in darkness

More than half the countries of the world live under a partial or complete black-out of news, through censorship. The people of these countries have lost a guiding light to freedom—the complete, true knowledge of all that is happening in the world.

The job of making all of the news available to every man who can read rests mainly upon our newspapers. Day in and day out, they are able to report the news completely, as only newspapers can deliver it!
