Order Of Rainbow Meets At Norlina

The Chahofai Assembly No. 45, Order of Rainbow, for girls at Norlina held its regular meeting on Monday night, December 9, when three new members, Sandra Cook and Kay Floyd of Norlina and Joan Riggan of Macon, were initiated into the Order.

The initiation was conducted by Mrs. Mildred Wilson, mother advisor; Miss Mary Ccker, advisor; and other officers.

A Christmas party followed the meeting. Christmas carols were played while the members and guests enjoyed refreshments, consisting of lime punch, cake squares, peanuts and pecan halves. A holiday motif was used in decorations and refreshments.

Four Eastern Stars and two Masons were present for the meeting.

PTA To Meet

The Norlina PTA will meet in the music room of the school on Monday night, December 16, at 8 o'clock.

Circle 1 Meets At Home Of Mrs. Hege

Mrs. C. L. Hege was hostess to members of Circle No. 3 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Norlina Methodist Church Monday night at her home on North Street with ten members present.

Mrs. Walter Newman, circle chairman, led the devotional period by giving a Christmas reading, "For Christmas Is." A Christmas prayer was also given.

"If We Had Been In Bethlehem" was the topic of the program given by Mrs. Leigh Traylor, assisted by Mesdames Hege, Shirley Hawks, Linda Hundley, Katherine Farrar, and J. B. Parvin. The group sang old but unfamiliar Christmas carols.

Christmas punch, decorated party cakes and nuts were served by the hostess. The Hege home was festive with lovely Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Parvin will entertain the circle in January and Mrs. Frances Knight will have charge of the program.

Mrs. J. W. Mayfield Entertains At Cards

Mrs. J. W. Mayfield delightfully entertained her bridge club at her home last Tuesday evening. High score prize went to Mrs. D. S. Wimbrow; second to Mrs. B. A. Thaxton; low to Mrs. E. M. Robinson; and Bingo to Mrs. Edmond White.

At the end of an evening of enjoyable play the hostess served beaten biscuits with ham and hot chocolate.

Two Church Circles Hold Joint Meetings

The Lottie Moon and Annie Armstrong WMS Circles joined together for their Christmas meeting in the home of Mrs. G. A. Daeke, Jr., on Monday evening.

Mrs. R. H. Fuller, guest speaker, opened the meeting with Bible reading, using the theme of Christianity in the Home. The Christianity of the Kennedy family was compared with our own prayer life.

Mrs. Fuller also related "The Life of M. Theron Rankin, 1920-1954," a noted Christian worker in China. Each chairman gave reports. The group voted to contribute to the two unfortunate residents of our community at Christmas. Also each member present brought Christmas wrapped packages to be sent to the Child's Care Center at Cherokee. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Emily Bobbitt.

For the highlight of the social hour numbers were drawn and gifts exchanged.

Mrs. Daeke and Mrs. C. L. Nance, joint hostesses, invited the guests into the dining room for Christmas punch, fruit cake, candy, nuts and open-face sandwiches.

Christmas decorations and burning red candles decorated the Daeke home for the occasion.

Mrs. Wyckoff Hostess To Lola-Sue Circle

Ten members of the Lola-Sue Circle gathered at the home of Mrs. A. S. Wyckoff on Monday at 12.30 o'clock for a covered dish luncheon and their December meeting. The home was tastefully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

Following the luncheon, the group returned to the living room where Mrs. J. W. Arnold opened the meeting with a devotional, using as her subject, "Keeping Christ in Christmas." Mrs. L. W. Bowers, program chairman, gave the biography of M. T. Rankin, after which Mrs. G. B. Harris gave a reading, "Jesus, My Son." This was Mary's story as told by John of the birth, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus. Mrs. R. H. Fuller dismissed the group with prayer.

Mrs. Bowers will entertain the circle in January.

Norlina FHA Votes In Favor Of Banquet

The meeting of the Norlina FHA was called to order on December 5 by the president, Delores Lancaster. Devotions were given by Frances Spain. Katherine Perkinson led the group in the FHA Song.

Woman's Club Holds Meet At Club House

The Norlina Woman's Club met last Wednesday night at the club house with Mesdames T. W. Stallings, Elizabeth Lee and Henry Wiggins as hostess. Mrs. Alice Stultz, president, presided over a brief business session at which time the club voted to repair the club house roof. The devotional was given by Mrs. I. M. Weaver.

The program consisted of a Christmas Decoration Show presented by Mrs. W. K. Delbridge. The tradition of red and green were the most popular colors carried out. The show included decorations beginning with the outside door and continuing throughout the home. The mantle was lovely with a red poinsetta tree using magnolia for the greenery, red candles and red velvet bows. A gold-sprayed tree bearing red roses with gold glitter stood attractively in one corner of the room. Many beautiful standing and hanging pieces, made by Mrs. Delbridge, were displayed. The refreshment table was simple and eye-catching with red and green, which was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

Around 35 were served Christmas punch, decorated cake squares, star and Christmas wreath sandwiches, nuts and mints.

December 9, in the Home Economics Department. Big Sisters were assigned to those being initiated.

The freshmen were made responsible for all the refreshments. All standing committees gave reports. After the program, which was a singspiration, the meeting adjourned.—Patricia Macon, Reporter.
