R. Mount Couple Wed In Baptist Church

In a ceremony of beauty and dignity at the Falls Road Baptist Church in Rocky Mount on Sunday, July 19, at 4:30 p. m., Miss Patricia Ann Drummond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt Drummond, Sr., became the bride of Winfred Clarence Ayscue, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Ayscue, Sr., all of Rocky Mount. The Rev. W. D. Hamrick officiated.

The channel of the church bore lovely arrangements of baskets of gladioli, snapdragons, mums and daisies, flanked by a background of palms, brass candelabra holding Cathedral tapers and a brass arch holding lighted tapers. Bouquets marked pews reserved for the families.

Soloist was Mrs. Frank Collins, accompanied at the organ by Mr. Ted Gossett. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta. The bodice featured a scalloped scoop neckline with re-embroidered alencon lace appliques and long sleeves edged with lace petals on bridal points. The princess line was lavishly embraced with re-embroidered alencon lace caressing the bodice and skirt. Soft unpressed pleats complimented with double loop bow flowed gracefully into a full chapel train. Her four tiered bouffant veil of silk illusion was attached to an Empress cap of pearl and Alencon lace topped with a silk organza bow studded with pearls. She carried a cascade of white Georgianna orchids, stephanotis and pearlized English ivy.

Mrs. William Drummond, Jr., of Winston-Salem was matron of honor and Miss Phyllis Bell of Rocky Mount was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Hedgpeh of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Dick Arnold of Rocky Mount, Miss Estelle Davis will be a guest of Mrs. A. D. Alston for several days next week.

Miss Faye Robertson of Arlington, Va., and Miss Delores Williams of Princeton. They wore pink ballerina length dresses of Georgette over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a soft draped bateau-neckline. The full skirt, featuring a scoop back neck with wateau panels flowed gracefully to a deep hem. Their hats were matching petal leaves with the forward look and jet veils.

The attendants carried cascades of pink sweetheart roses with stephanotis and pearlized English ivy.

Mr. Ayscue served his son as best man. Ushers were Mr. Larry Melvin Ayscue, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. William Drummond, Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Roy P. Robertson, Mr. James Harold Robertson and Mr. Carl Ayscue, Jr., all of Warrenton and Mrs. John P. Ayscue of Henderson.

Mrs. Drummond chose for her daughter's wedding a yellow lace sheath with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Ayscue wore a green lace sheath with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

For a trip to Williamsburg, Va., the bride changed to a white, two-piece dress of whipped cream with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will reside at 1104 Lafayette Avenue in Rocky Mount.

The bride is a graduate of Benvenue High School in Rocky Mount and is a rising senior at East Carolina College in Greenville, majoring in Primary Education. The bridegroom is a graduate of Rocky Mount Senior High School, served four years in the U. S. Air Force and is employed at Planter's National Bank and Trust Company in Rocky Mount.

Shower Given For Miss Jeanne Pope

Miss Jeanne Pope, August 2nd bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous shower in the Assembly Hall of the educational building at Gardner's Baptist Church on Tuesday evening, July 14, at 8 o'clock.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames H. L. Pope, C. M. Hathcock, J. J. Nicholson and G. C. Robinson, who presented the honoree a corsage of white carnations upon arrival and also presented Mrs. C. P. Pope, mother of the honoree, a gardenia corsage.

The favors, rice, tied with green tulle, gold wedding band and green ribbons, were presented to the guests as miniature corsages. A green and white color scheme was used.

Bridal contests were played with Mrs. Stith Walker, Mrs. Alton Duncan and Mrs. Charlie Duncan as winners, who in turn presented their prizes to the bride-elect.

Miss Pope was invited to the gift table which was covered with a white cloth and centered with ivy at the base of a miniature bride and groom. She was presented a silver engraved cake knife from her hostesses and received many nice and useful gifts from the guests present.

Punch was poured by Mrs. Herbert Pope. Buttered pecans, mints and decorated bridal cake squares were served from a beautifully decorated table with mint green cloth, gardenias and trailing ivy. An arrangement of gardenias, glads and fern, in a crystal bowl, flanked by burning white tapers in crystal candelabra centered the table.

About 35 guests attended from Warrenton, Macon, Wake Forest and the Churchill community.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Smiley of Macon and Mrs. Emma King of Warrenton attended the funeral of their cousin, Mr. Clyde Wilson, at Wake Forest last Saturday.
