MRS. DAVID E. RATLIFF

Warrenton Man Wed In Henderson Service

HENDERSON—In a candlelight Christmas setting at First Methodist Church on Saturday evening at seven o'clock, Miss Martha Jo Breedlove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gray Breedlove of Henderson, became the bride of David Ergle Ratliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ratliff, Jr., of Warrenton.

The Rev. Warren B. Petteway, pastor of the couple, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Emily Folger, organist.

The bride and groom entered the church unattended. The bride wore a white satin brocade dress and matching jacket with bracelet length sleeves rimmed with narrow bands of white fur. Her head-dress was a satin hat with veil attached and her only ornament, a gift from the groom, was a diamond and platinum lavalier, a family heirloom. She carried a white prayerbook topped with an orchid.

Following a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced destination. For travel, Mrs. Ratliff changed to a two-wheel with relatives. Mr. Cutler spent the weekend there.

Auxiliary Members In Durham Workshop

Six members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 25, spent a day during the Christmas holidays working in the Gift Shop at the Veterans Hospital in Durham, earning 48 hours of rehabilitation credit. Those who attended were Mrs. W. A. Connell, III, Mrs. S. A. Warlick, Mrs. Palmer King, Mrs. H. E. Shaw, Mrs. W. L. Fuller and Mrs. Leonard Daniel.

These Unit members wrapped gifts which were selected by the hospitalized veterans for each member of their families. The local unit, and other units across the state, provided the wide variety of gifts, cards, ribbons and wrappings and then prepared the gifts for mailing to the home towns of the veterans.

Many of the men selecting gifts in the Gift Shop were unable to walk but were brought in on stretchers or in wheel chairs so that the families at home might have a "Merry Christmas" even though the father of the family was hospitalized. Mrs. Leonard Daniel, publicity chairman, said yesterday. This work of the American Legion Auxiliary is carried on in Veterans hospitals throughout the country each year. The Auxiliary also provides a gift for each hospitalized veteran.

Mrs. Daniel said non-auxiliary members who have used paperback books are asked to contact an auxiliary member as these have been requested by the Veterans hospital.

Afton HD Club Holds Annual Yule Party

The annual Christmas party of the Afton Home Demonstration Club was held in the home of Mrs. O. F. Taylor recently with Miss Lula Belle Fuller, Mrs. M. H. Hicks and Mrs. Jim Limer as point hostesses.

Mrs. E. B. Rideout, president, presided and the group enjoyed singing Christmas carols. The devotional was given by Mrs. B. L. Reavis. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. William Bender each gave readings of Christmas.

Mrs. Taylor was in charge of recreation and gifts were exchanged from beneath a lovely decorated tree. The guests were invited into the dining room where punch, cake squares, nuts, cookies and cheese crackers were served from a beautifully appointed table bearing a white cloth and featuring a unique Christmas tree dip. The entire home bore the Yuletide motif.
