An unusual feature of the show was that it was not marred by a single accident, Connell said. He added that the firemen were behavior of the crowd.

The show here Sunday was an accredited horse show and was conducted by Col. R. E. Barrett, noted showman of Branchville, Va., who has been operating horse shows for vears, with Jimmy Morris of Raleigh serving as judge. Affred J. Ellington of Warrenton did a fine job as ring master and was ably assisted by Bill Baskervill of Baskervill,

Officials for the show were Jimmy Morris of Raleigh, Saddle and Walking Horse Judge; Bayne Welker of Greensboro, Hunter Judge; Frank Smith of High Point, Announcer; Mrs. W. W. McNeil of Chesterfield, Va., Show Steward, Alfred Ellington of Warrenton, Ringmaster; Mrs. James P. Beckwith and Mrs. W. R. Baskervill, Jr., Mistresses of Ceremonies; William A. Connell, III, of Warrenton, Show Chairman; Charlie Bowen of Warrenton, Show Co-Chairman; Dr. Donald H. Gwynn of Warrenton and Henderson, Veterinarian; Mrs. Ethel Spears of Chesapeake, Va., Show Secretary; Mrs. A. S. Wyckoff of Norlina, Assistant Show Secretary: Sandy Davis of Warrenton, Farrier. Ribbon girls were Gayle and Janet Harmon, Deborah King, Sandra Wood, Sylvia Davis, and Sarah Reams.

Connell said that the firemen, richer by around $1,000 as a result of the show, are already planning for another horse show next year. He asked that his appreciation be expressed to the many who made the show a success

House Destroyed By Fire Here Saturday

Fire of an unknown origin completely destroyed the home of Richard and Mable Hargrove, back of General Building Supplies, around 8:30 on Saturday night.

Both the Warrenton Fire Company and the Warrenton Rural Fire Department responded to the alarm and kept the flames from spreading to surrounding property, but all contents of the home were destroyed.

The house was owned by John G. Tarwater, Warrenton bus-iness man.
